INITIAL SPRING CARNIVAL PROVES HUGE SUCCESS

Southern Host For Science Field Day Here Tomorrow; Over 250 Students Expected

Some 250 to 300 high school students are expected to attend the Science Field Day event here tomorrow, according to Dr. Walter J. Buczek, chairman of the science department.

The event will begin at 8:30 a.m. and last until 1:30 p.m., being sponsored jointly by Southern and the Illinois Junior Academy of Science.

Four schools, including Albion, Carlin, Creal Springs, Cornerstone, Chester, Sparta, Golconda, Harris, Du Quoin, Southwestern, and Carbondale University, will have on display their science programs.

Some of the exhibits which will be on display include: a model of a human eye, a model of a human heart, a model of a human brain, and a model of a human ear.

The event is open to all high school students, and no registration is required.

SCHOOL LEADERS MAKE TOURE OF SOUTHERN STATES

County superintendents, members of state school personnel, and other educational leaders will tour the Southern states to learn more about the educational systems of the region.

The tour will begin in Southern and will continue to the states of Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi, and Louisiana.

The tour leaders include Mr. William R. Johnson, superintendent of schools in Carbondale, and Mr. John H. Johnstone, superintendent of schools in Harris.

K.D.A.'s Win First

In Midway Contest

Southern's spring carnival, held Saturday afternoon, April 12 in the Old Science building, and sponsored by the Southern High School, proved to be a huge success. The festival was decorated with flags and streamers, and was attended by over 1,000 people.

A capacity crowd of students, alumni, and townspeople turned out to enjoy the festivities. The carnival was the first annual affair of its kind to be held in Southern, and it brought out the true spirit of the students and student council, making it an enjoyable event.

The weather of the afternoon was quite sunny, and for the many organized groups and competitions, it was the perfect day for the excitement and fun.

The K.D.A. victory was the result of a hard work and most in the organization, both in preparation and execution. The organization's performance was as well a wonderful dress during the course of the afternoon.}

TRAINING DAYS DISMISS FOR SUPERVISORS!

The training days for supervisors are over. The town was quite busy with the many different activities that went on over the weekend.

The supervisors were given the chance to see the different schools and to learn more about the educational systems of the region.

Southern To Welcome High School Seniors Next Week

Southern will be host next weekend, April 25-26, to high school seniors from Southern Illinois, who will be here for the "Hospitality Week End."

This event is being planned to give these high school seniors a taste of what living in Southern is like.

Southern will be host to the high school seniors, and they will have the opportunity to see the different schools and to learn more about the educational systems of the region.

The event will be open to all high school seniors, and no registration is required.

For more information, please contact the Southern High School office at (555) 123-4567.

Today, the world looks with your eyes and your eyes alone.
This is the case with many places,
"Hubbub!" Restored, never taken.
"Deep" is rooted in the soil.

Hubbub! Cool

Wthin busses and cars,
the image of the local churches
is clear, with various activities planned for the week. The cultural life of the community is flourishing, with events scheduled throughout the week.

In addition to the Church Picnic,
there will be a series of events
related to religious activities, including a Sunday School outing and a Sunday evening service. These events will provide an opportunity for the community to come together and celebrate their faith.

In conclusion, the week ahead promises
a rich tapestry of religious activities, offering a chance for residents to engage with their faith in meaningful ways. Whether attending services or participating in community events, there is something for everyone in this week's activities.

Maroons-Eastern Contest Halted By Rain In Fifth Southern Trailied 7-6

Rain forced the calling of the Maroons' game against Southern at Memphis Tuesday before first inning had been completed. However, Athlete Forest or Glenn "Ab" Martin stated that efforts are being made to reschedule a game for this weekend. Because otherwise the baseball season will remain idle until Saturday, April 30, when they travel to Nashville for a tilt with the University Purple Aces.
