NOT A BREECH! The 32-year-old British-born Southern University (Baton Rouge, La.) alumnus was on duty when the 2-year-old daughter of a Black sorority sister was accidentally dropped by the baby-sitter. The baby, who was born premature, was in a delicate condition and had to be transferred to another hospital. The baby's condition improved, but the family was grateful to the policy of the hospital for allowing baby-sitters to be on duty.

EMORY HUNTER'S ANKLE MAY BE LOST FOR FEWER THAN THE REASON:

Afflicted a disquiet of pain that it was worth a few weeks ago, the doctor to the student who was attending the 1894 game by the Emory team. It was the third time he had to be taken off the field. It turned out that the ankle was not broken, but the doctor recommended that the pain was due to an injury that might have caused a fracture. The doctor recommended that the ankle be removed to prevent further injury. The ankle was removed, and the student was able to return to the field.

EMERY INJURES ANKLE, MAY GO BE ON FOR THE SEASON

Amidst a season of ups and downs, the S. I. T. C. (St. Ignatius, Loyola, and Tau Kappa Epsilon) continued their efforts on the playing field. Despite several injuries, including a severe ankle injury to Emery, the team managed to secure a 14-0 victory in their latest match. Their resilience and determination were evident, and the team is hopeful that Emery will make a full recovery in time for the remainder of the season.

"The strain of pursuing a law course puts a tremendous tax on my energy," says E.R. O'Neil, "but I try to avoid overdoing, and part of my program is smoking Camels. There's a lot of enjoyment in Camels, and they give me a delightful lift." I smoke them constantly and they never upset my nerves. Every situation in life has its strain—every day its many moments of uncertainty... self-distrust... "low" spirits. So why not turn to Camels yourself... for more smoking enjoyment... to offset fatigue and irritability? Thousands of experienced smokers have found for themselves that Camels give a delightful lift."

And science, as you may have noticed in your reading, definitely confirms what they report. Camels are mild and distinctive in flavor—milder—made from finer, more expensive tobaccos than any other popular brand of cigarettes. Smoke all you want—Camels never get on your nerves.

EMERY INJURED ANKLE: MAY BE OUT FOR REST OF SEASON

Aramis, a downwind team that awaited the kick-off, and the other member of the Southern eleven team, was held by the powerful St. Viator front for a few moments. The Southern team, finding no room for action, attempted to pass the ball to a teammate. The Southern team, however, was held back by the defensive line of St. Viator, which included strong tackles and solidiola's.

Although on several occasions Southern got the ball to the 25-yard line, the Southern team was unable to advance further due to the strong defense of St. Viator. Southern's offense was stymied by the determined defense of St. Viator, which prevented them from scoring.

Mike Losanczy, St. Viator's quarterback, completed a pass to Woodrow, who was tackled by Southern's defensive line. Losanczy then ran for a touchdown, giving St. Viator a 14-0 lead at halftime.

The Southern team rallied in the second half, but St. Viator's defense was too strong. Losanczy and the St. Viator offense worked together to keep the ball out of Southern's reach, resulting in a 14-0 victory for St. Viator.

Despite the defeat, Southern's coach was pleased with his team's effort. "Our boys played their best, but we were outmatched," he said. "We need to work on our defense and offense to improve our chances in future games."

The St. Viator defense was led by Losanczy, who was named the game's Most Valuable Player. The Southern team, on the other hand, was led by Mike Losanczy, who was named the game's Most Valuable Player.

Minutes of Last Council Meeting

The School Council met to discuss various matters of concern to the school. The meeting was held on February 25, 1934. The following is a summary of the meeting:

The council began by reviewing the minutes of the previous meeting. The minutes were read and approved by all members present.

The council then discussed the progress of the school's athletic teams. The football team was discussed in detail, with particular attention paid to the team's upcoming game against the rival school. The council agreed to support the team's efforts and encouraged all students to attend the game.

The council also discussed the school's budget for the upcoming year. The council approved the budget, with a focus on providing funds for necessary maintenance and improvements.

The council adjourned at 10:00 a.m., and the next meeting was scheduled for March 15, 1934.

The council's decisions were recorded in the minutes, which were to be distributed to all members of the council for review.

The council thanked all members for their participation and dedication to the school.

EMERY INJURES ANKLE: MAY BE OUT FOR REST OF THE SEASON

A former tackle on the last Agricultural Club football team, Emory, injured his ankle in a recent practice game and is questionable for the rest of the season. Although outwrestled considering the weight and size of his opponents, he showed his usual tenacity and determination. Despite the injury, he continued to participate in team activities.

The School Council passed a motion to allocate funds for the purchase of new football equipment. The motion was unanimous, and the funds were approved for the upcoming season.

The first meeting of the Student Council was held last night at the Chi Omega Chi house. The council discussed issues such as student welfare, academic affairs, and extracurricular activities. The meeting was well-attended, with representatives from all major fraternities and sororities in attendance.
MOVIES

Unfinished Symphony: The end of the line for Austria. Already released in London and advance notices give it plenty. The story of Franz Schubert, the musical genius, of music by his title and of his struggle to become famous. Hans Jory and Martha Eggerth. Music stage without making faces.

The Cats' Paw: Harold Lloyd, back on the screen after a two-year absence. Son of American diplomat to China against Chinese methods to clean up American city. Clever people, but he doesn't know the lines and gaps. So is the picture. (NBC, telecast, Alan Dinehart.)

A group of children from the local high school have formed a group called "School Council of Technology." The group is working on a project to build a model of the St. Viator high school building. The project is being supervised by Mr. Robert Seidman, head of the Technology Department. A meeting of the group was held on Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Seidman.

The meeting was attended by two representatives from the St. Viator team: Mr. William McInerney and Mr. James Kelly.

The group discussed the progress of the project and plans for the next meeting. The next meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, September 10th at 7:00 PM at the home of Mr. Robert Seidman.
