Mayer To Represent 50 Tri-Sig Chapters At National Meet

Aughey Mayer, a freshman from St. Louis, will be initiated into the Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority during the national convention at Chicago this week. Each chapter of the Tri Sigma sorority—about 50 chapters in the U. S.—delegates one pledge as a candidate for the convention initiation. This is the first year that a pledge has ever been initiated at a national meet. Then a national committee selected one of those for the honor of being initiated by the national committee.

Tri Sigma's triennial convention will be held at the Edgewater Beach hotel June 24-28. During these five days there will be business meetings and discussion periods, luncheons, formal dinners, and an Alumni Day. Two highlights of the convention will be dancing to a big name band on the beach walk, and a moonlight cruise on Lake Michigan.

At each convention meeting of different chapter of the sorority serve as hostesses. This year the honor and duty is awarded to Alphi Nu chapter of Southern. Girls from here attending are Andrea and Janet Meyer, Jeanene Palmer, St. Louis; Phyllis Wolfe, Belle ville; Janice Robbins, Fairfield; Jeanne Webb, Elwood; Jo Parked Rush, Metropolitan, Rossie Knight, R. A. Rondo, Texas; Sharon Womack, Du Quoin; Marilyn Meier, Kimmundy; Judy Gurley, Anna; Renette McCarty, Murphyboro; Wanda Beadle, Jane Konye, Betty Conaster, and Betty Neighburg, all of Carbondale. Mrs. Vera Romes, student director, will also attend the convention.

TO HOLD OPEN HOUSE AT STUDENT CENTER

An Open House for Southern's Student Center will be held Wednesday, June 28. It was announced today by Miss Lois Evans, who is in charge of the Student Center.

The Center, located in the new building of Southern Illinois University at 7:30 a.m. to 10 p.m. daily from 7:30 a.m. to 10 p.m. daily.

Southern Illinois University's new training school lacks a name. Student groups and individuals on campus are asked to remedy this situation by sending their suggestions, as soon as possible, to President Delyte W. Morris' office, according to Dr. Charles D. Tenney, administrative assistant to the president.

Letters, asking for suggestions, have been written to the alumni association and several organizations in Southern Illinois. Their suggestions, along with the ones received from individuals and groups on campus, will be turned over to the Board of Trustees. They will study the suggestions and decide on a name for the new building.

Although at present the new training school is still under construction, the university hopes to have it partially ready for the fall term. They are working toward September 1 as the date for occupancy.
Greece Poet-Stricken, But Keeps Strong Spirit

[Editor's note: Egyptian foreign correspondent John (Cary) Anastaplo is currently touring Greece. Anastaplo, who has several relatives in Greece, in the following colorful article depicts Greece, its people, and their attitude toward the Truman Doctrine.]

By JOHN ANASTAPLO

CORFU, GREECE—Tomorrow we leave this small war-devastated island situated in the Ionian Sea some 250 miles from Athens.

Corfu is an extreme example of war-instituted poverty, destruction, depression and inhumanism. On the trip of enthusiasm one sees here is the humbling of an American import, Saint Caryn. Carmel, faith is quite the finest. It is the only American song I've heard here which doesn't seem an anachronism indeed which fails to bring it forth.

On the darker side of the picture, there is the destruction and filth which the war with the Germans and Italians has inflicted on the country and the people against the hated, blood-line Greeks.

Praises "Greek Spirit" The war-bombed tenements and business structures are a lesson in tenacity to the hardships, privation, and worse which were experienced by the populace last month now. One thing is evident enough: the Valiant Greek spirit—which is highly contagious, and the sincere manner in which the Greeks helped their Greek immigrants to the illustrious Hellen. Compared to Portugal and France, the Greeks, who accept this pettiness, this area is relatively a haven.

The Greek people, to be blunt about it, are just too proud. They will not stoop to such machinations and display those entitled feelings. The average Greek is as fine a citizen as we find in those two countries. It's something which is encouraging and a portent of what a new generation in Greece will be like.

Out of these 140,000 inhabitants on the island as a whole: 50,000 are a bare sustenance with their world-famous olive trees. This area literally abounds in olive trees—the source of most of America's high-grade European olive oil.

In the city, with about 35,000 people, the small dirt streets are bordered with small holes in the walls—everything from shoeshine parlors (which are in the vast majority) to the Greek cafes.

Average Wage The average wage earnings here as on the mainland is $1.75 at the present rate of exchange. Many laborers for considerably less. The Greek currency has castigated to an astronomical level. The American dollar now can be converted into 15,000 drachmas. Just two years ago, during the bitter civil war in Athens, one could pick up on the streets Greek drachmas by the score. They had depreciated to such a low value that they were almost worthless.

Today the situation is highly promising. The people I've talked to are content and prosperous. They are grateful for the work they've done in Greece by the American dollar. They are grateful for the improvements undertaken by the American in the Truman Doctrine.

This week was the fourth year of the Truman Doctrine aid to Greece and Turkey, and it was hailed by Radio Athens with all the fatuety of a million-dollar Goldwyn movie premiere. Truman, as I've said before, is the Grecian "Man of the Century."

The hen-pecked U. S. brought to Corfu. See where that feller said the trigger, before, is the Grecian via campus mail: grateful for the improvements undone that he must be a man because his wife species whether he was a man or a mouse. He is predate it if letters are brief.

Vaccination If you're thinking about taking a vacation as soon as summer school is over, why not turn to page four and read about the vacation tours to Mexico being offered by Southern this year.

Considering the long distance, the prices are not unreasonable and both trips should be enjoyable. One of the tours offers five hours credit while the other one is a shorter one with no academic credit.

Those deciding to go on either of the tours should make arrangements with the offices in charge of the trips this month.

Wanted to wager any bets? Is the Carbondale monsoon season over or just taking time out? Maybe the weather is as tired as we are.

Reporters Welcome Some persons seem to have the idea that working on the Egyptian is limited to journalism majors and minors. This is not the case.

Any student (including school teachers) interested in journalistic training is eligible to join the Egyptian stuff. Those wanting to write for the Egyptian should contact one of the editors at the Egyptian office, phone exten­sion 266, Monday or Tuesday afternoon.

We asked a member of the hen-pecked species whether he was a man or a mouse. He said that he must be a man because his wife is afraid of mice.

Letters To The Editor In addition to reporters, letters to the editor also are welcomed. Those writing letters should either drop them in the "Letters to the Editor" box in the crosshalls of Old Main or mail them to the editor, care of the Egyptian via campus mail.

Because of space limitations, we would appreciate it if letters are brief.

See where that feller said shooting his wife was an accident. Seems she stepped in front of his mother-in-law just as he pulled the trigger.
Vandeeveer Urges Grads To Support Southern

Morris Makes Charge To 1950 Graduates

The following is the charge to the 1950 graduates written by President Delyse W. Morris for this year's graduation exercises:

"I charge you to live up to the best that is within you; to harbor well the precious proceeds of the education you have thus far received; to hold always to basic virtues to keep your mind open ever to new learning; to be tolerant and not bigoted; to be kind and not vicious; to be generous and not selfish.

"I charge you to join firmly and hold truly to that ever-increasing group of truly educated persons who seek to push backward the barriers of man's ignorance, to heal the wounds of man's prejudices, to add to the sum of goodness, to seek the blessings of divine wisdom.

"I charge you to betray not the trust now placed in you; to confound not truth with skill; to learn with wisdom; to cleaveness with intelligence, gladness and understanding; to speedily with deliberation; to brightness with depth; to still the pride with principle. Let not your education be like a thin silver-plating over base metal which wears away and is forgotten, but let it sink to the center of your being to give always to you its sterling worth.

"In the words of Polonius to his son:

"Thou ownsthee true and it follows as the day the night thou shouldst not then be false to any man."

Ainad Shrine Circus To Give Performances

At SIU June 27-28-29

Ainad's Great Shrine circus, produced under the direction of Tom Packs of St. Louis, will give performances at McAndrew stadium at Southern June 27-28-29.

The circus, one of the largest in the country, appears annually in New York, St. Louis, Pittsburgh, New Orleans, Toronto, Montreal, and other large cities.

The visit to Carbondale will be under the auspices of Ainad Temple of East St. Louis and will be one of the stopping points of the circus when touring Southern Illinois this summer.

Previous performances already have been given at Fairfield, Olney, Salem, and Harrisburg.

West Frankfort Tonight

The circus will be in West Frankfort tonight and tomorrow. Clowns will visit Carbondale at 9:30 tomorrow night as foremen to advertise the circus.

The circus program for next week includes such spangled royalty as Alida, the Star of the Moon, who uses a twin-motorized fireworks belching airplane as part of her parachute stunt, while performing on a rotating 80-foot tower; Torrence, the Viennese Sky King, whose forte is shudder-combustion stunts on a swaying whip. Also appearing will be the Himalayan bears, and Captain William Heyer, America's distinguished equestrian in an exhibition of the Viennese and Spanish type of single and tandem high-school dressage riding.

The show, scheduled to run for two and one-half hours, will have every conceivable type of act, and one of the greatest firework displays seen in these parts will terminate each performance throughout the Southern Illinois Shrine tour.

Mr. Mallett concluded.

Filling Out Long strings of cards was only one of several tasks confronting those requiring for the summer term. The long line in the back of the picture is the line for education courses.

The Egyptian
Geography Dept.
To Offer Field Tour of Mexico
A field course tour of Mexico is being offered at the close of the summer term by the extension department in cooperation with the department of geography and geology of Southern.

The group will leave Carbondale August 6, and will return August 29 after covering approximately 5,000 miles. The group will go as far south as Salina Cruz on the Pacific which is about 500 miles south of Mexico City. Five quarter hours of extension credit will be given to those who complete the course. Ample time will be allowed for recreation and individual sight seeing. The course is open to juniors, seniors, and graduate students.

The group will study the agricultural and industrial geography of Mexico, the transportation system, and studies will be made of climatic conditions and soil. Sugar plantations and industrial plants will be visited and studied.

Those wishing to take the trip who are not enrolled in summer school will be required to come to Southern Monday, July 31, to participate in a week of intensive study of Mexico. Two lectures or reports will be given each day, and the study should give each person a good background for the trip.

The course will cost $155, which includes bus transportation, lodging, tuition, study material, and insurance. Meals are to be secured at individual expense.

Those interested in the course should contact Floyd F. Cunningham, chairman of the department of geography and geology.

Students May Apply For PTA Scholarship
Those wishing to apply for the Parent Teachers Association $200 scholarship should apply for the scholarship in the Dean of Women's office, Dean of Women Miss Helen A. Shuman announced today.

The scholarship will be awarded at the beginning of the school year. Miss Shuman said the scholarship is awarded on the basis of "sterling character, high scholastic standing, good health, need of financial aid, and a graduate of a high school having a PTA organization. Also the student must signify an intention to teach.

The award is usually made to some student, either male or female, who has made an unusual record during his freshman year.

REGISTRAR'S OFFICE WARNS AUGUST GRADS
Students who plan to graduate in August should apply for graduation in the Registrar's office by the end of the week. It was announced today.

A list will be posted in the hall of the Science building and all seniors planning to be graduated should check the list and report any corrections in the Registrar's office.

SEVERAL THOUSAND parents, students, and friends attended graduation exercises held in McAndrew stadium—SIU's first outdoor graduation. The speaker's platform can be seen in the background.

Southern To Offer Two-Week Tour of Mexico This Summer
The university has dreamed up just the thing to enable students and faculty to visit a foreign land.

For two weeks at the close of the summer term (Aug. 6 to 19), one can immerse himself in the guise of bright, colorful Mexico, browse among its silver and other native craft shops, and soak up its history and culture.

One can make new friends among fellow tourists and benefit from the experienced guidance of a tour leader from a reputable travel company. There will be a university chaperone along so that students' parents may feel safe in letting them go alone or with other students.

This trip is not to be confused with the month-long trip sponsored by the geography department, also in August, which may be taken for credit. This trip gives no credit, but is open to all faculty members, students, employees, and alumni of the university, and to the families and sponsored friends of individuals in the four above-mentioned categories. It is designed for those who do not wish to spend a long vacation or who do not wish to attend a university credit course.

Tour costs per person are: for four to a room—$165.00; two to a room—$330.00; and to a room alone—$435.00. This does not include meals between Carbondale and Mexico City (both ways), the $3.00 Mexican Tourist Permit, local taxes where assessed, or personal items.

Interested persons should see Mrs. Olive Webb in the President's office for additional information. Applications and deposits of $10 per person must be made by July 15.

JOURNALISM DEPT. GETS GIFT OF 36 MAGAZINES
Mrs. Will Griffith, wife of the late Will Griffith, former editor of the "Egyptian Key," recently presented a gift to the journalism department. The gift consisted of 36 copies of the "The Editor," a journal of information for publications. The copies are dated from 1920 to 1922.

Alexander Graham Bell, inventor of the telephone, was a teacher of the deaf. Through his teaching he became interested in the sound of the human voice and the possibilities of sending sound across a distance.

75 Choral Directors Attend Clinic Here
More than 75 choral directors from Southern Illinois public schools participated in a choral materials clinic held here on campus Tuesday.

The purpose of the clinic was to introduce some of the newer choirs to the university on July 27 for directors of church choirs.
Campus Cop
Turner Describes Policing Job

There is one organization on the campus that is rarely heard about. This organization is the Campus Police Force, a small group of men who go about their work day after day unnoticed by the majority of students who naturally just take them for granted.

Mr. Leonard Turner is one of the five regular men on the police force. He has been with the force for almost two and one-half years, which is the longest time any member has worked on the force, with the exception of the chief, Mr. Thompson.

Until 1945 Turner had been employed in a plant in Detroit. In 1945 he returned to his farm where he is living now, two and half miles southwest of Carbondale. Turner likes the job of "campus cop" very well. During the time he has been here he has never witnessed any serious accidents or deaths. He said that one of the funniest incidents he can remember is the time he frightened window shoppers at Anthony Hall.

The police force consists of five regular men and five students who work only part time. The force is on twenty-four hour duty for seven days a week and the men work shifts. From 11:45 until 12:00 noon is the busiest time of the day for the force. The busiest place is the highway crossing in front of the Carbondale Stadium.

Besides policing the crossings, which is the major duty of the "campus cops," they regulate the parking of cars on the campus, take the mail to the library, turn on the lights on campus, lock all doors at night and open all class rooms and buildings in the morning.

"Usually the only trouble we have with students is the disregard for parking rules and driving too fast on the campus," Turner says. When we asked about the cooperation of students, he smiled and said, "We can always count on the majority of students to follow the rules."

"The greatest trouble we have is with the motorcycles. We have about five of them parked in the Canteen."

SiU Draws Up Plans For Disaster Control

A plan of action, to be followed on campus in event of a large-scale disaster such as fire or tornado, has been developed by a university committee.

Copies of the plan have been sent to all faculty members as well as to persons directly concerned with the plan.

It is the hope of the disaster committee that these plans will be kept readily accessible. Anyone desiring a copy of the plan may obtain one at the student health service. The campus plan is coordinated with area plans.

In case of disaster on campus the first person to discover it shall make it his responsibility to notify the authorities exactly as follows:

Start Phoning
1. Notify the university switchboard operator by the nearest telephone giving the nature of the disaster and the apparent extent.
2. If telephones are not working, try another number.
