"OUTWARD BOUND" STARS WHITE

The Zetetic Spring Play, "Outward Bound," to be presented in the Shryock Auditorium, Friday evening, May 13, has a list of successful productions sponsored by that society. The cast includes a number of student actors and actresses, all hailing from the Zetetic Spring Play. It is directed by Mr. Tietjens, who has had wide experience in the field of dramatics.

Bill Adams has had dramatic experience both on this campus and at the University of Chicago, where he has had wide experience in the field of dramatics. Recently Mr. Adams gave an excellent performance as a Student in "The Mystery of the Blue Train," presented by the Methodist church of Carbondale.

Bett Boll's high school success has been continued and increased, and Miss Furr appeared in "The Cradle Song," of the Zetetic Spring Play last year, and she has been in numerous Strut and Frat plays.

Marc Green's latest dramatic appearance in the opera, "Mother," gave ample evidence of Mr. Green's versatility. He is a musician of unexcelled ability and an excellent actor. In 1930, he had the masculine lead in "Seven Keys to Belpaise." In 1931, he has parts in "The Flattering Woman," and the Homecoming Play. In addition to "Marcia," Mr. Green has appeared in the Spring Opera, "The Women's Welfare Celebration presented during February.

MARSHA MORROW, a newcomer on the campus and a member of the Zeta chapter, has had wide experience in the Zetetic Spring Play. She has also taken part in the Homecoming play and other productions of the university. Probably his biggest performance was that of the German producer, Oscar Wolfe, in "The Royal Family."

BENTHAL VOTED HEAD OF FORUM
DEBATING CLUB

JOHN BREWER ELECTED SECRETARY-TREASURER FOR NEXT YEAR

PAUL BENTHAL

Concluding its activities for the year the Forum Debating Society held its final meeting Monday evening, May 2. At this session a partial organization for next year’s work was perpetrated. Paul Benthal of Waltonville was elected president of the club, while John Brewer of Crab Orchard was chosen secretary-treasurer.

The newly elected president, a junior of S. I. T. C., is a student of meritorious scholastic attainments. Besides being affiliated with the Forum, Mr. Benthal is a member of the Education Club and of the Socratic Literary Society. He will appear in the role of Rutherford Cassedy in the spring play, “To the Ladies.” Mr. Brewer, the incoming secretary-treasurer, a sophomore, is also an active member of the Socratic Literary Society.

Following the election of the two officers, plans for next year’s activities were discussed. It was decided that the Forum would engage more intensely in intercollegiate debating during the 1932-33 school year. Plans were to begin debate work early in the season so that a longer inter-collegiate debating schedule may be arranged.

The entire Egyptian staff is reported to be present at the Egyptian office tomorrow morning during chapel hour.

Miss Frances Barbour’s discussion on “American Folk Lore” was the feature of the social program. Miss Barbour read examples of mountain, negro, cowboy, and lumberjack folklore. She pointed out how each lore was adapted to the particular section it represents.

The program was concluded with falis of John Brewer and Clyde Madison, and with a number of selections by the Socratic Boys’ Quartette.

Plans Annual Spring Banquet

During the business meeting of the Socratic Society last Wednesday evening tentative plans were made for the annual Socratic banquet. As the meeting stood, the banquet will take the form of a dinner dance to be held probably at Vanity Fair the evening of May 25. Arrangements are being made to procure a popular orchestra for the affair. Definite plans will be announced later.

HEAD VISITS S.I.T.C. CAMPUS

Dr. C. B. Allen, formerly faculty member and administrator of this college, visited the campus Friday of last week. During the chapel program he spoke to the students and faculty, stating very emphatically that he was highly pleased with the growth of the college, with the increased enrollment and the advanced scholastic ranking.

For the past fifteen years he has been president of the Academic of Science.

In the fall of last year he attended the International Conference of the Science Club on the Council of the Illinois Academy of Science.

Dr. Allen was also a member of the faculty and administrator of this college, and built up one of the best teacher colleges in the Northwest, and has become distinguished as a teacher and administrator of colleges.

Dear Sphinx: Do you know May Hoppe, and is she good looking? My roommate told me that he'd fix me up with her one night last week. And that he'd go along and double with her friend, June Day. But at the last minute we had to call the two dates off because the two husbands returned unexpectedly. We're to take along a case of cold beer and the girls will entertain us at their home west of town. I'm a new student here, and I'd like to know if you'd approve of my going on such a party? Will it get me in trouble? Anxiously, Arthur Lambert.

Dear Arthur:

May and June are dazzling girls. By all means go. As far as getting you in trouble is concerned, I don't know. I'd be SURE the husbands were out of the country. I had a friend once who got Jimmie Lauder a date with May, and they didn't find out in time that the husbands had returned. Jimmie got there, inside the door, when a man's gruff voice said, "You... Oh, I won't repeat it, but anyway, Jim started running and didn't stop 'til he got to Entsminger's. And to this day he hasn't repeated the story. Go, but be careful.

Sincerely,

The Sphinx.
But, I am a College Graduate

In just a few weeks another horde of graduates will pass to knock at the door of the outside world. And just how will these proud and confident applicants be received by the world in general and the average layman in particular? Observe the dialogue:

(From College Grad, 1932 model) "Good morning, Mr. Business Man. I wish to apply for a position."

(Business Man) "You mean a job. Well, how unusual."

"But I am a college graduate. I have a degree from Utopia U."

"Never heard of the place."

But surely a degree from Utopia U. means something. Why, it is a member of the Association. It has been recognized by:

"I am a Kiwanian, member of the Presbyterian church, and a Mason. Are you impressed?"

"Why, I know this business. I spent four years in school learning it."

"You will spend the next four years forgetting what you learned in the past four years. Practical experience will teach you the differences in theory and practice. Your members in education consists of a hodge-podge of assorted facts and half-baked opinions. Your four years in a country-club atmosphere has in no way prepared you for an existence where you will be graded face value for your own merits."

"Yes sir. I fully realize that."

"You think so. But do you? Nine out of ten college graduates are absolutely knotty for anything in this world, and the majority of the balance become round pegs in square holes. Is your character any better for having been in college? Have you learned tolerance? Do you realize your own insignificance? Does your college system teach efficiency? Have you ever had to use your own initiative? And besides all that, what do you know about civic affairs?"

"I do qualify for intelligent voting. Of course, and what is added, no one will be able to teach you anything for a long time."

"You are right, Mr. Business Man. And he retires thinking, "What old stuff. Why don't these old folks ever learn anything new."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Although every effort to secure campus opinion on timely campus problems and questions is being made by the staff, it is utterly impossible to approach each student and faculty member for a complete survey. Realizing this, the editor wishes to encourage letters and forum pieces and to publish their opinions and reactions to the editor in letter form. The letters need not be confined to campus problems but may pertain to the policies of the Egyptian or may be offensive or disagreeing to the individual. Let it be understood that all such letters will receive the full consideration of the editor and that all letters will be published in the Egyptian with the name of the author. Needless to say, only signed letters will be considered for publication.

It would be folly to suppose that all features of the paper are accepted without murmur, without provoking a question or two, and without desiring a desire for expression. It is to this last reason, therefore, that the editor emphasizes and encourages the "letter-to-the-editor idea."

VERNON SUBMITS TRACK RECORD CONTRASTS

BULLETIN

The quadrangular meet in Shurtleff Stadium last Wednesday was a two record day. The mile relay record for the teachers colleges is now in the possession of Friday's winning combination of Centralia, T. V. C., and the Southern Teachers'. Travolta, E. Johnson and Davidson. The new record for both S. T. C. and all the teachers colleges is 3:55.7.

The broad jump record was bettered by Pierce, Carbondale, and his new mark of 58'-11 1/4" is a new local record and also a new teachers college record.

Bob broke up a mark of 6'-1 1/4" in the high jump event, but since the record is not recognized as official, the existing record must remain. Otherwise, both of Pete Ray's old records in the broad jump and high jump should have fallen in Friday's meet.

CHEMICAL SOCIETY HOLDS SECTION MEET IN ST. LOUIS

Dr. Neckers, Dr. Abbott, and Dr. Van Lente attended the mid-west sectional meeting of the American Chemical Society held at the Com- nato Hotel in St. Louis on May 6, and the representatives from S. T. C. attended the special section of the meeting devoted to the discussion of chemical education.

Professor R. S. Hopkins of the University of Illinois conducted an open forum, while Professor S. B. Bains, University of Kansas; Professor N. H. Furman, of Princeton University, and Professor M. S. C. M. Seiden of the University of Minnesota, also added valuable addresses to the meeting.

The meeting was concluded Saturday morning with inspection trips to the various chemical manufacturing plants in St. Louis.

Preparations for Annual May Fete, Underway at Gym

The Women's Athletic department is now making preparations for the annual May festival to be presented on the campus the last week of May. All freshmen girls in physical education classes will be included. In previous years it has been a beautiful performance.

Each class nominates a candidate for May queen, who may or may not be a freshman. They are voted upon by the students and the name of the winner is kept secret until the afternoon of the festival.

While the exact program to be presented this year has not been revealed, the general theme will be "a story-book." The different classes are to present different types of literary interpretations. Adventure Story—"Robin Hood." Poetry—"Gingham Dog and Calico Cat. Mythology—"Pandora." Drama—"Peter Pan." Romance—"Mather Goose."

Fairy Tales—"Cinderella." The names of the candidates for queen will probably be announced next week.

W. A. O. Officers to be Elected at Friday's Meeting

At the meeting to be held Wednesday May 11, this week, the Women's Athletic Association will elect its officers for the year. The meeting was to be held this week was postponed because of the tennis tournament which is claiming the attention of many of the girls. The candidates for new officers are:

President—Juanita Adams, Virginia

Vice-President—Mary Anne Hensley, Mildred Werkmeister

Secretary-Treasurer—Helen Hays, Murial Taylor

All of these girls have been active in W.A.O. work for the past year, and show promise of doing well in administering next year's program. The results of the election were:

President, Virginia Hensley; Vice President, Dorothy Kunze; Secretary, Helen Hays; Treasurer, Murial Taylor.

Plans are being made for a W. A.O. banquet to be held soon, at which all of the members will be present with letters which they have earned during the year.

Three new baseball teams, for which all girls are eligible, are being organized. There will be an Ath- lon Hall team, a town team, a "gym minor" team. These teams will meet for practice on Tuesday and Thursday, and may be able, by increasing the number of practices to secure points for W. A. A. membership.

Egyptian Takes Five Places in Annual Contest
At the annual Illinois College Press Association convention, held May 7 at Wheaton, Ill., the Egyptian took in the Class C College best publication contest. In the newspaper competition, the Egyptian received honorable mention. The S. I. T. C. paper was awarded second place in the feature contest with the Sphinx column. In original advertising, the Egyptian took first place with an advertisement arranged and written by Norman Lovellette, past editor of the paper. A biography of Alphonso, the football team mascot, written by Mark Green; was awarded third place in that division of the contest. The news story on the proposed Berck Memorial was awarded honorable mention in the news story contest.

The meeting this year was a particularly fine one with approximately twenty colleges and universities of Illinois represented. After presenting the registration, the editors and their staffs met in one of the rooms to discuss their particular problems, while the business managers and their staffs held a round table discussion in another room. Mr. Andrews, sponsor of the Carbondale paper; conducted the editors’ discussion, and Professor Barlow, of the School of Journalism at the University of Illinois, led that of the business staff.

Following a dinner at Naperville, Mr. S. Duncan-Clark, associate editor of the Chicago Daily News, addressed the group. The business meeting, conducted at North Central College, was followed by awards. At this meeting, Horace, editor of the Bradley Tech paper, was elected president of the association for the coming year. A definite constitution compiled by Professor Barlow, was also adopted.

The next meeting of the Illinois Press Association will be held at Bradley Polytechnic Institute, Peoria, Ill., which is considered for the purpose of inspecting the Chicago Tribune plant as had been tentatively arranged.

Norman Lovellette, Elena Tuch, Clavence Kirchhoffler and Ray Herrman, were the delegates sent by the Egyptians.

Though Miss Tietjen has written only one novel, a play, several textbooks, and a number of juvenile books, her talent lies in poetry. She has written seven volumes of poetry including Profiles from China, Body and Soul, Profiles from Home, and Leaves in Winter Weather.

Miss Tietjen’s poetry is distinguished by a complete spiritual honesty. She writes lyric verse that carries her personal experiences into the universal. Her poetry is a blend of an inheritance that for centuries has been American and an environment that has included the Orient.

Tickets for the lecture are on sale by members of the Poetry Club and are priced at thirty-five cents for students and fifty cents for the general public.
