Girl Dismissed From Southern For 'Strip' - Never Too Young

You’re never too old to learn, go the sayings. In the SDS foreign language department, however, the saying might be changed to “you’re never too young to learn.”

This summer, several children will have the chance to study a foreign language — Spanish, for example — at the sixth annual summer workshop on the teaching of foreign languages to the elementary school. Under the direction of Prof. Helen A. Hargreaves, the workshop will provide an exchange experience for participants by setting up a pilot class for children in German, French and Spanish.

Hargreaves reports that first grade children will be given courses in German, while fourth grade children will study French and sixth grade students will be offered classes in Spanish.

The little German School will be conducted by at least one of the persons who will be the classes’ regular members of the class. More than 10 new classes may be accepted.

The pilot class will be organized into several classes from 1:30 to 2:30 p.m. beginning June 2 and last through June 27 at the science building and the science building of the University of Illinois.

The instruction, Hargreaves said, is “open-ended” in that the course of study is not fixed and subjects will be studied as they are encountered.

Eric Walker Speaks At Graduation

Dr. Eric Walker, president of the University of Southern California, will speak at SIU’s largest commencement this year.

Southern’s 6th class of June graduates is expected to number 1,000. It is expected that 1,000 graduates, an increase of 7 percent over the 928 graduates in 1950, will be conferred during the 7 p.m. Saturday commencement.

Dr. Kent, whose address will be given in the science building at 10 a.m. on June 25, said it will be a definite honor for him to open the commencement.

Dr. Walker, who is a native of Southern Illinois, is well known for his work in education and his contributions to the University of Southern Illinois.

THE NEWSPAPER"
Tucker Tosses Five-Hit Shutout In Tourney

SIU Wins 5-0 After Losing Opener 3-2 In 10 Innings; Dillinger Hurt

Larry Tucker, brilliant freshman shortstop, staged a script-flipping, fall-from-ahead-to-behind-and-back-again rally during SIU's baseball game against Evansville Tuesday, which was the key to the team's 5-0 victory in the decisive game of the doubleheader at Alton, Ill.

The Salukis dropped the opener by a 2-1 count in seven innings, but Tucker and the rest of the team put the game away with a flurry in the ninth to pull out the win, 5-0.

Southern played the winners of the Ohio Valley games last night against Ohio, 6-3. The Salukis won both games yesterday, 9-2 and 12-2.

Tucker garnered a base hit in the bottom of the ninth inning, then stole second base to set up the winning runs.

Duke Homer, playing right field for the first time, provided the big man of the show by delivering an enormous hit that landed on the roof of the dugout.

Dillinger runs a carillate to his fans from behind the plate, and probably will be widely remembered for his big hit in the 10th inning.

A select crowd of SIU fans was on hand when Herr South stopped breathing after the ninth inning.
