Plans Are Now In Progress For Religious Emphasis Week; Sponsored By Christian Students

Religious Emphasis Week is now under way, and plans are being made for its culmination in the form of the Little Theatre's production of "Cry Havoc." The theme for Religious Emphasis Week is "Don't Form The Senate Council Carnival-Dance Tonight At 8:00." The carnival will be held in the Student Union Ballroom, and will feature games, food, and music. The event is sponsored by the Student Council, and is expected to draw a large crowd. The purpose of Religious Emphasis Week is to raise awareness of religious issues and to promote interfaith understanding. The Little Theatre's production of "Cry Havoc" will be the highlight of the week, and is expected to be a powerful statement on the love and destruction of God and humanity. For more information, please contact the Student Council or the Little Theatre production team.
