THE MAN OF THE WEEK

By DONALD BRYANT

When the students selected Donald W. Bryant as their class officer for the next two years, the announcement was made, in the words of the Illinois State Register, on February 15, "Mr. B. W. Bryant, an ancient of the University, is a man to be respected and followed. His knowledge of the world is wide, and his influence over the minds of the students is felt strongly in every department." The announcement was made at the time the class officer was announced, but the announcement was made over the air by the same speaker who announced the election of other students. INVENTIONS

If some of the girls who have grown up around us at the University have been convinced that they could do well in any field of study, it may be because of the influence of their parents. The influence of their parents may be seen in the number of girls who have grown up around us at the University and who have gone on to do well in any field of study. REMEMBERING THE TRAGEDY

That we may not forget, we are reminded of the tragic events of July 4th. It is a time of sorrow for many of us, but we must remember the words of zost. They say, "If we had not been brother to all the world, we would have been a nation of nations." This is our solemn call to duty. We must remember that we are all brothers and sisters.

SOUTHERN NET SQUAD DOWNS CAPE, 7-2

Although handicapped by the loss of Newton Ekdahl, injury, and a sprained knee, new skipper Joe Brown is doing more than might be expected with the Cape Wildcats, 72.

The only Cape returnee is the spirited Dick DePpe, who was a regular starter last year and was one of the key men to make Cape noted. The fourth man to be named with the Ekdahl and Todd Phillips, 10-7, coming from the football team.

Ch. Pooschke,6oucher's, elder son of Alex Pooschke, a high school senior, was with a two Tone radio, which he purchased from a Shaver Hardware sale. The sale was held last Friday night.

Zi Clay will play football a season, in addition to basketball, through an unusual proposition. A son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Harry Zi Clay, he was in his first year at Cape High School last season.

SPORTS FLASHES

BY BENJAMIN BALDWIN

The New York Yankees have also signed a deal with the Yankees, and they plan to use the Yankees in the future.

Since the depression, the Yankees have not won a single game. The Yankees are up against the St. Louis Cardinals, the team that was the main rival of the Yankees in the 1920s.

Although high school baseball has been a big hit, only a few schools have been able to compete with the Yankees. The Yankees have won six state championships in the past five years, and they have been the only team to win a state championship in the past five years.

Another factor in being ranked above all others is the fact that the Yankees have the best players in the country. The Yankees have won six state championships in the past five years, and they have been the only team to win a state championship in the past five years.
