Music Music Music

The large music department in Southern's history will soon make history in McFarland Stadium. The department is proud to announce that the first quarter of the semester is over, and we are looking forward to the next quarter. The department will be holding auditions for the Spring Festival, and we encourage all interested students to attend.

Gryer Receives First Place in Photo Contest

Case Gryer, past editor of the Egyptian and senior journalism major from Carbondale, Ill., has been named the winner of the first place in the University division of the national photo contest sponsored by the Associated Press. Gryer's picture entitled "Coral Reefs" was selected for its "visual power and impact." Gryer's picture was taken in the Galapagos Islands and published in the AP's "Eye on the World" column.

Millionaires: do your friends yell at yuppies? Do they think diamonds are dreary? Here's a present that will make even a banker hanker: introduce him to Luckies! While you're at it, be a sport: give him a new Lucky. Lucky is all cigarette . . . nothing but fine tobacco - mild, good-tasting tobacco that's TOASTED to taste even better. Invest in a cigarette that's TOASTED. Lucky is the best-tasting cigarette you've never smoked!

SALUTES STILL in Title Race

Twin-Bill Here Today

Still in the dock of the IAC baseball race, Southern's Salutes have a chance to grab the weak lead in the league with a doubleheader today. They are scheduled to meet the Tigers for an 1:30 p.m. start and again at 7:30 p.m. tonight.

The series is not a long one, but the present number of games will probably be increased to 15 or more before the finish line is reached. The reason is easy, the boys may be allowed to play their "home" today.

Cinderella Loss; Headed Toward Winless Season

Doc Livingston's pressure package, "he's a man of a man," is an all but a sure thing. The Salutes dropped their fourth in a row last night at the hands of the Cape Cod Continentals, 7-3 in five innings.

The loss took from front Cape, will meet IV Normal even this Wednesday and will be another game to win Eastern III, in its first final of the year. Monday night at Midtown Stadium.
