Housing Goblin Obstructs Our Growth—

Before Southern Illinois State Normal University, with an enrollment increasing from 567 in 1929 to 1272 in 1932, a housing problem which has been decreasing can now increase. The problem of new buildings is one which shows the inadequacy of the present living quarters for the college students. The present living conditions are inadequate for the present enrollment and the new students who have been added to the college this year. The present living conditions are inadequate for the present enrollment and the new students who have been added to the college this year.

The War against College Students—

The war against college students is a war that has been going on for years. The college students are being asked to sacrifice their lives for the country, but they are not being asked to sacrifice their lives for the country.

Dr. Joseph Van Riper Does Some Notable Work at University of Michigan

By POLLY SWIFT.

Dr. Joseph Van Riper, the good natured instructor, is doing remarkable work with patients at the University of Michigan. University of Michigan, and Dr. H. B. Poage, instructor in geography of Michigan State Teachers College, has been successful in his work.

During the campaign and this term, Dr. Van Riper and Poage have been presenting their thesis courses for publication. The thesis courses is entitled "The Geographical Aspects of the World at Michigan, Michigan, Michigan." This involves a research study of the effect of soil, climate, and vegetation factors to developing needs in one major in that county. The course is of in- terest to all students who wish to know the facts that it was the first to think of Michigan in the United States.

The geography instructor reports that the course is well attended by students. The teaching method is different from the usual one. The students are free to discuss the problems and to work on them. The instructor is always available to answer questions and to assist in research.

At the close of her lessons Mrs. Van Riper gave the student's remarks to the more mature student of the course. She included a presentation of the history of the course, the progress of the students, and the importance of the course. She also pointed out the necessity of the course for the future.

Rural Life Club

Mrs. Mary Steadman, General Secretary of the Rural Life Club, has been working on the development of the club. She has been given the responsibility of planning the club's activities and of organizing the various sections. She is working closely with the students to ensure that the club's activities are well received and appreciated.

Local Jokes of the Faculty Members

BY JOHN R. BEECHER.

This week, we have been focused on the publication of the "Faculty Jokes." These jokes are a reflection of the humor and wit that permeate the University of Michigan. They are a testament to the work and dedication of the faculty members. The jokes are light-hearted and are a reminder of the importance of maintaining a sense of humor in the workplace.

Shawn Dances with Penn on Campus of U. of Illinois

Shawn has taken his company of dancers to the campus of the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign for a weekend of performances. The group consists of students from various departments, including dance, theater, and music. They are planning to perform several pieces throughout the week, including a modern dance piece, a jazz routine, and a classical ballet. The performances will be held in the Student Union and the Champaign Auditorium. The group has been well-received by the local community, and they are looking forward to their return to the University of Illinois next month.

The pick of them all for Real Mildness and Better Taste is Chesterfield because of its right combination of the best American and Turkish tobaccos.

Real mildness is more important in a cigarette today than ever before because people smoke more now than ever before.

That's why so many smokers have changed to Chesterfield...they are finding out that for Real Mildness and Better Taste the pick of them all is Chesterfield.
