Heralded Jazz Trio Here Tomorrow

The Lambert, Hendricks and Ross vocal trio will appear on the Shubert stage tomorrow night for shows at 7 and 9 p.m. The jazz trios, which has been featured in "Time," "Playboy," and "Gramophone," has waxed albums including "Sing a Song of Basic," "Sing Along with Basic," and "The Swingers."

Recorded With Many

The trio, a singer-arranger with Gene Kru- pa, Stan Kenton and Harry James, has been identified with the trio. He also played in the Broadway musical "Are You With It?" as a singer-actress. Lambert has recorded for nearly every major label and many small ones. He has played several local engagements with Charlie Parker, Teresa Brewer, Cab Calloway, Chris Connor and others.

Jon Hendrix is a drummer, short-story writer and poet in addition to his role as singer and lyricist. Hendrix is credited with writing the lyrics for "Serenade" and the rock n' roll hit, "I Was Made to Love Her Baby." He writes the lyrics for the numbers that the trio performs.

Lone Lady

Miss member of the trio and the only female in the group, Annie Ross, is an American Jewish girl. She appeared in several "Ou" Gang" comedies and later worked with the Lionel Hampton Ensemble in France and made the nightclub circuit in Paris.

The trio started as a duo with Lambert and Hendrix beginning in 1957 with Count Basie. Lambert joined from a group of singers hired to put together one of the Basie style albums. Since their rise to fame less than five years ago, they have appeared in Los Angeles, the Sahara and Sarastro and other top-night club engagements.

The trio is also joined by Ralph J. Girard, syndicated jazz critic, as the "hotest vocal group in jazz."

Tickets are now on sale in the Student Union for the final concert of the season for $1.50, $1.25 and $1. The concert is sponsored by Sigma Pi Fraternity.

Eight-Night Run

The tour from S.U. was chosen with eight other college theatre groups last Friday under the joint sponsorship of the Illinois Education Association and the National Union of Students.

One of Nine

Selections for such a tour reflect credit on the work of your entire department and your university, since only nine colleges are selected each year. The tour is sponsored by American Theatre, a national magazine, and the tour is sponsored by a group of persons, known by the name of President Arthur J. Ap- plewherry, department chairman.

Education Dean

Appointed To Two Committees

Dr. Arthur Leon, dean of Education, has been named to two committee of persons concerned with the education program for educators. He was named to the Illinois Aerospace Education Committee and the Illinois State Department of Education Education Committee. But in neither, his articles were accurate.

Thurn University officials have called the commission meeting for nine hours.

They said the commission, with the necessity of the weapons and misinterpretations. But we are told for lack of space, I could not say very good things about the last issue. We decided to limit the newspaper is to be criticized.

The annual meeting of the Student Union will be held on Tuesday, May 23, 1961 at 7:30 p.m., and includes such courses in their catalogs.

360-Page Annual

The cover, as well as the whole book, has a "moderni- zed" design. It has a candle-, light base with olive green and black lettering. The size of the book is 9" x 12".

Divisions Shaded

The division pages, which are used at each of the major categories, have also been supplied with olive-green and black shading.
Editor's Opinions
SIU Unscathed, Unmarked

Southern faced the most formidable challenge in its 91-year history last week and from the very corner, the University came out unmarked and unscathed.

The Visitation Commission of Higher Education, which did a sterling job of moderating the hearing, listened to evidence and questioned witnesses for nine hours. The committee was obviously pleased with the presentation of SIU Legal Counsel John Rendleman and President Dewayle W. Morris.

It would be erroneous to report that Southern left Springfield yesterday. Erroines because the commission has not reached a decision and because Southern did not schedule the hearing; it simply replied with sincerity to the error-verdon articles of the Daily News.

Rendleman, displaying a courtroom poise which caught the fancy of the commission, and Morris, obviously conscious of the commission's maturity, opened the gates to every available channel of information which the commission could ask for in looking into the charges of the Daily News.

Regardless of the commission's decision, Morris, Rendleman, SIU: Board of Trustees Chairman John Wham and other University officials showed why Southern has grown in the past 10 years: teamwork.

Only those persons who were involved realize the amount of paperwork which went into those last few days prior to the hearing. Only those who were at the hearing could appreciate the aggressiveness and firm politeness of a Rendleman.

Southern was faced with a series of charges. Are they straight-forward testimony and teamwork, we feel Southern not only met the foe, but came away a better University.

GUARDING THE SIDEWALKS

Not long ago we saw a blinds student walking sedately down the sidewalk on the south side of Morris Library. He knew the path well—or at least he thought he did.

But since his last walk, a post had been installed in the middle of the sidewalk. The student trooped over the base of the post; books were flying, the student was helplessly falling.

Fortunately, a group of students were-justified and saved the handicapped student from injury. But the identical incident will happen again. We can think of nothing more useless than installing posts to keep good boys off the sidewalk. Are we such a sick society that we have to guard sidewalks to keep vehicles off them?

The Soap Box

Students Apathetic

As to your suggestion that we run for offices in the past elections, we feel that although the officers and well-meaning, their views are unriddled and unimportant. Nevertheless, a part of this impracticability is due to the inefficiency of the student body. But realistically, the administration must shoulder a great deal of the blame for the reaction against women's regulations is not unlike the reaction to previous regulations. This reaction has been backed by somewhat student enthusiasm. But eventually the enthusiasm will die and the regulations will be gladly accepted by the apathetic students.

Sincerely yours,
Carole Brunskill

El Benefactor Is Dead

By Ben Baine

El Benefactor is dead. General Rafael Trujillo, the dictator supreme of the Caribbean, was cut down this week by an assassin’s bullet. He wielded power for years in the island he called his own.

First of all, the late Senor Trujillo and Fidel Castro seem signed a mutual non-aggression pact. Could this mean that he believed his followers and his adherents were clean of this act that may lead to the eventual liberty of countless of thousands who promised by the Dominican Republic’s iron hand?

Under Trujillo, the Dominican Republic prospered in ways, but only at the cost of individual freedom. Trujil ruled his country as a criminal and dictator, the world has ever known.

A rift between the Dominican Republic and the United States has been growing over the past few years. Even President Eisenhower, a man of iron, declared at the annual state of the Union address that the United States has been shooting at the first fight.

In January 1960, the eminent Trujillo ruthlessly crushed inquisition. In August of that year, the Dominican Republic and the American States voted sanctions against the Dominican Government.

Trujillo was supposedly a fanatic opponent of international communism, yet he sought the alliance of Mr. Castro, who made the word “revolution” popular. He is now reported to be “an eye-popping” agent of the American States has never been able to be useful in that country.

What will come of the assassination? This is a difficult question to answer. A growing, but small middle-class group has hoped to have averted the assassination. We can only hope that the Benefactor from power in 1960. It is up to the power t takes over the government.

It seems unlikely that Hector Benigno Trujillo, the dictator’s brother, will take over. He was a former president, from 1942-52. When, after stepping down to his “people a lesson on democracy.”

Trujillo had promised people of this country a “free election,” but he continued to put up; he supposedly kill all competitors, or anyone who had his way in his hands, he fired the opposition. Could this mean that he has been a useful ally of the Columbia University campus in New York City a number of years ago. It will be remembered, he claims to be the leader of the people of the Dominican Republic gain their long free from dictatorship.

New, Old Student Councils Meet

The old and new Student Councils held meetings last week, new members were chosen and an appropriation was made to send seven delegates to the National Student Assn. convention in Madison, Wis.

The new Student Council, headed by Student Body Vice President, elect John Morris, convened in the President's Office May 23. The newly elected senators approved the appointment of commissioners for the 1962 school year upon the recommendation of incoming Student Body President Dick Children.

New Commissioners

The commissioners for 1961-62 are: Bill Scavaggi, student right's; Joan Yale, educational affairs and Rich Emde, international affairs. They will replace Dennis Holmes, Bob Dobnal and Children, respectively.

Children announced that Bill Hunt and Karen Davis had been appointed NSA coordinator and associate coordinator. Hunt will replace Marie Tursmske. Also approved was Dick Hynan who will be the secretary-general of the 1962 Model United Nations Assembly.

Guided Tour

The outgoing council was taken for a tour of the University Center by Clarence Dougherty, director of the center.

After the tour, the council approved the appropriation of $945 to send seven delegates to the NSA convention in August. Representing SIU at the two-week convention will be Miss Davis, Children and Tursmske. Also going will be three new full-time members: Marilyn Federer, Dale Klaus and Dennis Gerz.

The final meeting of the 1961-62 Student Council was held last night in the President's Office. Mustoe earlier announced that the incoming council will attempt to meet in Carbondale over the summer.

Southern Will Ask Bids On TV Station

Southern will call in bids Tuesday for construction of its own television transmitter building on Rt. 51 south of Tamora.

The one-story building will house transmitter equipment for a 3,000-watt educational station (Channel 8) which SIU expects to have on the air in September.

Last Recommendations Made

Outgoing Student Body President Bill Morris recently sent his final recommendations on several questions to the Student Council.

Concerning the car ban, Morris proposed elimination of the $30 fine except in cases where it is necessary to punish severely for continuous violation.

He suggested that the student could write a 20-page paper to better educate him with the necessity of the automobile ban. He also suggested lifting of the car ban for student teachers and last-term seniors for the purpose of expedience.

Proposes Report

His recommendation for the Student Council included the proposal that the student body president present a statement to the council each term. Another suggestion was that student senators be required to have a report of happenings in their individual areas which should be passed on to the president and vice president.

He also suggested that when student body meetings are held in a room without an exit, he be removed by the council. Among other recommendations concern-

Rhodes Scholarships Now Available

Anyone interested in applying for a Rhodes Scholarship for two years of undergraduate or graduate work at Oxford University in England should contact G.C. Wirzand in the economics department.

"The competition is keen but there should be a potential candidate among SIU's students," Wirzand said. He declared that the Rhodes Scholarships are the most honored scholarships a student can receive.

The annual stipend is $2,100, which is to cover trans-Atlantic travel, modest living expenses in Oxford and travel money for vacation periods.

Applicants must be citizens of the United States between the ages of 18 and 23 and must have at least a junior standing in their university.

The SIU School of Agriculture hosted an Egg Inspector Training School May 11-12. The University of Montreal established in 1617, is the largest school in Canada.

Student Representatives From SIU's Three Campuses Hold Joint Retreat

Approximately 44 students from the Alton, East St. Louis and Carbondale campuses met in a joint retreat last weekend at the Little Grass campus.

The meeting, which put an end to the week's activities, was held Saturday afternoon with a tour of campus by the visiting students. Staff members from the school newspapers, yearbook editors and Student Council members comprised the student membership at the two-day retreat.

Theme of the meeting was "Growing, with Purpose and Direction." The agenda included such topics as international student activities, curriculum development, student government activities, athletics, communication and identification.

European Trip Devised

It was announced that a trip to Europe has definitely been planned for the summer of 1962 for students, their families and faculty members. The place will leave the Chicago airport in June and pick them up one month later in Paris. The trip will be made available at a considerably reduced rate.

Also discussed in the international division was a suggested talent search for the Peace Corps and an exchange program for students. It was suggested that a special college program should be made for students from the universities for the Peace Corps. After spending a term in the Corps, the student could possibly be given a veteran's scholarship when he returns to his university campus.

Combined Annuals

The possibility of combining the campus yearbooks was discussed, but the general conclusion was that the schools are still too diverse. However, the 1962 yearbooks of both campuses will contain a section of eight or 12 pages on the other's activities. The complete combination of the yearbooks is a definite possibility in about 10 years, it was noted.

Students from the Alton campus suggested a better exchange of news between their campus newspaper, the Altonian, and the Egyptian. It was announced that the campuses will remain separate in their representation in the National Student Assn. Spokesmen said that as a combined unit, SIU would be represented by only seven persons. As three separate campuses, Southern has 11 NSA representatives.

But why were the Spren gelmeYers declared ineligible? That is a mystery unsolved. Nonetheless, here are the facts:

Southern’s registrar claimed any student who completed prerequisites for a course in a school was a legal resident. However, when asked what constituted a completed registration, the football athletes on the Spren gel Award list, Bob and Roy didn’t know how to pay their fees. Therefore they rejoiced when they received the award, which covered books, tuition, and fees.

Honest Mistake

Bob and Roy did not attend classes during the winter quarter so they were not eligible for the tour. Coach Dick LeFever, however, considered the tour part of the spring term, which would have made the boys eligible.

Commissioner Clifford Horton of the IAC said in a telephone interview that eligibility ruling was "inevitable," said Horton, "if a protest is lodged in time." A letter April 18, Horton said that if a protest was lodged, the Spren gelmeYers would be ineligible for the winter quarter. As a matter of fact, his rejection of the Spren gel’s claim was made official by the IAC as a protest was not filed in time.

More troublesome than that was the fact that our team was not notified of the decision until Friday afternoon when Bob and Roy played their championship game.

The Spren gelmeYers were not the only team affected. Both the Saluki and Bobcats were out of the tour. Edwardsville Planning Conference Held In Five-Story Inflated Dome

The crash program for the planning and establishment of the Edwardsville campus will be held this weekend in East St. Louis in a five-story air dome. The program, entitled EPEC (Environmental Planning, Edwardsville Campus), involves application of visual art and design values to the physical master plan of the Edwardsville campus. It is supported by grants from the Edwardsville Faculty Branch of the Ford Foundation and the Kate Macy Foundation, which is directed by SUl Trustee Arnold Macy.

Inflated Dome

The air dome, which is made of three layers of plastic, will be erected by air inflation. Two blowers, which expanded the larger dome to its full 100-foot diameter, will keep it inflated until the program is complete. A smaller dome, which is 50 feet wide, will be erected nearby as a related exhibit.

The large dome will provide seating for over 600 persons. Facilities inside the dome include a special costume tower for mounting "Manscape" projectors and providing space for television and still cameras. It is equipped with revolving doors and crash doors.

Noted Participants

At a seminar in the dome this afternoon and tonight, 13 noted personalities in various fields, including philosophers, sculptors, landscape architects, engineers, site planners and educators, will participate.

Among those persons who will be presented on a special Film, interview are: R. Buckminster Fuller, author of "Dymaxion Man" and "Synergetics"; the zoologist and race-track Proprietor "B.B." Anthony; the noted Bavon, award-winning city planner; Hoko Sasaki, Harvard University landscape architect; and Paolo Soleri, an Arizona architect whose utopian ideas have included a sculpturally moulded concrete bridge of tubular design.

An exhibition combining multiple-slide projections and sound will be staged in the dome for the public tomorrow and Sunday. This program, known as "Manscape," will feature discussions of man's attainment to organize his environment.

The timer will be indicated to the limit on calls which are in excess of these times. Four, three and two-hour classes which meet during the second period (7:35-9:15 p.m.) on Thursday and/or Friday - 6 p.m.; for classes which meet only on Thursday nights examinations will start at the same time as the class sessions ordinarily start.

General Information
Examinations for three, four and five-hour credit hour classes will begin two hours and ten minutes later and will run for one hour.

For example, an 8 o'clock class carrying four hours of credit will have its examinations at 7:59-9:30 a.m. on Wednesday, June 7. An 8 o'clock class carrying two hours of credit will have its examinations from 10:11 a.m. on.

A student who finds he has more than three examinations on any one day, and along with the examinations scheduled at one time, should petition his academic dean for approval to take an examination during the make-up examination period on the last day.

For such a make-up examination period does not mean that a student may decide to miss his scheduled examination time and expect to make it up during this make-up period. This period is to be used only by a student whose petition has been approved by his dean. Five years ago, after going to the Northwestern Speech Clinic in Chicago, the doctors said that at that time I had a split vocal chord," Roundwill continued. 'They said I could sing soprano indefintely without any harm to my voice.'
