Juniors Entertain The Class of 1924

Finest Thing of the Kind Ever Attempted by Junior Class

For the past few weeks it has been noticed that nearly every day an announcement was read in Chapel requesting a meeting of the Juniors, or of the "Junior Committee." Outsiders were somewhat mystified as to the why and wherefore, but the mystery was cleared up when an invitation was given to the Seniors to come to the East Campus Thursday afternoon, June 5, at 8 o'clock.

Thursday afternoon various preparations were seen to be at full tilt. As to the form of entertainment and the meaning of the preparations, there was no clue, however.

At about 7:45, when the campus lights were turned on, the scene took on color and assumed an air of gaiety. For brightly colored Japanese lanterns were strung about over the place of frolic. When the gay crowd of Juniors and Seniors began to assemble, the Zetetic orchestra began to play, and furnished music throughout the evening.

The Juniors proved themselves apt entertainers, and had provided unique features: A group of six girls from the fifth and sixth grades of the training school presented a Japanese exercise. They represented Japanese dolls who had just come to America, giving their impression of American life. This was an interesting little exercise and was enjoyed by everyone.

The Junior Quartette, or as they styled themselves, the mocking birds quartette, of Cary Davis, Rex McIntyre, Paul Cox and Raymond Ethington, rendered several selections, classical and otherwise (mostly otherwise). Possibly they will sing in chapel some day?

Perhaps the most interesting feature of all came next. Everyone was asked to repair to the "theater" where an interesting film entitled "Class of 1921" in 1951" was shown. According to the film, the theater was in the hands of the Smith and Markus firm.

I had a magnificent orchestra with many talented members. John and Bill Koch, etc. Various stars were pictured and then came the "News of the World.

And the man who would climb, to the top in his time
Before he dare walk must creep.

Of carpets there are none in the house of success
And the floors are hard and bare,
And you're likely to trip and slide and slip
In the pitfalls here and there.

There are no lounges or easy chairs
No places to rest your spine,
But after you've won, to the roof
There's the sun
And ah! but the view is fine.

MINOR MUSING

A free horse that you are riding so hard will never carry you across the tape of success.

There is work and work. The harder some tongues work the more damage they do.

"Temperament" used to be considered a sign of genius, but it's only a sign of ill-breding.

A scandal monger's wares are dispensed without profits.

A good-looking girl doesn't mind you saying she is intelligent, but you'd better never call her "intellectual."

So live that you can sleep o' nights.

A good "appearance" sometimes covers a multitude of sins.

Men in the smoking compartment of a train tell more of their private affairs than women at a tea party.

Clothes don't make the man, but sometimes they break him.

A stingy man is always generous to own weakness.

A really cheer-up magazine some day will have a bathing girl cover picture for its Christmas number and a snow scene for its Fourth of July number.

Men are as much slaves to custom as women. No man ever wanted to take the time to shave.

Probably no baby in all the world ever wished to be kissed.

Prohibition at least has decreased the number of liars about fifty per cent.

They all feel rotten, the Three Wise Fools.

Apples, hot water, daisies, buttermilk, ruts, grooves, tracks, paths, trails, danger, excitement revolution, pain, riotous sin and ???. You can see them all in the Three Wise Fools.

The students who attended Chapel exercises Thursday were rewarded by hearing the Vaughn Quartette of Lawrenceville, Tenn. A musical treat such as that is always appreciated.

Pauline and Olive Johnson, who moved to Indianapolis from Carbondale, were back at the S. I. N. U. for a visit last week.

Raymond Dan-ron has entered the Normal to absorb a little more knowledge.

Max Lollar, who has been teaching in Royallton, is at home now for the summer.

James Bennett of Royallton was at the Normal for a short time last week-end.

Edward Fosse visited Marlon last week-end.

Supt. Siterwalt of Fairfield and County Supt. Wisacre, of Wayne County visited the S. I. N. U. Wednesday and interviewed a number of Seniors for positions.

President Shryock lectured in Danville last week. He was away from school Wednesday and Thursday.

Herman Johnson and Lynn Wilson of Fairfield, have entered school.

Ralph Warren, who has been teaching in Grand Chain, visited Carbondale last week.

Phillip Allen, who has been teaching in Golconda brought his new wife to visit his Alma Mater last week. All of his friends want to congratulate the fortunate couple.

Lester Bueford visited his home in Cypress the first of last week.

Louise Morton, who has been attending school at Illinois the past year visited her mother, Mrs. Ellen Morton, here last Wednesday.

Orville Mowery '23, who is home from the University, visited the Normal last week.

C. C. H. S. ISSUE

SPLENDID ANNUAL

The S. I. N. U. is always interested in the important affairs of the leading near-by high schools and it is from them that the future College students come. We are especially pleased when a high school in our territory can put out an annual that is as fine as THE DIAL of the Carbondale Community High School. This annual is the best high school annual that the writer has ever seen barring none of the larger schools of the cities. It far surpasses many of the college annuals that we see from year to year.

The S. I. N. U. is glad to know that the Editor of this book, Robert Marberry, will be a student here next year as will also many of his assistants that aided in compiling the book.

DRAMATIC PERFORMANCES OF THE CAST FOR THE "THREE WISE FOOLS"

Lydia Davis—The leading role in "Eliphelemont of Ellen" at the Christopher High School; "Twixt the Made Man" at Marlon Township High School.

Glean Collard—Home Coming Play 1923; "Thank Heaven the Table Was Laid" and "Mee" both at Herrin Township High School.

Van Brown—Jiminy in "Daddy Long Legs" given last year.

Cary Davis—Trustee in "Daddy Long Legs."

Dilla Hall—"Daddy Long Legs," author in the "Show Shop" 1923, artist in "Glorious Girl" given at the Barth 1923; professor in the "Cameo Girl" given at the Barth 1922.

Carl Smith—"Safety First," a literary Society play 1923.

John Keith—"All Aboard!" and "Shining Path" at Du Quoin High School.

Joshua Harrison—"Rascal Pat" a literary society play 1924.

FORUM-AGORA-ILLINAE MEET

Monday evening, June 2, the Illiniae were discussing the highly important question Resolved, That friendship is more binding than love.

Before the hour of the meeting the Agora had expressed a desire to visit the Illiniae and shortly after the invitation had been extended to them a committee from the Forum asked also for an invitation. The three clubs adjourned to the Socratic Hall to obtain more room and the girls provided with their program.

The affirmative proofs were presented by Augusta Sumner and Sada Dunn, while Alice Gray and Lulu Owen spoke for the binding qualities of love. Some strange revelations were made about our friends—and our loved ones and especially the significance of "Puppy Love" on our own college campus.

The decision of the judges was given in favor of the negative.

Then Lorraine Huck gave a very interesting discussion of birthday and their significance following which several members of the Forum-Agora made interesting and instructive extemporaneous talks. This was our last joint meeting of the year. We have had several such meetings during the year with great enjoyment and those of us who will return next year look forward to friendly affiliation between the three societies.

In Sociology Class—Elbert Middagh—How much will our examination cover next Monday?

Mr. Pierce—The end of the chapter.

Mr. Scott—in chemistry—"and for tomorrow, you will take arsenic and finish the chapter."

SPRING PAGEANT AT NORMAL IS PRETTY Fete
Given by Children of Training School
-Miss Dickerman Director

One of the things of beauty each year at the teachers’ college here is the May or spring pageant. This was given yesterday afternoon on the school campus and was witnessed by nearly 2,000 students and townspeople.

Children of the training school to the ninth grade participated in the pageant, which was directed by Miss Julia Dickerman, music teacher at the school, assisted by the following practice teachers: Miss Berna Miller, Miss Pevy, McLean, Motchan, Nalbo, Hebbard, Barnes, Horsfield, Headwine, and Myron Mitchell.

Colorful, typifying spring with its flowers and pastoral charm, the beautifully dressed children, small ones and large, in costumes representing flowers formed much of the background of the entertainment. Music and dancing lent delight despite the rain.

Frances Allen was the queen of the carnival. Other important participants in the pageant were Elizabeth Harris, Frances Hill and Alice Patterson. These three girls gave a pretty artistic dance. Alice O’Roarke and Pauline Piater made a hit as clowns.

John Nunnaly was crowned king and little Frances Krysher train bearer. Eddie and Edith Mitchell were pageants. Mabley were Carman, Lena Neber and Gladys Marion Atkins.

Several others took important parts. The drill by the boys showed training.

Juniors Entertain

To the class of 1924—
On this memorable, happy evening, out on our campus green, Jolly Juniors and solemn Seniors play together, may be seen. Thou’ all year we’ve been rivals, tonight we’re the best of friends; We sincerely hope this will be the case.

For you until Time ends.

Wishing you the best of luck and bright prospects for a sunny future.

The Seniors heartily thank the Juniors for their good wishes and wish them another happy year at S. I. U.
