La:lt Wednesday night...the Wayne River was running rough. Wayne's very last boat was scheduled to make a trip down the river. The boat was to be pulled by a steam engine. Despite the fact that the engine was balky, the boat entered the river. The passengers on the boat were excited and began to sing. One of the passengers, a young woman, took out her harmonica and began to play. The passengers sang along to the harmonica's music. It was a beautiful evening and the boat's passengers enjoyed the ride down the river.

The next stop on the Waive River tour was the waterfall. A large crowd gathered around the waterfall. People were standing on the rocks, taking pictures. A young boy, holding a fishing pole, was seen yelling up to the waterfall. He was trying to reach something he had dropped in the water. The crowd laughed as they watched the boy struggle to get his pole back.

The boat continued down the river, passing by several historical sites. People stood along the banks, taking pictures and gazing at the wonders of the Waive River. The boat eventually returned to its starting point, and everyone was tired and happy from the day's events.

The boat was scheduled to make one more trip down the river on Friday, but due to unexpected weather conditions, the trip was canceled.

EDWARDS AND CHAMER BEST IN BASEBALL LOOK

By Joe Brown

The success of the Edwards and Chamber baseball teams this season has been quite remarkable. Both teams have shown great promise and have won several critical games. The Edwards team, led by the dynamic pitcher Brown, has consistently shown strong defensive play and a solid hitting approach. Chamber, on the other hand, has relied heavily on its batting and a solid pitching strategy led by Thompson. The upcoming game between the two teams promises to be an exciting match-up, with both teams eager to prove their prowess on the field.
RURAL SCHOOLS

Miss Mildred Towne, head of the Department of Rural Education, in the University of New York City, is expected to visit this community schools this week. Miss Towne will observe and make suggestions for improvement.

All rural schools in the county have been visited by Miss Towne. She has made recommendations for improvements in each school.

Miss Towne will meet with the principal and teachers of each school to discuss problems and make suggestions for improvement.

WOMEN ARE SOME LIARS. YOU'RE TELLING WHO?

Oh, he's a liar, you are, you are.

And he's a liar, you are, you are.

And he's a liar, you are, you are.

And he's a liar, you are, you are.

And he's a liar, you are, you are.

And he's a liar, you are, you are.
