LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

February 19, 1947

Dear Editor:

I am writing from my home in Chicago, Illinois. I have noticed with interest the recent developments in the area. Specifically, I wanted to express my thoughts on the topic of the Southern Parade.

I believe that the Southern Parade is a significant event that should be celebrated in the community. It provides an opportunity for members of the Southern to come together and enjoy a fun-filled day. It is a time for us to remember our traditions and history.

I have attended the Southern Parade several times and have always been impressed by the enthusiasm and energy of the participants. It is a unique event that brings people from different backgrounds and walks of life together in a spirit of unity and celebration.

I would like to propose that the Southern Parade be continued and expanded to include more participants and activities. This would help to ensure that the event remains relevant and engaging for future generations.

I hope that my thoughts will be taken into consideration as the organizers plan for the upcoming Southern Parade.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
SOUTHERN

DELTA SIGMA EPSILON

Date for the Delta Sig initiation formal dinner was set for January 28. It will be called the "Dead Press." The festive dinner begins at 4:30, Thursday, January 28, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Thompson, 5680 Faxon Road. The dress will be the "dead press," with a "dead press" reception and "dead press" refreshments provided by the Delta Sig members. The theme of the evening will be "dead press," with decorations, music, and food all reflecting the "dead press" theme. The event will be a fun and lively way to celebrate the Delta Sig initiation formal dinner and the "dead press" theme.

Eastern Here For Loop Lead, Saturday Night; Play Host To Millikin Monday Night

By Lewis Waters

Saturday night’s basketball game between Eastern and Millikin will decide who is to be the top team in the I.A.C. conference at least for the present, as both teams have one victory and no defeats in league play. In contrast, Southern has defeated both Indiana State and Washington University, while Charleston has also played against two schools and has two losses.

This game should be a high-scoring match because both teams have fine players. The Loop, in fact, has scored an average of 64 points per game in I.A.C. play.

The probable starting lineup in this game will be Oliver Short and Johnie Shelton at forward. Quentin Stinson at center, and Dick Reed and Bob Cothran at guard.

The winner of this game will be the team which has the most points at the end of the game.

On Monday, January 20, the Maroons are back at home at Millikin University here at Normal. Millikin was defeated by Charleston last week by only three points. Thus, after Saturday night’s game, four more games will be played at home by the Maroons and the Big Four conference.

The probable starting lineup in this game will be Oliver Short and Johnie Shelton at forward. Quentin Stinson at center, and Dick Reed and Bob Cothran at guard.

PATS’ CHATTER

One of the most attractive aspects of the women’s basketball situation in the W.A.A. Conference is the group that forms on Southern’s campus for the furthering of women’s sports. Organizers of the same kind are at work among other campus and neighboring colleges. It has been the rule for the women’s group to act as hosts to women from those other schools every other year when the sport in question is being played.

W.A.A. has the good opportunity of setting up another athletic event among other such groups and of naturally organizing

The Ohio State Buckeyes have been recognized in basketball as the team in the country, with their 31-0 record. They have piled up an impressive record this season. However, when the Buckeyes come against the Maroons, their fans will be interested in seeing how the Maroons stack up against their arch-rivals.

The Buckeyes, under the guidance of Coach Bob McDowell, will be facing a Maroons team that has been playing well of late. However, the Maroons will be up against a team that has piled up an impressive record this season.

Mároons Top Western 48-42; Drop Cape Girardeau 42-39

By Bob McDowell

Continuing a successful home stand, the “Junior White Kids” have marked up two home games during the past week. The Maroons defeated the Westerners Saturday night and dropped Cape Girardeau 42-39 in a hard-fought battle.

The Westerners, in the second game, worked back to the Maroons’ lead early in the game. The Maroons, however, refused to buckle and fought back to the end game.
