SIU Student Housing Analyzed

The Southern Illinois University (SIU) student housing situation is a complex issue that involves various factors. This report delves into the conditions of student housing at SIU, including the living conditions, student satisfaction, and potential improvements. The report highlights the challenges faced by students and suggests solutions to improve the housing situation at SIU.

Greek Houses Old, Dangerous

The Greek houses on the SIU campus are becoming increasingly old, and the living conditions inside them are becoming more dangerous. The report mentions that the Greek houses lack basic safety features and have not been updated for many years. The living conditions inside these houses are alarming, and there is a need for immediate action to ensure the safety and well-being of the students.

Men's Residence Halls Termed "Poor Fair"

The men's residence halls on the SIU campus are termed "poor fair" by many students. The report highlights the poor living conditions, lack of basic amenities, and the need for improvement in these halls. The students have expressed their concerns about the living conditions and have called for action to improve the situation.

Second Variety Show Appearance For Ray

Ray, a well-known performer, will be appearing in the Second Variety Show on the SIU campus. The report highlights the importance of the variety show in providing entertainment for the students and promoting cultural diversity. Ray's appearance in the show is expected to be well-received by the students.

Don Hargus To Edit '56obelisk

Don Hargus, who is a well-known editor, has been named to edit the '56obelisk, the official yearbook of the SIU campus. The report highlights the importance of the yearbook in providing a record of the students' experiences and achievements. Hargus's appointment is expected to ensure the quality and excellence of the yearbook.

Student Council Eliminates Campus Party Name System

The Student Council has voted to eliminate the campus party name system. The report highlights the reasons behind this decision, including the need for a more inclusive and diverse environment on campus. The elimination of the party name system is expected to promote a more positive and inclusive atmosphere on campus.

Twenty-Three Acts In Xi Variety Show

This year's Xi Variety Show will feature twenty-three acts, including dance, music, and theater. The report highlights the creative and talented students involved in producing the show. The show is expected to be a highlight of the school year and a popular event on campus.
New Political Move

The Student Council's decision to outline the petty nature of campus politics in the face of a larger student political movement. For the past several weeks, the student's at SIU have been affiliated with either the Greek or PA groups, which have dominated the campus. The Greeks and PA have been seen as fighting each other in the same way that private political cliques fight each other for the SIU students.
