Student Asks Why High Prices

Dear Editor:

Put暑期 number free of the Egyptian's platform for the next 10 weeks. Do you think it is necessary to charge for the platform?

Is the Egyptian platform merely a platform? Even if it is, why is it not charged for? It costs us a lot of money to maintain the platform and to pay the street. If we charge for the platform, don't you think it is unfair to put a price on something that is necessary for the community?

Yours truly,

Letter to the Editor: Another Voice on Blackface

Dear Editor:

This issue appears on the verge of becoming a national issue, but as a member of the group whose sentiments are at stake, I would like to add my voice to the chorus of protest.

Since the K.A.D.A. has already come out against this practice, I feel that we should also express our disapproval.

But let me show you a side of the story that you might not have considered.

Catheliclly, the Negro teens come very early, and some of us are arrival ing each day for closer scrutiny, and better understanding between races.

As we see it, this is not a difficult issue, but when individuals take it so personally, our lack of respect for one another is evident. Our lack of understanding between races is the root of all our problems.

You can easily interpret our situation as that of a young girl. Why, don't you ever have an Irish name? We have been told that if you don't say it, they'll laugh at you. But you're Irish, aren't you? What is your name? It's quite impossible to find you out.

Surely, you must know that there is no one to laugh at in the world. We are not here to be laughed at. We are here to help and to be understood. We are here to be heard. If you don't say it, we'll laugh at you.

Letter to the Editor: No Longer Guests

We are citizens of Cardondale. Some SIU students (all except commuters) are now Carbonbodale residents according to a recent federal ruling to equalize student residences located in the town in which the college is located.

For many years, quite a few Carbonbodale residents have lived in town, some on college campuses, and some in the neighboring towns. We think it's only fair that they be treated as such.

Many of us, however, need to change our attitude toward Carbonbodale. Certainly, we should feel free to live in the future, but we must not forget the present.

We must remember that Carbonbodale is our home, and we should do our best to integrate into the community.

We appreciate your consideration.

Casey Jones On Recent Stamp

by Fred Fitzgerald

Casey Jones, famous railroad engineer, will be pictured on a special three-cent stamp honoring the railroad engineers. Jones' portrait will be superimposed on a locomotive. At the left of the central design is an artist's conception of the type of locomotive designed by Jones. At the right of the design is a portrait of a modern streamlined locomotive.

To be issued in sheets of 50, the stamp will be of special dies for first day sales at Jackson, Tenn., on April 29. Postmaster Doran urged all collectors to endorse their books for this special stamp.

Conservative price-stamps—set a few decreases—are evident in the Postage Issues section of Scott's 1950 Specialized U. S. Catalogue. The five cent New York Poemaster's stamp has jumped in value in 1950 and 1951. It is now $2.50.

The five cent 1847, in used condition, has dropped from $2.50 to $1.50, and on cover, from $2.40 to $1.50. The Columbian from 1847, used, has dropped from $2.50 to $1.50.

The envelope section includes the addition of 14 illustrations of the circuitary die variety. In the Confederate section, "Codlloyd Proof" has been added by Otto von Durrer, editor of the catalogue, and his assistant, Allan F. Thimbleby.

In the Canal Zone section 4 aerial stamps have been reissued. The Hassan proofs section has acquired 27 new listings.

Southern Acres' Future Puzzles SIU Officials

By Dott LaBash

It seemed from the very beginning that the Southern Acres story was jinxed, but here it is being protected to you finally ... Not quite what we had anticipated. This original plan was to have a full page spread with pictures and story, but we had to cut it short. We hope to improve it for the next issue.

The story as it was presented to us is as follows:

"The families of Southern Acres must like living there, as they have not been forgotten either. What a lot of problems we were warned to expect!"

Southern Acres is a small community located a few miles from the campus. It has a population of about 1500 people, though only 400 are full-time residents. The community is made up of students, faculty, staff, and their families. It has its own police force, fire department, and public schools. The community is run by an elected board of directors.

The community has been plagued by problems such as crime, drug use, and lack of community services. The board of directors has been working hard to address these issues, but progress has been slow. The community is currently in the process of developing a master plan to address these problems.

Despite the challenges, the residents of Southern Acres are proud of their community and believe it is a special place. They hope to continue to work together to make Southern Acres an even better place to live.

A Cappella Choir, Madrigals To Sing In Special Concert

The university's a cappella choir, and Madrigals, under the direction of Mr. Edward B. Storer, will present a concert in the Little Theatre Tuesday, April 22, at 8 30 p.m. The concert is being sponsored by the Webutucks and the College Student Council.

Three Students To Make Debut In Spring Play

Three of the five people who play student roles in Southern's spring play, "Dude Ranch," have been chosen by Mr. Alfred M. N. McRae, director of the play, to be presented first by the student cast on Monday, April 11 and again on Wednesday, April 13 and Friday, April 15.

Mr. McRae said the play is going to be a comedy, and that "Dude Ranch," will be played by students for the first time. The play is to be performed by the student cast for the first time.

There are no University System of Education or the University of Southern Baptists, under the auspices of the Association University Women.

Kellie E. Goodwin is secretary and Miss W. D. Smith is the manager.

To Give Graduate Tests Here April 15, 22

Southern's first undergraduate test of men, has introduced the new graduate test, to be given by student members of the Southern Student Senate, will be given on the evening of April 15, 22, and 29.

The Graduate Record exam will be given on the evening of April 30, for graduate students.

In addition, the university will give a full day's work on the morning of May 1, for the first term graduate students.

The Southern Student Senate, in giving these tests, will be giving the students an opportunity to take the tests in their own time, and not at the mercy of the university.

Clark Shaughnessy Spurns Coaching Job

By JIM KAHMANN

Clark Shaughnessy, the football assistant, not only one of the outstanding exponents of the T-formations in the country today, informed Southern late Thursday evening that he will not accept the offer of head football coach. It is a complete surprise to the coaching fraternity here, as several men from the college and university realm had decided that they would accept the challenge of winning games at the College of Southern. Shaughnessy has been a coach for the last three years and has been particularly successful in his work. He is said to be a very good coach, and his absence will be felt in the college ranks.

Washington, Eastern

To Meet Maroon Nine

Coach Groten (Abe) Maroon's tackle for tonight's game is strong as usual. Eastern and Washington match in all departments.

Maroon's lost last weekend to the Buffalos, 27-0, but the teams are strong in all departments.

The Bearcats' team is expected to be one of the top T-formation football teams in the country this year, according to sources familiar with the College of Southern. The Bears are strong in all departments, and are expected to give Eastern a tough fight.
