Dr. Buzzard Gives Address

By Nancy Smith

The graduation commencement in SIU's history was held Friday, May 15, at 8:30 a.m. in the ARC.

Dr. Robert W. Buzzard, SIU president, will give the address. Dr. Buzzard is former president of Kansas State University and has served as an educator, teacher, and administrator in the United States and in Australia.

Candidates for degrees should report to the ARC by 6:30 a.m. (according to the time zone)

First Commencement

Dr. Buzzard's commencement address was held June 4, 1964. There were 114 graduates. This year there are over 120 degree candidates in residence who are expected to complete their courses.

Approximately 115 students will receive degrees in Liberal Arts: 28 degrees in Mathematics, 17 in Biology; 23 in Chemistry; 14 in History; 14 in English; and in Economics and in Commerce.

The commencement ceremony will be broadcast on the radio and television stations, and a movie of the event will be shown at the SIU campus.

Major Schools
Show Increase In 1954-59

During the same period, the number of students enrolled in the major schools increased from 1,000 to 2,000. This increase is attributed to the expansion of the college and the availability of more courses.

Last Issue Of Egyptian

The Egyptian was first published in 1864, and it has been a weekly newspaper since then. The newspaper is published on campus and is distributed to students, faculty, and the general public.

ensored and censored group of 350 students, organized by the Student Government Association, will stage a mass student strike on Wednesday, April 22, to protest the suspension of the newspaper. The strike will begin at 8 a.m. and continue for 24 hours.

The suspension was imposed by the college administration because of the newspaper's coverage of the student strike.

About 200 students have already signed a petition calling for the reinstatement of the newspaper. The petition reads:

"We, the undersigned students, hereby petition the administration of SIU to reinstate The Egyptian as a student publication. We believe that the suspension of the newspaper is a violation of the principles of free speech and free press. We urge you to reconsider your decision and restore the newspaper to its position as a student publication."

The petition will be presented to the administration on Wednesday, April 22, at 8 a.m. The strike will begin immediately following the presentation of the petition.

The strike will include a sit-in protest at the administration building and a march through the campus.

The Egyptian staff is made up of about 20 students, and it is published on a weekly basis. The newspaper covers a wide range of topics, including news, sports, and entertainment.
The Editors' Opinions

A lot of people seem to believe that mine doesn't have a habit of picking up snails; that mine is made of granite and that it has no feelings.

I happen to disagree. I think that mine does have a habit of picking up snails; that mine is made of granite and that it has no feelings.

The thing is, I don't have a habit of picking up snails; I'm not made of granite; and I do have feelings.

What Now?

It is a fact that the summer vacation is just around the corner, and that we are all looking forward to it. However, before we can fully enjoy our vacation, we need to make sure that we are well-prepared.

Firstly, we need to finalize our vacation plans. This includes deciding on our destination, booking our accommodations, and purchasing any necessary travel documents such as visas and travel insurance.

Secondly, we need to pack our bags. Make sure to pack all necessary items, such as clothing, toiletries, and any necessary medical supplies.

Lastly, we need to keep ourselves informed about the current travel conditions and any potential weather issues.

Rosetti is Petti

What have I done to this fine community? How have I contributed to its greatness? How have I made the world a better place?

Although my methods are questionable, I assure you that I have indeed done something to benefit the community. I cannot reveal any details of my contributions, as they are top-secret.

Alumni Groups Hold Meetings During Summer

A graduate of SJU used to attend meetings of the SJU alumni association, even though he was not a member. He was not sure why he did this, but he enjoyed the company and the conversations.

Faculty Members Publish Article in Journal

Two SJU faculty members published an article in the Journal of Economic Literature, entitled "Measuring the Effect of Trade Liberalization on Productivity." The article was well-received by the academic community.

John K. Smith, the head of the department of economics, said, "This is an important contribution to the field of economic development. It will be widely cited and will have a lasting impact on our understanding of the relationship between trade liberalization and economic growth."

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

Gordon Speaks On Weights And Measures

Dr. Lael Gordon, chairman of the mathematics department at Drexel University, gave a lecture on the history of weights and measures. He explained the importance of having a uniform system of measurement and how it has evolved over time.

"Weights and measures are fundamental to our everyday lives," said Dr. Gordon. "They are used in commerce, science, and industry, and are essential for the functioning of society."
FLANNEL LEAVES SIM PRESS; Accepts Position At Iowa

Raymond French, an alumnus of the SIM Press, has resigned his position as assistant editor of the St. Louis University paper, the St. Louis Post-Dispatch. He will begin his new position on September 1.

French's resignation is a blow to the staff of the SIM Press, which is the university's student newspaper. The paper has been struggling to find new editors and writers to fill the positions left by the departing staff members.
