FOR VALENTINE GIFTS

We Suggest...

KING'S CHOCOLATES

In the corner of the room, a small table was set up where chocolate boxes could be purchased. The table was decorated with flowers and a banner that read, "For Valentine Gifts, We Suggest King's Chocolates." Next to the table, a group of students was gathering, eager to purchase their gifts.

STATIONERY

Frosted with elegance, the stationery section was a haven for those looking for the perfect card or gift. Decorated with a array of colors and designs, it was a popular area among the students.

CARBONDALE SHOE

Shoe lovers were in for a treat as the Carbon Hill Shoe store showcased their latest designs. With a variety of styles and colors, there was something for everyone.

Gymnasts Meet MSU Here Tonight

The unseeded University of Illinois women's gymnastics team will face Michigan State tonight in the Convocation Center. Michigan State, a four seed in this year's NCAA tournament, has defeated both Southern California and Stanford and has been the top seed in the Central region all season.

Saluki Grapplers Clobber Central Michigan

By Larry Meyer

Captain Jim Bledner and a meekly smiling Larry Green, the third of three headliners, guided the Salukis to an easy 114-14 triumph over Central Michigan Thursday night.

Bledner pinned Dennis Leach of Central in 3:05, Keith Brown's pin of Jim Hinton of Central in 1:45, and Green's pin of Bobby Roberts of Central in 1:35.

The team scored 45 points on the night, with Bledner accounting for 20 points with his pin and 14 points with a takedown. Brown earned 14 points with his pin and Roberts added 10 points with his pin.

Hogsett Drops the Hammer

By Brian Borden

Hogsett is a classic football player, a hard, strong, fast player for the Salukis. He stands 6’2” and weighs 215 pounds. He has been around for the 1964 games and is a three-year starter.

Royce Collects a Point for the Midwest

The post-season time for the salukis is still in the beginning stages. Royce collected a point for the Midwest against Central Michigan. The Salukis have been in third place in the Midwest all season long.

Loyola Here

By Dean Ponne

The Salukis met the Loyola Jugglers in the Convocation Center tonight. The Salukis had a 1-3 record against Loyola and had lost to them recently. The Salukis were once again a big favorite.
