Virginia Miller Elected To Edit 1951-52 Egyptian

Virginia Miller was elected editor-in-chief of the 1951-52 Egyptian by the publications council in a meeting held last week, announced Tom Sloan, chairman of the council.

Barbara Ames was elected by the board to hold the position of managing editor, and Carol Henderson was named business manager.

Miller, Ames, and Henderson will head the Egyptian staff from now until the beginning of Spring term in 1952.

Virginia served as managing editor during the past year and previously as a reporter. She is enrolled in the College of Education and has a journalism major. She is a junior from Murphysboro.

Barbara Ames, the new managing editor, is a junior from Mt. Vernon and is minoring in journalism. Previously she has been circulation manager of the Egyptian and a reporter. She is in the College of Education.

Carol Henderson has been an assistant to Marshall Smith, former business manager, for two terms. She is a sophomore from Herrin enrolled in the College of Education.

Other staff positions will be announced at a later date.

CIVIL SERVICE ANNOUNCES COMPETITIVE EXAMS

The Illinois Civil Service Commission has announced that open competitive examinations will be given soon for each of the following classifications: clerks,stenographers, clerical typists, and recreation aides.

Complete information may be obtained from the announcement poster at the south entrance to the auditorium.

Final date to file application is April 15. Application blanks may be obtained from the Personnel Office, located on the second floor of the auditorium.

The University Duplicating Service has increased its output to nearly double that of 1946.

Students Vote Saluki As New Team Mascot

Southern's athletic teams soon may be known as "Salukis" instead of "Maroons." Voters selected the new nickname by an overwhelming majority in an election held in conjunction with registration for spring term. A highlight of registration was the actual appearance of a Saluki at the gym.

"Saluki" won over such favorites as "Rebels," "Knights," and others. The name will not be official, however, until it is approved by the faculty and administration.

Pat Marlow Reaches ISA Contest Finals

Pat Marlow, sophomore from Herrin, has been selected as one of the top seven finalists in the National Independent Student Association Sweepstakes contest. The contest is sponsored by headquarter offices recently announced.

The winner has been selected but will not be announced until March 30 at the Coruscation Ball of the national convention in Lawrence, Kansas.

Finalists were chosen from candidates representing colleges and universities throughout the United States. Judge for the contest was J. D. Powers, founder of the Powers Model agency.

Miss Marlow, a brunette, is five feet four inches tall. She is majoring in elementary education.

This is the second year in succession that S.I.U. has had a finalist in the national contest. Last year, Miss Laura Miller also of Herrin reached the finals.

HEALTH SERVICE OFFERS TETANUS IMMUNIZATION

The first of a series of tetanus toxoid immunizations will be offered at the Student Health Service tomorrow and Thursday, March 29. The hours for the students and faculty members to receive their immunizations will be 9 to 11:30, and 1:30 to 4:30.

The university libraries consist of over 100,000 volumes. These include bound documents, periodicals and books.

Construction of Dorm To Begin Immediately

Construction of a dormitory that will house 425 girls may begin as early as three weeks at the present time. The center, according to Dr. Charles T. Tenney, administrative assistant to the President, will be ready for occupancy in the fall.

"The Student Center will remain open and will function until construction work makes it impossible for us to use the building," stated Miss Leah Farr, dean of women. Miss Farr added that the center could be vacated in an hour. The new student center will be located in one of the barracks now under construction. According to plans completed by the architects, student centers will be attached to the PX and the PX annex.

The center will contain classrooms, a cafeteria, dormitory, and a lounge. It will not be torn down to make room for the new dormitory.

The center will be of two stories, with the ground floor being used for offices and the upper floor for student dormitory.

The dormitory itself will be of two stories, with the ground floor being used for offices and the upper floor for student dormitory.

Egyptian Receives First Place Award

The Egyptian has been awarded a first place rating for the second straight year in the 27th annual contest by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association.

The Egyptian was classified in the competition for four-year, liberal arts and major college printed newspapers. More than 1300 student newspapers from every state and U.S. military occupation areas abroad competed in the contest.

Barbara Ames was editor-in-chief of the Egyptian. She was also selected to receive the Outstanding Student Writing Award.

Faculty sponsor of the newspaper is Robert Stites, acting chairman of the journalism department.
Room Service Please!

A recent survey conducted by the Dean of Women's office found that in the fall of 1950, Southern was able to house less than four percent of its students in University-owned dormitories, while during this same period other colleges and universities throughout the nation were able to house between 40 and 50 percent of their students.

"No college should accept students unless it is prepared to offer them adequate, sanitary and reasonably convenient toilets and bathing facilities, and sufficient hot and cold water for basic household needs, also equipment for laundering. Anything less than these must be considered sub-standard on a health basis alone," reports the National Association of Deans of Women.

Another report by the same association declares, "Living accommodations provided for students should be considered an integral part of the educational offering of the institution and should be administered with as much care as classroom instruction receives."

When these facts are brought out, the raising of the present student center to make way for construction of a girls' dormitory does not seem much of a hardship. The Student Center will be re-established in one of the barracks now under construction.

Humor Helps...

"At one time or another, millions of Americans have tried to cut themselves a slice of cake as potent as a wedding cake. For most everyone in the United States old enough or tall enough to reach the keys of a typewriter seems to have an urge to cut himself in on the fabulous writing dollar. A public opinion poll in 1949 showed that 2,777,000 Americans wanted to write, and the pollsters took samples only among people who were married. The Student Center will be re-established in one of the barracks now under construction.

How Much? Students Estimate Educational Costs

Despite inflated living costs, 20 percent of SIU students estimate that education costs them not more than $75 to $125 per 12-week term; while only eight percent say quarterly expenses exceed $200. Other estimated costs per month, including room, board, tuition, clothing, laundry, and incidentals are: $125-$175, 27 percent; $175-$225, 22 percent; $225-$250, 11 percent; and $250-$300, 9 percent. Nine percent of students queried in a study by Wayne Mann, alumni director, made no estimates on expenses.

PUBLICITY HELP FOR SIU

Among the many things that Southern lacks is publicity. Aside from the immediate area Southern Illinois University is not a widely known school. Several ideas have been presented to advertise the school but at least one of the most obvious has been overlooked.

There are several cars in the SIU motor pool and these vehicles are driven many miles each month. Many trips are made out of state to various types of meetings and conferences. To paint the name of the school on the doors of these cars would be one simple and fairly economical way of increasing the publicity of Southern. It would at least plant the question in the minds of the unknowing public—Where is Southern Illinois University?—Where is Southern Illinois University?

Old Log School House
To Be Restored Here

The only known remaining log school house in the State of Illinois has been purchased by Southern and is to be moved to the campus and restored with original furnishings.

Known as the Cherry Valley school, it was in use as early as 1845 but SIU historians have failed to find in what year it was erected. Since 1889 the school has stood a few miles southwest of Lebanon, in St. Clair county.

Geographer Lectures
On World Problems

Dr. Charles C. Colby, visiting lecturer in geography will give two lectures in the field of international relations on successive Wednesday nights, March 28 and April 4, at 7:30 p.m. in Shryock auditorium.

Colby's theme will be "Crisis in the World Order." The first lecture will be on "Crisis in Central Europe" and the second on "Crisis in American Foreign Relations."

In his lecture tomorrow night, Dr. Colby will deal with the sources of land and men in central Europe and their significance in the world at large.

Both lectures will be free to the public.

Instructor Publishes
Newspaper Directory

Detailed information on Southern Illinois newspapers is made available in a directory compiled by Donald R. Grubb, instructor in journalism. The new book is being published by the journalism department.

Requiring more than a year of research, the directory contains information on 124 weekly and daily papers in the southern 31 counties of Illinois. It describes editorial, business and mechanical characteristics of each newspaper.

Data concerning each newspaper's plant equipment, names of staff members and mailing information are included in the directory, and are not available in any other directory.

It is designed to serve not only newspapers publish card factors in this area," Grubb says, "but also students of journalism, librarians, advertising agencies, educators, and governmental agencies."

Copies of the directory may be obtained free of charge from Don R. Jacob, at the journalism office.

Clint Clay Tilton Library Presents

Lincoln Portrait in Assembly

Unveiling of a portrait of Abraham Lincoln was the climax of the assembly held here at Southern Thursday afternoon. "Abe Lincoln in Southern Illinois," which was presented by the Clint Clay Tilton library in cooperation with the Student Council, and the speech and music departments.

Scene four of the program was called "The Mystery at Southern" and it was then that the portrait was unveiled. Tom Sloan, narrator of the program, explained that the portrait had been found in an attic here at Southern and that it was of great value, but there were no explanations of who gave it to Southern or of how long Southern had the picture which was painted in 1865.

The program itself was a tableau with four scenes, the script of which was written by Roy V. Jordan, curator of the Clint Clay Tilton library.

Comments from the speech department portrayed characters in the scenes. Students participating were Jack Jungers, Frank Barr, Rose Owen, William J. Burns, Michael Morris, and Tom Berry.

At the conclusion of the Lincoln-Douglas Debate, the Lincoln family in the White House, and the unveiling of the portrait, a short address was given on the assembly program.

SPRING STYLE SHOW

"Housewife and Spring Fashions," a style show sponsored by the home economics department will be given tomorrow night at 8 p.m. in the assembly program.

Models for the show have been selected from the home economics department and the show will continue for every occasion. Each costume will be accompanied by a musical number.

Admission for the style show will be 25 cents per person.

Pre-Student-Teaching Day To Be Held Friday

A pre-student-teaching day will be held March 30, according to Dr. Walter Grubb, director of the teacher training. This is the first program to be held at SIU.

Every student teacher at SIU will have opportunity to learn what is expected of him as a student teacher. His director of the school will undertake to provide an experience of work he is about to undertake as a teacher in training.

Pre-student-teaching day entitled "Education in Reading" by Roye Bryant, Director of SIU Placement Service, the techniques and advices for each student teacher will be given with carters about the special problems occurring in elementary and minor fields of study.

PICTURE OF OLD MAIN ON MEMBERSHIP CARDS

"Old Main," classroom building and Civil War landmark, is pictured on the 1951 membership cards of Southern Illinois Incorpor- rated. The picture is a typical one room school. These cards certify members as a part of the program, according to Dr. R. L. Allen.

According to A. H. White hunting, vice president for membership, it is fitting that SIU be remembered by the membership card since Southern Illinois Incorporated was responsible for the drive to develop a full-fledged university program at Southern, and since the improve- ment of all the educational resource in Southern Illinois is one of the major programs of the organization.

OBEISK APPLICATIONS

Students who are interested in applying for the OBESK, or OBESK, or associated positions, may pick up application forms at the Journalist office in the Journalism building on south Thompson street. The deadline for return will be April 2 in the afternoon. Applicants need not be journalism majors.

Experiences on previous publications in high school and experience in organizations are the main qualifications.

Famous Track Coach
To Speak at Clinic

George Thomas Bresnahan, one of the nation's all-time great track coaches, will be the guest speaker for the third annual Spring Sports Clinic to be held March 30.

Coleman Captains SIU Track Team

"The outlook on the incoming track season is very dismal," according to Leland "Doc" Lingle, Southern track coach. Lingle stated that the prospects can be compared with the 1943 season, when many men were called to the service, and many others were ineligible.

Lingle says that eight of the most valuable men are ineligible for the approaching season. He also said that this would mean a Jowl of 50 or 60 points per meet.

Phil Coleman has been elected captain of both the track and the cross-country teams. He is one of Lingle's more valuable distance men. The other two men who run with Coleman are Joe McDermott and Paul Trace.

Other prospects for the Southern 12-man team are Bill Chapman, 110 and 220 hurdles; Jim Hester, 880 and 110 hurdles; Batalla, the half mile, Gene McFarland will jump the high and long. Senior Alexander, Alexander will also be one of the top-notch jumpers. Hurry Clark is the lone pole vaulter.

Kutowski will be the main discus and shot put, along with Bob East. Bill Winlin will have the javelin, and Bill Winling will return to the track after two years of absence from the game. As yet Lingle has not 440 man. The 440 yard dash is the backbone of the track squad and Lingle says that it is the best in the State.

Lingle has requested men who are interested to appear at this instant for track.

The tentative schedule states the Western cinder as the meet to appear in the first meet of the season. Southern follows the policy recommended by the American Council of Education relative to credit for military experience and for personal and civilian activities related to the war.

Tom Millikan Named Most Valuable Player

Tom Millikan was the most valuable player along with the selection of an all-opponent team in a meeting of the Southern Illinois University basketball team held earlier this month.

Millikan's great all-round play was by far the most impressive thing about the Maroons this year.

Not only did he break the all-time Southern scoring record, but he also established himself as a great team man and one of the finest centers in the area.

At the conclusion of the game at Illinois Wesleyan Saturday night (March 31), Tom has 46 points including 225 in Intercollegiate Basketball Conference play this season.

There were some difficulties in naming the all-opponent team. The Maroons could not decide who were the deserving ones.

The award committee had a difficult time deciding the team.

The award committee consisted of the following coaches:

B. T. Shadley, Southern;

H. L. Clark, Wheatley;

J. C. H. Johnson, Southeastern;

R. W. Sargent, Ohio State;

J. L. Holm, Drake; and

J. B. True, Southern Illinois.

This is typical of thousands of junior and senior girls throughout the United States who have learned about and adored HADACOL. This toilet preparation from the world's largest manufacturer of medicinal products has been prescribed for millions of people for nearly 50 years.

The marvelous benefits of HADACOL, today's greatest nutritional formula, are easily understood by young and old alike who are suffering from a lack of vitamins B, C, Iron, and Niacin.

Here is what these two pretty girls would say if they may have been suffering from such deficiencies, have had to say, "Are we college students writing you this letter? Before taking HADACOL we were nervous, restless and unable to sleep at night. We had no energy and no fight. We ached all day and ached all over. Now after only 3 bottles of HADACOL we are happy and full of energy and all aches have disappeared. Thank you for your wonderful discovery of that remarkable product, HADACOL."

MARTINMEN WIN 4 OF 6 ON SOUTHERN ROAD TRIP

Coach Glenn "Abe" Martin said today that he is "highly pleased" with his Southern Illinois University baseball team that just completed a successful six game tour of the South, Southern captured four of the six games.

Martin says the fine showing was largely the result of hard work done in preparation for the trip. He said that the conditioning program has paid dividends, that they were expected to be in shape when the tour opened. Six games in six days was a true test of physical condition, and the Maroons responded well.

They opened the tour by splitting with Southeastern Louisiana, dropping the first contest 2-1 and winning the second 4-2. Then they edged favored Loyola University in New Orleans, 9-8, but lost the second game, 6-2. The Maroons climax the tour with two over Northwestern Louisiana, 4-3, and 3-0.

Most impressive among hitters were veteran Captain Joe Jones, who collected 11 hits including three home runs in 23 trips. The team received a severe jolt when they returned. Waiting for four regulars were notices to report to the Air Force Reserve.

SENIOR DUDLEY J. LE BLANC

The Best Friend You Ever Had

Senior LeBlanc has been in public life since he was quite a young man and has always advocated the cause of the underdog.

It was he who introduced the law in Louisiana that gives every deserving man and woman in Louisiana a pension of $50.00. It was he who introduced the legislation in creating the Office of Service Commission, the duties of which are to provide the deserving ex-soldier and veteran with just reward from the Federal and State Governments.

It was he who consistently fought the battle of the school teachers in the halls of the legislature. He worked tirelessly for the farmers and laboring man.

You can place your confidence in a man who has by his past activities demonstrated to you that he is your friend. If you are suffering from deficiencies of Vitamins B, C, Niacin and Iron, don't hesitate, buy HADACOL today.
