Liking People, Loving To Talk

"You Can't Use Closed-Door Policy & Be Popular"

By Pat Toner

"To the people you like, you are a closed-door policy."

"To the people you don't like, you are a closed-door policy."

"You must be a closed-door policy."

When you're talking, you must be talking to the people you don't like.

"You must be a closed-door policy."

"To the people you like, you are a closed-door policy."

"To the people you don't like, you are a closed-door policy."

"You must be a closed-door policy."

When you're talking, you must be talking to the people you don't like.

"You must be a closed-door policy."

"To the people you like, you are a closed-door policy."

Eastern Next!  For Baseballers

A Wonderful Slant on smoking! You'll find it in the Droodies below, titled: "Taster enjoying better-tasting Lucky Strike while leaning against tower of Pino. If your own inclination is toward better taste, join the many college smokers who prefer Luckies. From any angle, Luckies taste better. They taste better, first of all, because Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then that tobacco is toasted to taste better. "Pixxa" -the famous Lucky Strike process- turns up Luckies light, good-tasting tobacco to make it taste even better. Little wonder that Luckies tower above all other brands in college popularity!

Better taste Luckies... Luckies TASTE BETTER CLEANER, FRESHER, SMOOTHER!

Intramurals

By Jerry Rohanick

A triple play, an instant steal, a crooked play and nine home runs are only some of the highlights of the intramural sports which were estimated to be the largest in the St. Louis area. In the first game, played on the Fair Grounds Race Track, St. Louis University's baseball team defeated the St. Louis University Catholic team 17-10. The team defeated the Catholic team 17-10.
