NEW SCHOOL NEEDED TO KEEP PACE WITH THE TIMES

As the educational standards of the college have improved, the need for a modern school containing all the equipment of the training schools is increasing for the changing needs of these institutions. With the innovation of better teaching methods, the type of the college's elementary and high school subjects of instruction have also changed. This necessitates the construction of a school building that is modern and equipped with all the necessary facilities for the work which is being accomplished.

Providing for a new training school, the college could not have been more timely. Under the present plan of the S. I. N. C., the training school would be the center of the college's educational activities. The school building would contain all the necessary facilities for the work of the college.

With what would a modern training school be equipped? It would contain plenty of land for playing, playing-fields and playgrounds, all kinds of buildings for the different departments, all the necessary facilities for the work of the college.

The school building would be equipped with all the necessary facilities for the work of the college. It would contain all the necessary buildings for the different departments, all the necessary facilities for the work of the college.

The Torch Bearer—Selected by Socratis as Spring Production

The Stereotype Society has announced for spring production. In the title, perhaps a lurid revi- view of the text, the scene is set. In the first act, perhaps we may glimpse the man who in the second act may become a hero. The plot is perhaps a mystery, and the conclusion a surprise. The acting is perhaps not up to the mark, and the staging is perhaps not as good as it could be. The costumes are perhaps not as fine as they should be, and the music is perhaps not as good as it could be.

The main character is perhaps a man of many sides, and the plot unfolds as he faces many challenges. The music is perhaps not as good as it could be, and the acting is perhaps not up to the mark. However, the costumes are perhaps not as fine as they should be, and the staging is perhaps not as good as it could be.

In conclusion, the Stereotype Society's spring production is perhaps not as good as it could be, but it is a step in the right direction. The acting is perhaps not up to the mark, and the staging is perhaps not as good as it could be. However, the costumes are perhaps not as fine as they should be, and the music is perhaps not as good as it could be.
