Many Xmas Displays
On Southern Campus

The students at SIU Southern, near New Haven, indulged in holiday festivities with decorations and displays.

Old-fashioned lamps at the University of Southern Illinois were turned on to light up the campus.

The lamp posts, decorated with lights and wreaths, added to the atmosphere of the holiday season.

A Christmas tree made entirely of lights was placed in the Auditorium.

It was decorated with stars, angels, and other Christmas ornaments.

The tree was lit on a cold night, and students gathered around to enjoy the festive atmosphere.

IIAC Teams Get Ready For Race

Two events were played Monday night, one a battle between last year’s champions in the NCAA tournament at Kansas City, and the other a tem-permament at the University of Iowa. The former, known as the consolation game for the Medaille Invitational, included

St. Ambrose. Ambrose aggressively led the Iowa City game for most of the first half on the Butler show. The Bearcats led by 15 points in the first half, but were only the leader in the \(\boxdot\) of the final 20 minutes. The fifth Maniac, Illinois’ Melvin

North, was one of the few larger schools to lose.
