In MEMORIAM

The solid gray blanket of clouds split off a few whirling snowflakes upon the thousands in the blinding white world, created by the huge white walls which surrounded the white strip field and the brown, bare track, and met the over public address system the voice of Mr. Joe Thompson, Junior, who had died April 6 of this year at Camp San Deigo Beach on the Pacific coast after saving the life of two fellow selections and trying to save the other.

"As a friend and as a faculty member who knew him well, I have been asked to say a few words in memory of Mr. Thompson. He was an excellent student. He was a member of the "C Club" and the Sphinx Club. He was president of his senior fraternity. In high school, he was elected by the class of his generation and his outstanding campus leaders. He held numerous offices and was a member of the ROTC. He was college boxing champion and college wrestling champion.

For outstanding his list of accomplishments, however, was his death. Of the individual. He was the type of a student athlete which we could almost wish to be like, strong, intelligent, capable, motivated, and from which we would like to draw our strength and encouragement.

It is in the request of his classmates and fellow students that I am here today to pay tribute to Mr. Thompson, the student who left us in the prime of his life. May his memory live on in our hearts and minds forever.

Nancy H. Thompson

Wholesome Personality in Teachers

In discussing the wholesome personality of anything as all it must first be determined that the wholesome personality is not always the complete whole of all our attitude, ideas, manners, ways of thinking and doing things. It may be good or it may be bad. Good wholesome personality includes a sense of humor, kindness, and make for bad personality—look at Clark Gable. Good looks don't either—look at Doug Hadley. Noses don't "make or break" good or bad personalities. A wholesome personality is the most desirable and seemingly attractive personality for students to have standing for leadership, consideration, and approval. A wholesome personality is one of those things that every individual is capable of if he chooses to develop it. No personality is perfect.

A wholesome personality in teachers might first of all take into consideration the quality of the classroom environment and the teaching method. The teacher who is able to create a wholesome environment and maintain a positive and enjoyable classroom atmosphere will be more successful in his teaching than one who is not. The teacher should be able to establish a good rapport with his students and create a comfortable and welcoming environment for learning.

New Course in Child Guidance Practices to Be Taught Next Term

In response to recent interest in child guidance practices, a new course in child guidance is being offered at the University of Chicago.

The course will be held on Tuesdays from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m., beginning on January 15, 1942. The course will consist of five sessions, and will be taught by Professor Edward S. Jones. The course will cover the following topics: the development of children, the psychology of education, the child's environment, and social and economic factors affecting child development.

The course is open to all students, and will be held in the University Gymnasium. The fee for the course is $20.00 per session. Applications for admission should be made to the College of Education.

ARTICULAR PEOPLE REFER ERELESS

In this article, the author discusses the importance of referring people to the right place. He suggests that people should be referred to the appropriate resources, such as doctors or lawyers. The author also emphasizes the need to refer people to places where they can get proper care and support.

Silvertone Reeders, a newly formed organization, plans to hold a meeting this Saturday evening. The meeting will be held in the Community Center, beginning at 7:00 p.m. All interested members are encouraged to attend.

Southern Doane Sharing In National Defense By Sponsoring Four Types Of Various Related Programs

By JOE PRELLE

SOUTHERN CLASS of 1942 is one of the few optimistic organizations that have decided to continue their normal activities in the midst of the world’s emergency. In order to contribute toward the national call for defense, the Southern Doane Student Council has initiated a number of projects that are both educational and practical.

First Training

The Civilian Pilot Training Course has been sponsored by the Doane administration since the fall of 1940. During this period, the Doane学生的 have been training through the Federal Aircraft Training organization. It is the policy of the Doane administration to continue this training even though the Federal government has provided funds to pay for the training of its own students. The Doane administration has thus assumed the full responsibility for the training of its own students.

Second Training

The Army Air Corps is sponsoring a pilot training project at Doane. The Doane students will receive instruction under the supervision of the Doane administration. All Doane students who have completed training in the Army Air Corps will be turned over to the Army Air Corps.

Third Training

The Doane administration is sponsoring a pilot training project at the Doane College. The Doane students will receive instruction under the supervision of the Doane administration. All Doane students who have completed training in the Army Air Corps will be turned over to the Army Air Corps.

Fourth Training

The Doane administration is sponsoring a pilot training project at the Doane College. The Doane students will receive instruction under the supervision of the Doane administration. All Doane students who have completed training in the Army Air Corps will be turned over to the Army Air Corps.

Everyone who wishes to be a member of the future Teachers of America should pay his dues ($1.00) and be enrolled in the Doane College.
