The Egyptian, March 06, 1956

Egyptian Staff

Follow this and additional works at: http://opensiuc.lib.siu.edu/de_March1956
Volume 37, Issue 37

Recommended Citation
http://opensiuc.lib.siu.edu/de_March1956/3

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Daily Egyptian 1956 at OpenSIUC. It has been accepted for inclusion in March 1956 by an authorized administrator of OpenSIUC. For more information, please contact opensiuc@lib.siu.edu.
Kenney Submits Representation Plan
Based on Number of Voters

Everybody seems to get into the game, but the really difficult positions are filled with a great many candidates. Since we suggested the position of president to the Student Council at a meeting, we have received many more applications than we anticipated. Each of the 10 candidates for president will be interviewed by the Student Activities Committee on a "viva voce" basis. Each candidate will be scored on a point system based on his or her qualifications and past experience.

Graduate Council Approves Master's Degrees in Physiology

Another department has joined forces with the English department to form a Biology major. The graduate department has also joined forces with the English department to form a Science major.

A new major in psychology has also been added to the curriculum. The psychology major is designed to provide students with a strong foundation in the field of psychology.

The psychology major is divided into two main areas: theoretical and applied psychology. The theoretical area focuses on the study of psychological theories, while the applied area focuses on the practical application of psychological principles.

In addition to the major in psychology, the department has also introduced a minor in psychology for students who are interested in this field but do not wish to pursue it as a major.

Women's Association Calls for Women's Rights

The Women's Association has called for the immediate implementation of the principles of the equal rights movement. The association is calling for an end to discrimination against women in all areas of society, including education, employment, and politics.

The association has also called for the establishment of a women's studies program at the university to provide education on women's issues and to promote equality for women.

Barbara Furst, Carl Anderson Win Service To Southern Award Prize

By Howard L. Smith

Right now, I'm sitting in my office, trying to decide what to write about next. I've been thinking about the recent Service To Southern Award, which was presented to Barbara Furst and Carl Anderson. They have both been dedicated and hardworking members of the community and deserve this recognition. I'll start by writing about the history of the Service To Southern Award.

The Service To Southern Award was established in 1950 to recognize and honor individuals who have made significant contributions to the well-being of the Southern Illinois University community. It is given annually to one male and one female student who have demonstrated exceptional service and leadership in their respective fields.

Barbara Furst and Carl Anderson are both outstanding examples of the kind of service and leadership that the award seeks to recognize. Furst has been a dedicated member of the Southern Illinois University community for many years, serving in a variety of leadership roles and working tirelessly to improve the lives of those around her. Anderson has also been a committed member of the community, serving in numerous capacities and making significant contributions to the well-being of the university.

Their dedication and commitment to service have not gone unnoticed, and they have both been recognized with numerous awards and honors for their contributions. Furst has been awarded the Service To Southern Award twice, while Anderson has received the award once.

The Service To Southern Award is a testament to the importance of service and leadership in our society, and it is an honor to be able to write about such outstanding individuals as Barbara Furst and Carl Anderson. Their dedication and commitment to service are an inspiration to us all.
Party Honors 4 SIU Authors

A part of a feature article was added Feb. 22, on the University. The print, sponsored by the board, was held up at the Board and students were given a chance to read the print of their works.

Sympathy to Students of Various Colleges

A group of students from different colleges were given a chance to read the print of their works.

Criminology Class Makes Trip To State Prison

The trip took place on Feb. 22, and was held up at the board and students were given a chance to read the print of their works.

O'Kane's Popcorns A Success

The popcorns were a success and were given a chance to read the print of their works.

Canada Players Presentation Here

The presentation took place on Feb. 22, and was held up at the board and students were given a chance to read the print of their works.

Union Sponsors Banquet For Students

The banquet was sponsored by the union and was held up at the board and students were given a chance to read the print of their works.

Selective Service Forms

The forms were given a chance to read the print of their works.

Special Lunch 50¢

The lunch was held at the board and students were given a chance to read the print of their works.

Hats Off

Over 1,200 people on Friday night and about 2,000 Saturday were present at the football game at Owensboro, Ky., and the crowd was estimated at 12,000. The game was held at the University and students were given a chance to read the print of their works.

Little Man on Campus

Dick Wharton

There was no question in the minds of the faculty and students that the University faculty had achieved a fine week's work. The faculty and students were given a chance to read the print of their works.

Southern Acresses To Queen

A girl will be crowned queen of the Southern Acresses Ball at a coronation on April 13 at the University. The faculty and students were given a chance to read the print of their works.

Governmental

Gov. William G. Stratton will be on campus March 19 for a meeting with the president of the Division of Industrial Education and Development, and Dr. William J. Tadlock, director of the Division of Industrial Education and Development.

Of Community Newspapers

There were some advantages in making a community newspaper. This point was made by one newspaper in a recent editorial. The newspaper will be held up at the board and students were given a chance to read the print of their works.

Slusak Reminds Students With Overdue Loans

"Students with recent scholarships and loans, in any case, are not required to attend any meetings," said the newspaper.

Rent a Special Rates to Students

The SIU graduates were given a chance to read the print of their works.
Wrestlers Sweep To Decisional Victory In IIAC Mat Tourney

By Bill Eppleheizer

The Western Dups swept through the 74 points Saturday to win the IIAC wrestling championship, picking up 18 matches and losing none. Eastern Nebraska won the Northern Division with 42 points, followed closely by Mississippi Valley who won the New West crown with 40. It was the first time Nebraska had ever won the championship.

Cape Fear’s Southeastern Division ended with the most standing wrestlers, getting 30 points. The team’s lone champion, Mike King, won individual matches for five years. The University of Nebraska, Eastern Division, was not far behind Nebraska at 29. TheIllinois Wesleyan University, Western Division, scored 15 points, and Pennsylvania State University, Central Division, was scored 10 points.

The contents of the IIAC wrestling tourney were not surprising. The University of Nebraska won both the heavyweight and middleweight championship matches. The Illinois Wesleyan, Eastern Division, scored 15 points, and Pennsylvania State University, Central Division, scored 10 points.

The contents of the IIAC wrestling tourney were not surprising. The University of Nebraska won both the heavyweight and middleweight championship matches. The Illinois Wesleyan, Eastern Division, scored 15 points, and Pennsylvania State University, Central Division, scored 10 points.

Intramurals

By Bill Eppleheizer

The Intramural Tourney was won by the University of Nebraska, Eastern Division, scoring 15 points. The University of Nebraska, Western Division, scored 10 points, and the Central Division, scored 10 points.

The contents of the IIAC wrestling tourney were not surprising. The University of Nebraska won both the heavyweight and middleweight championship matches. The Illinois Wesleyan, Eastern Division, scored 15 points, and Pennsylvania State University, Central Division, scored 10 points.

The contents of the IIAC wrestling tourney were not surprising. The University of Nebraska won both the heavyweight and middleweight championship matches. The Illinois Wesleyan, Eastern Division, scored 15 points, and Pennsylvania State University, Central Division, scored 10 points.

3 Salukis Picked For
All-IIAC Cage Teams

MU captures for Johnson

By Bill Eppleheizer

The University of Missouri captured three All-IIAC cage teams in the 1954-55 season, the highest number in Missouri history. The teams were chosen by the IIAC coaches, and were selected from the Missouri State University, Central Division, and the University of Missouri, Western Division, scoring 15 points, and the Illinois Wesleyan, Eastern Division, scored 10 points.

The contents of the IIAC wrestling tourney were not surprising. The University of Nebraska won both the heavyweight and middleweight championship matches. The Illinois Wesleyan, Eastern Division, scored 15 points, and Pennsylvania State University, Central Division, scored 10 points.

The contents of the IIAC wrestling tourney were not surprising. The University of Nebraska won both the heavyweight and middleweight championship matches. The Illinois Wesleyan, Eastern Division, scored 15 points, and Pennsylvania State University, Central Division, scored 10 points.

The contents of the IIAC wrestling tourney were not surprising. The University of Nebraska won both the heavyweight and middleweight championship matches. The Illinois Wesleyan, Eastern Division, scored 15 points, and Pennsylvania State University, Central Division, scored 10 points.

The contents of the IIAC wrestling tourney were not surprising. The University of Nebraska won both the heavyweight and middleweight championship matches. The Illinois Wesleyan, Eastern Division, scored 15 points, and Pennsylvania State University, Central Division, scored 10 points.