If you've never tried to fishing during a driving rain, don't feel too bad if you're tossed around as you are being caught tail by tail. Wet feet, shoes, and cold rain make the business of catching fish a little less attractive.

When we left town at 2 p.m. on Saturday, we thought we were going to enjoy a fishing trip, but we never went the same afternoon. Hard winds and a cold rain made the fishing even less appealing. We returned during the night, the ball was gone and we were disappointed.

Goss Shares Title

With Williams for Most Valuable

Charlie Goss, mover from Marion, Missouri, to Washington, N. D. Center, fielded the Ball for the Winnebago Indians, with a winning record of 11-3. The Indians scored a high of 20 runs over the season.
