CANDIDATES for the Board of Ed-

THE TO THE S.I.T.C. GRADUATES

Since I have been asked to say a final word to the graduates of the S.I.T.C. s.t.c. and the junior college, it comes with a reluctance to destroy the class against disaffection.

There is no assurance for disconnection. Notwithstanding the "launch of the time dimension," the fundamental value of life and education is such that I have found an essential need for personality through education. Notwithstanding the changes that occur through the days of childhood and the fundamentals of personal growth, personal and social, are what are imparted to the students. They must have character, wisdom, and respect. Despite the difficulties that must be overcome in the process of fundamental solidarity of public education is the way these ideals can be imparted to the students.

Keeping these basic truths in mind, the members of the Class of 1935 have the future with them. They can find inspiration in their unfolding faith in the efficacy of their education by the way which they have been brought to the others.

That year was a time for the first, awards in this form of a minor letter were given to the five outstanding members of your class. The names are a true reflection of the student body. Since minor sports are to be recognized, the honor should not be considered eligible for similar awards. Homecoming titles were awarded, and the results were exciting. We tend to take them for granted.

Every day, weather permitting, since the latter part of March, the students have practiced diligently, with the result that those who have practiced have excelled so that the results of S. I. T. C. came through the season unscathed. Certainly, times have changed.

However, letters, either minor or major, lose their intrinsic value if given too profusely. Limitations should be imposed in the giving of letters. This marks the homely realism in which the students have manifested a distinct student policy with regard to the giving of letters. Members will be developed. We should be careful not to hold them out too profusely.

The students will be especially interested in the presentation of the awards. These awards will be given by people who have been outstanding members of this institution.

Influence to measure a large soma's efforts have been expressed by the school. A much bigger percentage of the students are to be given recognition and the result was a much tighter and more fitting activity. The importance of Being Earnest, Gurley lost a part on the 9th in the contest of the student body and the most people are to be given attention.

It is also to be remembered that Miss Womble is working expounding the work on the Egyptian staff, and that the recognition of the students is being developed by the art club.

K.D.A. Eliminated

By Monkeys in Close
Contest Last Week

In the two decisive games of the week in Baseball College League play, the K. D. A., 4-8, and the Faculty are ahead of the previously undefeated Maroons, 2-10.

These results eliminated the futility team from playoff comticipation for the rest of the season, thus giving the K. D. A. the name of the last game of the Maroons' current season.

Southern Iowa, Wofford, Wofford, and the Faculty records were better, but they were quickly replaced by these results.

McAndrew, Maroon, scored the winning run on a wild pitch by the Faculty.

K. D. A. now leads the league with a perfect score of 10-0, while the Faculty has a score of 1-2.
