THE ILLINOIS INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETIC TOURNAMENT

The Southern Illinois Normal quintet of basket ball players took fourth place in the Minor Division of the First Tournament of Illinois Intercollegiate Athletic Conference, held on the Millikin gymnasium floor. Before the game, the tournament under the new name of the organization adopted last spring. Ten such meets were held under the old "Association."

The Maroons met Heding College in their first game at four o'clock on Thursday afternoon and after a slow start, played game came out on the long end of a 23 to 17 score. The first half was 9-9 for Heding. The locals seemed unable to move, pass or shoot. The opponents were in about the same situation but were large in stature, and this alone kept them to the front. Finally "Dud" Doolen began to break loose for some long dribbles and thereby carried the ball down the field time and again alone and completed the play by dropping in line-up and eleven in the same place in seven intercollegiate tournaments. The eleven in the same time and again alone and completed the play by dropping in line up who were good scorers. This defeat left still a chance for third place.

At three o'clock in the afternoon Illinois College knocked the "Reds" into fourth place by defeating them 45-14. There is not much to say about this game except that we did not have a chance. The boys were too tired to get anywhere. Of course Illinois should have been the same way but they did not act it. The big hurleys coursed just as if it were their first game instead of their last.

BOX SCORES

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Team</th>
<th>G</th>
<th>F</th>
<th>P</th>
<th>T</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Normal</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Brooks</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Rude</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Doolen</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>14</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Allen</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Pickett</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Heding</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Wheeler</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Snedker</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Patrich</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Kohley</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Moench</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Normal</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Brooks</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Rude</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Allen</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Pickett</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Eureka</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Allen</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Pickett</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Rude</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Doolen</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The Maroons have been entered in seven intercollegiate tournaments and have placed in four: third place in 1917; first in 1918; fourth in 1920, and the same place in 1921.

"MR. BOB"

Last Friday morning "Strut and Fret," presented the second act of "Mr. Bob," a two-act comedy. The first act was staged two weeks before by an entirely different cast. These two acts were given as some of the special church exercises which the Student Council has instituted.

The two groups of people who had been rehearsing the act had a try-out on the preceding Wednesday night and the following cast was expected:

- Miss Rebecca Luke—Zella Ford
- Katherine, her niece—Ruth Lambert
- Philip, her nephew—George Wilson
- Marion Bryant (Mr. Bob)—Bernice Brinn
- Mr. Robert Brown, lawyer—Henry Shroeder
- Putty, stage-struck maid—Norma Keen
- Frank E. Roberts, Jr., the butler—Philip "Dud" Doolen

The student coaches who whips this cast into shape were Miss Selma Pullner and Miss Tillie Sturm. These Friday chapel entertainments given by students are both educational and entertaining—educational to the persons doing the work and entertaining to everyone.

While "Strut and Fret" allowed dealing with dramatic art, has probably not succeeded in developing as brilliant stars, it has provided amusement and entertainment for all concerned.

Synopsis

Miss Rebecca Luke, who is interested in cats, has arranged with architect to convert a part of house into a home for devoted. At this is unknown to her niece, and when strange lawyer arrives, business concerning Miss will. Miss Luke thinks architect whose presence he kept dark; Katherine thinks Mr. Sanders, Philip's friend is expected; and Philip thinks Mr. Bob, Katherine's friend fusion reigns until Mr. Bro lawyer, is allowed to exp he "came down."
Sensational Mock Jury Trial Held

A Popular Normal Student Arrested On Serious Misdemeanor Charge

Carbondale, Ill., January 5.—The entire student body of the Southern Illinois State Normal University was thrown into an excitement (which seemed for a while would surely terminate in panic or revolution) when Ned Roberts was arraigned before the “Forum Mock Court” Saturday morning for dancing in Anthony Hall, an act unparalleled in the annals of criminality. Ned Roberts, a high school Senior of the University High School, was arrested February nineteenth at nine o’clock P. M., by Sheriff Harry Ohms, indicted by the grand jury and held under bond to await the action of the Forum Mock Court, which convened on Saturday morning. March fifth, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and twenty-one, with Judge Charles Kent Watkins presiding.

Judge Watkins is a Normal Senior. He showed extraordinary ability as a judge, and gave his decisions with an unprecedented air of firmness, impartiality and spontaneous judgment. This high office calls forth a requirement of initiative ability which a student may never meet in life unless he enters into the legal profession. Therefore it is excellent training to sit as judge even in a mock court if a person assumes the responsibility and discharges his duties like a qualified official as Judge Watkins did.

State's Attorney Alvin Mathis, assisted by Hon. Gay McLain and Hon. Lawrence Watson was the prosecuting attorney and Hon. Earl Smith, assisted by Hon. John Watson, defended the case. The case was tried by the following: comptrollers—Erwin, Engles Werner. Guy Davies, Walter McNeal, Horace Eubanks, Creal Plunkett, Ralph Turner, Ira Bear, Edwin Poindeater, Henry Schaefer and George Wells, who carefully weighed the evidence and conscientiously gave the verdict.

State's Attorney Mathis exhibited superior abilities in selecting the jurors and prosecuting the case. Hon. Gay McLain and Hon. Lawrence Watson in their assistance in the prosecution showed remarkable tact; premeditated dramatic effects of the inquiries and convincing the jury.

Hon. Earl Smith exercised his old bits in the arts of debate and gave a convincing force, points which every court could not refrain from acting. Hon. John Watson, who appeared in the court on behalf of the defendant, a secret service man named Sherlock Holmes (Max Brock) with his unique abilities, had given possession of a letter written in a black hand, laying open the plot of a conspiracy against Roberts, which after much research he finally deciphered and produced as evidence. In defense of the defendant, a secret service man named Sherlock Holmes (Max Brock) with his unique abilities, had given possession of a letter written in a black hand, laying open the plot of a conspiracy against Roberts, which after much research he finally deciphered and produced as evidence in defense of the defendant.

Circuit Clerk Lyndon Hancock, administered the oath to the following witnesses: Guy McLain, Hazel Ervin, Rowena Gabbleth and Edith Immett, for the plaintiff, and John Watson, Myrtle Halberg, Leone Smith and Max Brock in behalf of the defendant.

Guy McLain was the first to be called upon the witness stand, and throughout his entire testimony his florid countenance gave evidence of naturalness for the accused. Notwithstanding the fact that he was reeling slightly, he spoke, held the head and told nothing but the truth. Hazel Ervin was next called upon the stand and it soon became evident that she was a match for the rapid-fire questions17100f forth from the antagonistic jaws of the questioner. With nervous tread and questionable air came Rowena Gabbleth, only to add to the horrors of the accused and to elate the uncompromising minds of his adversaries. Edith Immett was next called upon the stand to this great tribunal and then and there though very much excited and added, without a doubt told all she saw and knew.

Just as soon as John Watson hit the stand he began to explode theories, facts, laws with great dexterity in behalf of his poor accused. He believed had much to do with the verdict of the jury. Behold, here comes Miss Hollebern! What does she know about this? Well, we soon found out, when quietly and without heat or emotion, came Miss Hollebern, which went far to stone for her being there. But now the oddest of all and perhaps the most pathetic event of the twentieth century is about to take place. What is it? Poor Leonie Smith, the espoused wife and sympathetic consolation of her true love (the defendant) now almost in sobs, now in anger, now in profound excitement, gave testimony of exceptional weight and fervor, together with her pitiful plight we are prone to believe, that was to say, "If it were possible for the Ag. Club to die, I want to die first, for I would not enjoy myself, knowing the club was no more.""
The Ag. Club, the largest and most flourishing department club of the school, recently announced five prizes for the best papers on the subject, "How I Can Influence Boys And Girls To Enter the S. I. N. U." Practically everyone of the one hundred and fifty members of the club entered the contest. The membership includes all those interested in agriculture. The prizes were awarded on the basis of thought and form and were offered as follows:

First Prize, Five Dollars.
Second Prize, Four Dollars.
Third Prize, Three Dollars.
Fourth Prize, Two Dollars.
Fifth Prize, One Dollar.

J. C. McCormick,"21, won the first prize; Elmer Schutte, '27, the second; Luna Green, '27, the third; Alfred Purjue, '24, the fourth; Emerson Hall, '21, the fifth. Honorable mention was given to Janey Kell and Gladys Hickey.

The essay that won first prize is as follows:

What May I Do To Get Someone To Attend the S. I. N. U.

I can always be careful to conduct myself in such a manner as to bring credit to the school. We are judged largely by our speech and our appearance. We meet many people who have no means of judging our working abilities, and yet these people instinctively rank us according to our conduct and appearance. I can be careful to speak properly and to be a gentleman. I can cause my school to have high rank among other schools and by attending here for two years get a provisional certificate enabling them to teach even when they have saved enough money to acquire further training.

I can inform them of the excellent salaries the graduates of the school are getting, and how it is possible for the boy or girl to come from the country school and by attending here for two years get a provisional certificate enabling them to teach even when they have saved enough money to acquire further training.

Finally, I can always remember that I am a representative of the school and can best show my appreciation of the pleasant days I have spent here by boosting, boosting some more and continuing to boost the Southern Illinois Normal University.

ANTHONY HALL GOSSEPI

Miss Pierce, Tri State Y. W. secretary, was a guest at Anthony Hall last week.
Misses Edna Alvis and Mary Peace went shopping, in St. Louis, last week.
Miss Ethel Bruce visited friends in Hevin last Saturday and Sunday.
Miss Lucile Erwood of Eldorado was a guest of Alice Cape, last week.
Miss Elva Trovillion was a guest of her brother in Champaign, Saturday and Sunday of last week.
Misses Margaret Brown and Sarah Mitchell were Miss Bell's dinner guests Wednesday evening.
Peggie Mason was in Decatur last week watching our boys win fourth place in the tournament.
Mrs. Keen of Christopher, was a dinner guest of her daughter Norma at Anthony Hall, Tuesday.
Miss Mary Guillet, of Charleston, Normal, was Miss Nell Thee's guest last week end.

Miss Fern Williams is attending the tournament at Centralia, this week end.
Mabel Hall—"Hazel, may I borrow your taffeta hat?"
Hazel Erwin—"Sure, but why the formality?"
Mabel Hall—"Well, I couldn't find anything.
Mr. Boom—(looking at Olive Johnston) "We went wake up, she didn't know the answer anyway.

Y. W. C. A. NEWS

Y. W. C. A. NEWS.
Miss Florence Pierce, Central Field Secretary, visited the Y. W. C. A. girls from Tuesday evening until Thursday noon.

At association Wednesday P. M. she gave an interesting account of Y. W. work among industrial girls and foreigners in this country and in Japan.

Her individual talk to the cabinet members and new officers gave them an insight and inspiration in the work.

Her visit came just at the right time for her to give some valuable instructions and encouragement to the newly elected officers. We look forward to their taking up new duties with a zest and determination to make the Y. W. one of progress and greater helpfulness.

Watch the bulletin board for an announcement of the play to be given by the Y. M. and Y. W.'s some time in the near future.

Coach McAndrew refereed at the basketball tournament at Marion.

Prof. F. G. Warren left Thursday for Olney where he refereed the H. S. Tournament that was held there.

For Good Barber Work Come To

DELUXE BARBER SHOP

Morris and Trevillion, Proprietors
203 West Main St.
1st class shoe shining 10c

DOC

WHO SHINES SHOES

108 S. Illinois Ave.

We Clean and Polish All Sorts of Satin, Suede and Leather Shoes.

STEVenson's StUDIO

Everything Photographic

Let us finish your Kodak work. Finished by professionals in a professional way.

WORTH 50c

THIS WEEK ONLY AT
Hewitt's Drug Store—Leading Prescriptionists
Carbondale, Ill.

Just sign your name and present this coupon and it will be accepted at our store as 50c on the purchase of

GUARANTEED SCAPPER FOUNTAIN PEN

If the regular price is above $4.00.
We will allow 25c on all pens up to $3.50.

PATTERSON DRY CLEANERS

South of Hewitt's Phone 332-L Called for and Delivered
THE EGYPTIAN

Published Every Week During the Collegiate Year by the Students of Southern Illinois Normal University, Carbondale, Illinois.

Subscription Price $1.00 per year.

Advertising Rates Made Known on Request.

Editor, Guy W. McLean, '21
Assistant Editor, Maude Branden, '22
Adv. Manager, Geo. Wilson, '22
Faculty Adviser, Prof. E. G. Lenz

Board of Directors:
E. E. Downing.......................21
Clyde Brooks............21
William Eude......................22
Ransom Sherertz..............24
Ann Huffman.............25
Elmer Schuette.............26

To paraphrase the language of a celebrated humorist, you are now about to make your first appearance in the capacity of readers of a new school paper. The editorial staff is indolent and not over selective. We are strong enough to survive your criticism. If you do not forget to be charitable kind and blind. Our blunders are the natural shortcomings of inexperience: not sins, the sins of omission rather than of commission. We are guileless and sincere and desirous above all things to please. We are tremendously in earnest in desiring to make The Egyptian (your paper) just what it ought to be. We shall be grateful to you for all usable suggestions. Stands to reason our second will be better than our first. Watch us improve.

OUR AIM

The aim of The Egyptian, so far as an "editorial" policy can be outlined at this time, is to be the voice of all the student body, giving expression to the ideals and spirits of S. I. N. U. Our columns constitute an open forum where ALL may meet. The Egyptian hopes to be the truest, telling and uniting element in all of our multitudinous and diverse interests. So far as humanly possible we shall catch and give back the very essence of the school.

HOW THE EGYPTIAN ORIGINATED

The idea of a school paper as a regular periodical publication for the S. I. N. U. began to take shape in 1915, when Robert Brown, '15, a special student, actively promoted it. In the fall of 1916 the Egyptian was launched as a monthly publication under the editorship of Claude Vick, '17, and the business management of Artie Boswell, '17, and Fred Boswell, '17. The next year Arthur Brown, '15, was elected editor-in-chief, and Raymond Boswell, '18, business manager. A high standard of excellence was maintained by the Egyptian during the first two years of its life. Like most of the student interests it failed to survive the war's drain upon the school and public.
THE SENIOR-JUNIOR GAME

Junior Escaped With Fourteen of the Thirty-Three Points.

Promptly at 3:45, P. M., upon the date of March 8th, "Boozy" blew the whistle which unleashed ten of the fastest basket ball bounds that have ever represented the Senior and Junior classes during all these years of contention over the championship bone, the shield awarded the victorious class team. Previous to this the Juniors had, in warming up, saluted capriciously about the spacious floor, bending their graceful bodies to the rhythm of their mental pleasure in the anticipated victory which they erroneously considered easily within their vain grasp. Meanwhile, in a small group—centered about the south goal—was the grining, rugged limbed Senior team, calmly ignoring the fanciful actions and empty prattlings of the Junior boys, these champions of a noble class persisted in their majestic attitude around the basket, unerringly dropping the sphere through the iron circle, upon which their eyes were constantly riveted.

But the siren is blown, the game is on; Teddy Crawford crashes into a wall of brawn in the form of the Juniors’ meager 14 points, but one whit daunted, he forged on, his eyes locked upon the basket, his stride around the basket, his aim. But the siren is blown, the game is on; Teddy Crawford crashes into a wall of brawn in the form of the Juniors’. He ran toward the net, his aim, his eyes locked upon the basket, his stride around the basket, his aim. But the siren is blown, the game is on; Teddy Crawford crashes into a wall of brawn in the form of the Juniors’. He ran toward the net, his aim, his eyes locked upon the basket, his stride around the basket, his aim. But the siren is blown, the game is on; Teddy Crawford crashes into a wall of brawn in the form of the Juniors’. He ran toward the net, his aim, his eyes locked upon the basket, his stride around the basket, his aim. But the siren is blown, the game is on; Teddy Crawford crashes into a wall of brawn in the form of the Juniors’. He ran toward the net, his aim, his eyes locked upon the basket, his stride around the basket, his aim. But the siren is blown, the game is on; Teddy Crawford crashes into a wall of brawn in the form of the Juniors’. He ran toward the net, his aim, his eyes locked upon the basket, his stride around the basket, his aim. But the siren is blown, the game is on; Teddy Crawford crashes into a wall of brawn in the form of the Juniors’. He ran toward the net, his aim, his eyes locked upon the basket, his stride around the basket, his aim. But the siren is blown, the game is on; Teddy Crawford crashes into a wall of brawn in the form of the Juniors’. He ran toward the net, his aim, his eyes locked upon the basket, his stride around the basket, his aim. But the siren is blown, the game is on; Teddy Crawford crashes into a wall of brawn in the form of the Juniors’. He ran toward the net, his aim, his eyes locked upon the basket, his stride around the basket, his aim. But the siren is blown, the game is on; Teddy Crawford crashes into a wall of brawn in the form of the Juniors’. He ran toward the net, his aim, his eyes locked upon the basket, his stride around the basket, his aim. But the siren is blown, the game is on; Teddy Crawford crashes into a wall of brawn in the form of the Juniors’. He ran toward the net, his aim, his eyes locked upon the basket, his stride around the basket, his aim. But the siren is blown, the game is on; Teddy Crawford crashes into a wall of brawn in the form of the Juniors’. He ran toward the net, his aim, his eyes locked upon the basket, his stride around the basket, his aim. But the siren is blown, the game is on; Teddy Crawford crashes into a wall of brawn in the form of the Juniors’. He ran toward the net, his aim, his eyes locked upon the basket, his stride around the basket, his aim. But the siren is blown, the game is on; Teddy Crawford crashes into a wall of brawn in the form of the Juniors’. He ran toward the net, his aim, his eyes locked upon the basket, his stride around the basket, his aim. But the siren is blown, the game is on; Teddy Crawford crashes into a wall of brawn in the form of the Juniors’. He ran toward the net, his aim, his eyes locked upon the basket, his stride around the basket, his aim. But the siren is blown, the game is on; Teddy Crawford crashes into a wall of brawn in the form of the Juniors’. He ran toward the net, his aim, his eyes locked upon the basket, his stride around the basket, his aim. But the siren is blown, the game is on; Teddy Crawford crashes into a wall of brawn in the form of the Juniors’. He ran toward the net, his aim, his eyes locked upon the basket, his stride around the basket, his aim. But the siren is blown, the game is on; Teddy Crawford crashes into a wall of brawn in the form of the Juniors’. He ran toward the net, his aim, his eyes locked upon the basket, his stride around the basket, his aim. But the siren is blown, the game is on; Teddy Crawford crashes into a wall of brawn in the form of the Juniors’. He ran toward the net, his aim, his eyes locked upon the basket, his stride around the basket, his aim. But the siren is blown, the game is on; Teddy Crawford crashes into a wall of brawn in the form of the Juniors’. He ran toward the net, his aim, his eyes locked upon the basket, his stride around the basket, his aim. But the siren is blown, the game is on; Teddy Crawford crashes into a wall of brawn in the form of the Juniors’. He ran toward the net, his aim, his eyes locked upon the basket, his stride around the basket, his aim. But the siren is blown, the game is on; Teddy Crawford crashes into a wall of brawn in the form of the Juniors’. He ran toward the net, his aim, his eyes locked upon the basket, his stride around the basket, his aim. But the siren is blown, the game is on; Teddy Crawford crashes into a wall of brawn in the form of the Juniors’. He ran toward the net, his aim, his eyes locked upon the basket, his stride around the basket, his aim. But the siren is blown, the game is on; Teddy Crawford crashes into a wall of brawn in the form of the Juniors’. He ran toward the net, his aim, his eyes locked upon the basket, his stride around the basket, his aim. But the siren is blown, the game is on; Teddy Crawford crashes into a wall of brawn in the form of the Juniors’. He ran toward the net, his aim, his eyes locked upon the basket, his stride around the basket, his aim. But the siren is blown, the game is on; Teddy Crawford crashes into a wall of brawn in the form of the Juniors’. He ran toward the net, his aim, his eyes locked upon the basket, his stride around the basket, his aim. But the siren is blown, the game is on; Teddy Crawford crashes into a wall of brawn in the form of the Juniors’. He ran toward the net, his aim, his eyes locked upon the basket, his stride around the basket, his aim. But the siren is blown, the game is on; Teddy Crawford crashes into a wall of brawn in the form of the Juniors’. He ran toward the net, his aim, his eyes locked upon the basket, his stride around the basket, his aim. But the siren is blown, the game is on; Teddy Crawford crashes into a wall of brawn in the form of the Juniors’. He ran toward the net, his aim, his eyes locked upon the basket, his stride around the basket, his aim. But the siren is blown, the game is on; Teddy Crawford crashes into a wall of brawn in the form of the Juniors’. He ran toward the net, his aim, his eyes locked upon the basket, his stride around the basket, his aim. But the siren is blown, the game is on; Teddy Crawford crashes into a wall of brawn in the form of the Juniors’. He ran toward the net, his aim, his eyes locked upon the basket, his stride around the basket, his aim. But the siren is blown, the game is on; Teddy Crawford crashes into a wall of brawn in the form of the Juniors’. He ran toward the net, his aim, his eyes locked upon the basket, his stride around the basket, his aim. But the siren is blown, the game is on; Teddy Crawford crashes into a wall of brawn in the form of the Juniors’. He ran toward the net, his aim, his eyes locked upon the basket, his stride around the basket, his aim. But the siren is blown, the game is on; Teddy Crawford crashes into a wall of brawn in the form of the Juniors’. He ran toward the net, his aim, his eyes locked upon the basket, his stride around the basket, his aim. But the siren is blown, the game is on; Teddy Crawford crashes into a wall of brawn in the form of the Juniors’. He ran toward the net, his aim, his eyes locked upon the basket, his stride around the basket, his aim.

For the winners, Red Win and Doc Foster, as forwards, divided the honors fairly even between them—that of eluding the bronze busters and pulling up the in-vincible score of the seniors. Doc covered himself a little thicker with glory, perhaps, than did Red.

Battling Taylor insisted on scoring every time there were no more than two youngsters pestering him at one time. Speedy Holiday and Knockout Burroughs formed an almost invincible barrier to the futile desire of the Juniors to score, except a few times when the “South Win” blew the “North Win” over. The game was enjoyed by an immense, enthusiastic crowd of loyal Juniors and Seniors, with a fine representation from the lower classes.

DOMESTIC SCIENCE DEMONSTRATION

There will be a series of talks and demonstrations in the Household Arts Department by the Seniors in the work. The following is a list of the subjects with dates of each talk:

- Monday, the 14th—“How to Purchase and Serve Meat.”—Wilda Deebie.
- Tuesday, 15th—“The Country School Child’s Lunch.”—Pauline Gates.
- Wednesday, 16th—“The Thrifty Housewife’s Use of Leftovers.”—Fern Williams.
- Thursday, 17th—“Planning a Simple and All”—Alice Cape.
- Friday, 18th—“Vitamins on the Table.”—Helen Young.
- Monday, 31st—“Feeding Little Folks.”—Vernice Jones.
- Wednesday evening before the S. O. D. H.—“Refreshments for Parties.”—Percy Huffman.

GIRLS’ DEBATING SOCIETY FORMED

On Thursday of last week a notice in chapel read thus: "All girls interested in a debating society, meet in Room 11, at 12:50." The society, namely "The Illiana" was formed, having twenty charter members. This is to be a society of girls who, feeling their need of training in public speaking, argumentative and parliamentary practice, hope to develop their ability along these lines. The "Illiana" meets the ninth hour on Tuesdays. The officers are: President, Edna Walter; Vice President, Wanda Johnson; Secretary and Treasurer, Tillie Sturm.
INTERESTING DEBATE HELD AT AG. CLUB

Earl Smith and E. E. Downing proved to us beyond doubt that no one person should own more than 160 acres of tillable land.

The club met at the usual time and soon cleared the floor for action. After an excellent musical selection, the judges for the debate were appointed. Smith lead the debate and did his subject justice. McLain who followed Smith was very emphatic in his expression and he pleaded very earnestly with the judges. Before he left the floor he made some remarks of his opponent that were taken up by E. E. Downing (second on the affirmative.) Mr. Downing opened his debate by comparing his honorable opponent to an Irishman's notion of a bell. The Irishman who had just arrived from his native country was walking down the street with another Irishman when a large bell suddenly began to toll above their heads. Pat excitedly asked Mike what the thing was, and Mike replied: "Beggorra I don't know but it was the longest tongue and the hollowest head of anything I ever saw."

McLain on hearing this joke in his behalf, excitedly nudged his colleague and exclaimed in a loud whisper: "Refute that! Refute that!" To which Satigast calmly remarked that he couldn't, for it was impossible.

After the laugh had subsided Downing gave an excellent talk. Charles Satigast (second on the negative) came back strong at the affirmative and produced some very good points.

The rebuttal was given with much heat for by this time both sides had warmed up to the subject.

The decision of the judges was given in favor of the affirmative.

A play will be given at the club by Miss Ruby Keen on Wednesday, March 23.

S. O. P. H. MEET

The S. O. P. H. Club met Wednesday evening, March 9, 1921, and rendered the following program:

1. Decorations for St. Patrick's Day.
2. Reading—"Wild Red Noriris".
3. Instrumental Solo—Miss Marjorie Barkhart.
4. Talk on Spring Styles—Alice Mallux.
5.

The S. O. P. H. Club was also favored with seven new members.

They contemplate another meeting, March 23, 1921, in which there will be a demonstration on "Refreshments for a Party" by Florence Hoffman.

SOUTHERN ILLINOIS TEACHERS ASSOCIATION

The fortieth annual meeting of the S. I. T. A. will be held in Carbondale, Thursday and Friday, March 31 and April 1, 1921. Prof. W. G. Cline, chairman of the executive committee, has been untiring in his efforts to ensure a great meeting. Speakers of national note have been secured. Among others: Hon. P. P. Claxton, U. S. Commissioner of Education; Bishop William Quayle; Superintendent John W. Withers of St. Louis; Margaret Noonan and Carl Baer.

The meeting comes at a time when many students will be away for vacation. It is hoped that most of the student body will return for this meeting which no teacher or prospective teacher can afford to miss.

The enrollment fee of one dollar entitles the member to a year's subscription to The Illinois Teacher.

"OBELISK"

Have you ever thought that you would like to be editor or business manager of the "Obelisk"? If you have you should avail yourself of this invitation. Drop into the "Obelisk" office during office hours, say how much you want to do and ask the editor or business manager to explain in detail to you the duties which it is his privilege to perform. We will be glad to expati ate upon this question and its answer, because by the time we are through talking we will have secured the everlasting support of the questioner. He will either use all of his influence to secure for us a raise in salary, or endeavor to set aside a fund to be used for our care when we have reached the age of thirty.

Have you ever opened a school annual and in glancing through it wondered just how it was all done? No, we aren't going to tell you unless you are interested enough that you want to become an editor or business manager. If we were to print such information in this paper as that, the surprise would be taken out of the job, for the men who are to have the honor of doing the work next year.

The reason all this bunk has been put in here is this: We know that anyone who has read down to here is willing to do all in his power to help put out a first class "Obelisk." We appreciate the support which we are receiving from the student body and faculty. Remember that on the first page of the "Obelisk" will appear words something to this effect: "Obelisk", published by the Senior Class, '21." The board isn't at all inclined to be mischievous, we are more than anxious to divide the honor and the responsibilities which go with our work.

We are having a fine response in the story and poem contest. We are determined to publish an annual of which you will be proud.

Fox Drug Co.

All the Students' wants supplied in our store

Cleanliness Is Next to Godliness

Send Your Clothes To

CARBONDALE LAUNDRY

THE EGYPTIAN.
NOW, THEN,

DEAR EDITOR

Now then, most girls figure that when a strange man starts talking to them, that what they don't know isn't going to hurt them. Now then, please do not put anything in the Egyptian about me being engaged. I know there are several students talking about it, but I cannot imagine where they got their information for there is really nothing to it—yet. Get me! Bernice Brimm.

Now then, "For the love of Mike" if you are a real friend of mine, would you just as soon cut out any roasts that come in about Anthony Hall girls? I think we've got more than our share the last few years, and we'd like a rest, especially since we don't deserve the ones we get. I'd like to have some over for dinner next Sunday, if you can.

Sincerely,

Marion Blatter.

Now then, I tell you frankly that I believe it pays to be on the good side of the editor, and I most certainly want to be good friends with you now. There are so many things that boys can roast me about that I am really scared for fear they will do it, and if you're a friend of mine you won't put in any roasts about me, will you, Mr. McLain?

Yours truly,

Thelma Anna Dial.

Now then; when you make out a list of all the popular young men of the S. I. N. U., please don't forget me, for I honestly believe that I am one of the most popular men in the Normal.

Last term, I was elected assistant yell leader, and you have to be popular to get that.

Mary Ohms.

Now then, please do not put my picture in the beauty contest this week. I want to wait until I am better looking.

Mary Wiggins.

Now then, we are going to have a St. Patrick's party before very long and I want to know if you will put an advertisement in your paper for a chaperon for us. We are all getting strange to each other now, and we need some one to help us arrange the "green." Sincerely,

Ella Trevillion.

Now then, all organizations that expect to have socials must remember to apply for the chaperon as many as two days before the social. It is expected that the organization will see that all chaperons are escorted home safely, especially if the chaperon is a lady. I thank you.

Miss Jones.

Editor: O, yes, we'll look into the matter and give you our decision some time, maybe. Yours,

Me 'n Maud.

NOW, THEN,

DEAR EDITOR

Now then, most girls figure that when a strange man starts talking to them, that what they don't know isn't going to hurt them. Now then, please do not put anything in the Egyptian about me being engaged. I know there are several students talking about it, but I cannot imagine where they got their information for there is really nothing to it—yet. Get me! Bernice Brimm.

Now then, "For the love of Mike" if you are a real friend of mine, would you just as soon cut out any roasts that come in about Anthony Hall girls? I think we've got more than our share the last few years, and we'd like a rest, especially since we don't deserve the ones we get. I'd like to have some over for dinner next Sunday, if you can.

Sincerely,

Marion Blatter.

Now then, I tell you frankly that I believe it pays to be on the good side of the editor, and I most certainly want to be good friends with you now. There are so many things that boys can roast me about that I am really scared for fear they will do it, and if you're a friend of mine you won't put in any roasts about me, will you, Mr. McLain?

Yours truly,

Thelma Anna Dial.

Now then; when you make out a list of all the popular young men of the S. I. N. U., please don't forget me, for I honestly believe that I am one of the most popular men in the Normal.

Last term, I was elected assistant yell leader, and you have to be popular to get that.

Mary Ohms.

Now then, please do not put my picture in the beauty contest this week. I want to wait until I am better looking.

Mary Wiggins.

Now then, we are going to have a St. Patrick's party before very long and I want to know if you will put an advertisement in your paper for a chaperon for us. We are all getting strange to each other now, and we need some one to help us arrange the "green." Sincerely,

Ella Trevillion.

Now then, all organizations that expect to have socials must remember to apply for the chaperon as many as two days before the social. It is expected that the organization will see that all chaperons are escorted home safely, especially if the chaperon is a lady. I thank you.

Miss Jones.

Editor: O, yes, we'll look into the matter and give you our decision some time, maybe. Yours,

Me 'n Maud.

DR. CHERRY ADDRESSES NORMAL STUDENTS

Dr. H. H. Cherry, president of the Western Kentucky Normal, delivered an interesting address in the auditorium last Thursday morning during chapel hour.

Among the many inspiring ideas that Dr. Cherry gave us in the fact that "teachers are the hope of education and good democracy." He placed especial emphasis upon the leadership and personality of the teacher, a personality born of vision, freedom and responsibility.

In emphasizing the value of the real teacher, the teacher with an ideal and a spirit of service, the teacher with integrity, individuality and personality, Dr. Cherry said that the greatness of a school does not lie in buildings and equipment; for without all this and much more vital is the teacher with a mind, conscience and the ideals of service. In regard to the ideals which inspire teachers, Dr. Cherry said that "no teacher can teach for salary alone, there must be a real motive of service."

"It would be as easy to have democracy without spirit," added Dr. Cherry, "as to have a school without an ideal and a spirit of service."

Educational hope lies on leadership and a live course of study amounts to nothing in the hands of a dead teacher; while a live teacher can bring a dead course of study out of its coffin.

Dr. Cherry was brought to Carbondale under the auspices of the Carbondale Rotary Club, and expressed his appreciation for having the opportunity to appear before the Rotary Club, Carbondale citizens and the student body.

A school ma'am in dreadfully despair, Was seen to be tearing her hair, When asked what's the matter She said: "Can the matter I can't live on love and hot air."

Most everyone now is agreed That this is the country's big need! More teachers well trained Well paid and big brained With unsalish service their creed.

A WORD TO HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES

You plan to go straight through the University, never stopping until you attain a degree. An aim worthy of the highest commendation. Let nothing swerve you from that course. But did you ever stop to consider how much to your advantage it would be to take the first two years of your university course at Carbondale? The smaller classes and greater individual attention in the S. I. N. U. lessen the hazards of failing to make difficult credits in your Freshman and Sophomore years. The expense is $500 to $750 less for a year at Carbondale than at the University of Illinois. Two years at Carbondale will advance you to understanding at any of the universities. Boys will find a distinct advantage in athletics in the S. I. N. U. It will be far easier for you to make the teams at Carbondale than at the university.

DR. CHERRY ADDRESSES NORMAL STUDENTS

Dr. H. H. Cherry, president of the Western Kentucky Normal, delivered an interesting address in the auditorium last Thursday morning during chapel hour.

Among the many inspiring ideas that Dr. Cherry gave us in the fact that "teachers are the hope of education and good democracy." He placed especial emphasis upon the leadership and personality of the teacher, a personality born of vision, freedom and responsibility.

In emphasizing the value of the real teacher, the teacher with an ideal and a spirit of service, the teacher with integrity, individuality and personality, Dr. Cherry said that the greatness of a school does not lie in buildings and equipment; for without all this and much more vital is the teacher with a mind, conscience and the ideals of service. In regard to the ideals which inspire teachers, Dr. Cherry said that "no teacher can teach for salary alone, there must be a real motive of service."

"It would be as easy to have democracy without spirit," added Dr. Cherry, "as to have a school without an ideal and a spirit of service."

Educational hope lies on leadership and a live course of study amounts to nothing in the hands of a dead teacher; while a live teacher can bring a dead course of study out of its coffin.

Dr. Cherry was brought to Carbondale under the auspices of the Carbondale Rotary Club, and expressed his appreciation for having the opportunity to appear before the Rotary Club, Carbondale citizens and the student body.

A school ma'am in dreadfully despair, Was seen to be tearing her hair, When asked what's the matter She said: "Can the matter I can't live on love and hot air."

Most everyone now is agreed That this is the country's big need! More teachers well trained Well paid and big brained With unsalish service their creed.

A WORD TO HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES

You plan to go straight through the University, never stopping until you attain a degree. An aim worthy of the highest commendation. Let nothing swerve you from that course. But did you ever stop to consider how much to your advantage it would be to take the first two years of your university course at Carbondale? The smaller classes and greater individual attention in the S. I. N. U. lessen the hazards of failing to make difficult credits in your Freshman and Sophomore years. The expense is $500 to $750 less for a year at Carbondale than at the University.

PICTORIAL REVIEW

APRIL 5th

SILK GLOVES

ATHENA WEAR

WAYNE KNIT

SILK HOSIERY

SIMMONS

KAYSER

SILK HOSIERY

ROYAL

Worcester

CORSETS

FRIEDMAN

SHELBY SHOES

McPheeters, Lee and Bridges

Handle the Following Lines

FORUM, March 19.

ST. PATRICK'S PROGRAM.

Socratic Society, March 18.

Ag. Club, Wednesday, March 16, 7 P. M.

If you like this issue ask a friend to subscribe.
HAVE AN "INDIVIDUAL" SUIT
Don't Be a "Duplicate" Ready-Made Man

There was a period when the tailored suit cost so much more than the ready-made that it looked like economy to wear stock clothes. This is not true now.

Beau Brummel Tailored-To-Measure Suits
fit your pocket and you. Step in to-day and see the wide variety of fabrics and designs; be measured now, fitted soon and dressed-up in a brief time in a suit that is not duplicated all over town. Let your clothes reflect your individuality. It all counts in business life today.

Select a contrast tan hat or cap while our new Spring line is complete

PATTERSON & SCHWARTZ
102 S. ILLINOIS AVE.