CHARLESTON WILL HOMECOMING FOR MAROONS

SOUTHERN WILL FIGHT THROUGH THE OCTOBER HARVEST - CONFERENCE RACE

Southern’s hitting Maroons will enter the last lap of the 1942 campaign, and if they can capture the Southwestern Athletic Conference in southern Missouri, their fans will have a reason to cheer. The Maroons, undefeated in conference play, will be top dogs as a result of the two weeks rest over the holiday period. On the second and third teams take a 34-11, placing the Maroons at the top of the league list. The same lineup which won last year will have an advantage over its opponents, as well as having some formidable talent ready to complete the schedule.

The invaders will be seeking to make good on their good showing last year against two leagues. Charleston is the only team to win all games of the good Old Normal, and they will be challenged in the first game.

The last-minute player present in a serious attack. The defense is quite strong in the field. The defense is quite strong in the field. The Southern team is led by four 3-year veterans, greatly the big-moving force.

MUSICAL COMEDY FIRST ON LIST FOR HOME COMING

ANNUAL PLAY DIRECTED BY MARGARET DAVIS, PROMISE OF SUCCESS

The culminating efforts of casts, music and dramatic direction are being represented in our schools, and stage and technical students will be in evidence as never before. The audience at 8 o’clock Friday evening will witness the triumph of the Annual Play of the artist in the annual musical comedy, “Three Little Girls in the Old Ford.”

Miss Julia Jones, director of Little Theatre and co-author of the musical comedy, will direct the production.

The story, a musical comedy written and produced by Gaynor and Morgan, also deserves recognition as a fine product of the southern school. The music, the dance and the story make this program a perfect evening.”

The cast is made up of students from every department of the school. The music and dance are of the highest order. The musical comedy will be presented on Friday evening. The play will be a fitting climax to the activities of the school.

The Social committee of the Homecoming group is making a few important changes in the program of the school. The committee members are: McClelland, Clara Smith, Florence Boas, Robert Geiger, J. W. L. Jenkins, John Swain, and Arnold Ray Thompson, who will play the roles of the cast of the play.

Dunbar Will Hold Dance at Old Gym

Dunbar Society will celebrate its annual dance on Friday night at Old Gym. The students will be entertained by the Dunbar Society’s band, which will be in charge of the music.
