COUNTY SUPERINTENDENTS URGE THE CONTINUANCE OF RURAL PRACTICE

LETTER TO PRES. SHRYOCK AND DR. MERWIN IS REQUEST

The following letter was received by President H. W. Shryock and Dr. B. W. Merwin regarding the interest who is interested whom the college has assumed toward rural practice teaching.

Gentlemen:

We, the undersigned, County Superintendents of Schools of Southern Illinois, wish to express our appreciation of the course in rural practice teaching which you have been offering, and we wish a continuation of the work.

We have observed that the course in rural practice teaching has been very helpful to the beginning teachers in our respective counties. Under the new certifying laws an ever increasing number of junior college graduates have been licensed to teach in the rural schools, and they should have some special preparation for this work.

We urge, therefore, that you require all sophomores, especially those who may accept work in country schools, to take rural practice teaching. It will be found easier to secure employment for those who do. And that course may be continued, you may be sure that we will cooperate with you in every way possible.

Practice Instructors Report Activities

Members of S. I. N. U. faculty who were studying at Chicago University and at Columbia University this summer were pleased to find among the first references given for English courses, the book written by Mr. W. A. Turn, superintendent of the Allying Building.

Mr. Merwin reports that over 300 students have applied for practice in the grade and high school for the winter term.

Mr. Cox and Dr. Merwin recently returned to the Cahokia Mounds, in the capacity of Archeological consultants to meet W. M. Sterling of the Smithsonian Institute. During the past year Mr. Cox and Dr. Merwin have been carrying on archeological investigation in Southern Illinois and they will continue this through the coming year.

Y.W.C.A. Organizes a Book Exchange

The Y. W. C. A. has organized a Book Exchange for the services of the students. The books should be brought to the bookstore, which is on the third floor of the new Chemistry building, and left there after filling out, at the front desk, a card for the book. The books are sold for 10 cents each, and the money will be turned into the business office and Mr. Mills will write out all the checks. A small number of books must be in the bookstore at the first week of the winter term. Those who bring books which have not been sold may call for them now or may leave them at the business office.

The officers of the Y. W. C. A. are:

President, Helen Crisp.
Vice President, Alice Strachman.
Secretary, Treasurer, Ruth Stevenson.

Mr. E. N. U. have lauded the work of Mr. Friedline's works were used in the first meeting, and left there after filling out, at the front desk, a card for the bookstore.

Fifteen High Schools Represented at U. H.

Although the college students hear a great many announcements concerning it, most of them know very little about the University High School. There are 115 students in all, 18 freshmen, 32 sophomores, 27 juniors, and 38 seniors. Strangely enough, the largest part of these students do not live in Carbondale, but come here from three-year high schools in various towns around here. The University High is, of course, maintained mainly for practicing teaching for college students.

Professor F. G. Warren is the superintendent of the University High. Other members of the faculty are Miss Wells, Miss Francis, Miss Gibson, Mr. Combs, Mr. Schroeder and Mr. Wright.

Although the high school is not of sufficient size to maintain a football team, it enthusiastically supports the varsity during the fall term. In the winter, however, the University High basketball team shows up quite creditably in the Egyptian Conference.

The high school students were extraordinarily active in college activities last year. They produced a clever one-act play at chapel one morning and also conducted a popularity contest. Both events were very successful. They are planning to carry out more such activities this year.

The different classes will meet to organize and elect officers this week. An unusual feature of the University High School is the fact that students from many high schools, usually three-year schools, complete their work here. This year, representatives of fifteen high schools have registered, making a unique record for such a small high school. As soon as the "ice is broken" and the students become acquainted with each other, they will hold a series of parties and entertainments. The schools represented are Makanda, Carbondale Community, Benton, Flad, Buckner, Burnt Prairie, Noodle, Texas, Herrin, Cypress, West Franklin, Douglas, Forest, Brookport, Reyalton, and Carterville.

JULIA JONAH SPONSORS DRAMATIC SOCIETY

Strut and Fret, the dramatic organization on the campus, held its first meeting last Thursday evening in the Strut and Fret hall. Lee Brown, president last year, presided. Impromptu skits were the order of the evening, among which were Romeo and Juliet, Quick Henry, the Filt, and the Automobile Ride. The new freshman members showed talent, participating in this entertainment.

Miss Jonah, faculty sponsor, gave a brief talk explaining the purpose of the club. At the meeting next Thursday evening, officers will be elected.

Lena Van Hoovenah had as her guest Friday, her father, Mr. Dalph Van Hoovenah of Swansea.

Of all the means of anguish emanating from the different sections of the campus the majority seem to originate in the rhetoric class room. It has been said, "not wisely but too well, that "Rhetoric is the Waterloo of the freshman." Judging from the signals of distress that upper classmen see and hear both on and off campus, this must be a decided truth. Freshmen girls are impossible to date now. Freshman boys cannot be persuaded to indulge in a game of pool, attend a dance, or what have you. What is this atrocious consumer of time that keeps these poor freshmen indoors engaged in feverish study? If the question be put to them, 99.4% of them will feebly reply: "Rhetoric."

Ah, indeed! Rhetoric! The freshman's burden, the past horror of upper classmen. But why, you ask, do freshmen fear the age-old subject? Is it because of heavy, inconsistent assignments? Can it be because there is a superfluity of examinations? Is the subject too complicated for freshman minds? To all these queries we have but one answer, and as it can't be "yes" it of necessity must be "no."

It is true that we have not yet discovered the reason for freshman groans at the very mention of the word rhetoric, but surely the mystery can be solved. Aho! (And other exclamations of gusts.) I perceive a freshman on yonder step who is staggering under the weight of a rhetoric book. I shall interview him and endeavor to delve to the depth of this riddle. "Oh, I say, Frosh, hold up a minute. I wish to converse a moment with you."

"Oh, yeah? Well, make it snappy."

"Oke! I merely want to ask you why freshmen detest rhetoric?"

"Ah! That's an easy one. We freshmen seek aid in untangling comma-splices, run-on sentences, and all the other myriads of things (not understandable) from the upper classmen who have had rhetoric. They invariably must forfeit their sophistication over us lowly freshmen, for they already know about rhetoric than we do. We spend all our time studying the subject, so that we won't lose our sophistication, yet for all our study, we fail to retain a thing."

"But why the moans in the classrooms, Frosh?"

"Oh, that's just the prof howling when one of us tell him that the reason a word is capitalized is because it's a verb, when every one knows it's because it's a pronoun. So long."

The inelegibility list has been suspended until further notice.
We ask that this system not be abolished because during its short life it has served S. I. N. U. well. It is but fair to the students that those who rate the inelegibility list be excused from campus activities. Fear of exclusion from campus activities was an incentive to many students last year.
True enough, college men and women should have no incentive to go on with their work, but the existing facts are that there are many in S. I. N. U. who are still boys and girls, and who really need something like an inelegibility list to work against. Their efforts to keep above the 2.75 average will raise the scholar average and will make better material for athletic teams, and logically, the same principle will hold in any organization.

WE'LL DO IT
Organization of a Greek letter club for journalists of the college is being planned by members of the Egyptian staff. The club, suggested as a means of promoting enterprise on the part of the college, will be open to those working steadily on the paper. Only those members of the staff who are essential to the success of the publication will be allowed to become members. A similar organization has been tried at De Kalb Normal and found to be very successful. If present plans materialize, it is planned to have the club meet one evening each week to discuss journalistic problems and to receive valuable lectures from members of the college faculty.
It is intended as a fraternity but is open rather to both men and women interested in furthering their journalistic careers. The absence of a course in journalism and the limited curriculum of the curriculum in hopes to be neutralized by the addition of this club to the campus.

ANOTHER CHANGE
The Egyptian has always favored changes that are for the betterment of S. I. N. U. The time has come when we believe that another change should be made.
Our steadily increasing enrollment each year is rendering the present system of faculty advisers inadequate to fulfill the needs of a large student body. Other colleges and universities have instituted better systems which, in comparison to ours, makes our present system obsolete. In other schools students choose their advisers from the department in which they are majoring. In that way, they confer with someone who is in a better position to advise them in their choice of courses.
Under our present system, it is impossible for the faculty advisers to handle such groups of students and arrange the right kind of work for each of them. As a result, many candidates for graduation must pay for an error by spending extra time in scholastic completion of the necessary work required.
In consideration of the existing facts, we believe that it would be of benefit to the students and to the faculty advisers for S. I. N. U. to adopt the change suggested. Other colleges and universities have been operating under this plan most successfully, and we are certain it would serve S. I. N. U. more effectively than our present system.

Credibly yours,

Dear Sphinx:
I should like the advice of thy limilla knowledge. You are the only one who can help. She is a junior and the head monitor of the junior section. How should I get introduced to her? I want a date with her so badly that I would even take a D from this term's French for one. If you can aid me in this adventure, I promise to bring you a "coke" on my next trip across the Sahara.
Thanking you in advance, I am,

My dear puzzled Sophomore:
Please don't go to any extremes! A D in French is a D in French and a date with a girl, why—merely a date with a girl. My dear friend, have a confession to make—the subject of your never-slower silent admiration is really Joan Crawford in disguise. Now you can see how hopeless it is, I had to tell you for your own good, not for the good of the school. You shall not get that D, and by the way when do I get the "coke"?
Yours confidentially,
The Sphinx.

MAROONS RECEIVE FIRST NIGHT WORK UNDER BEACONS LAST FRIDAY

HOUR SPENT IN GETTING PREPARED FOR SCOTT FIELD AVIATORS

On Friday night the Maroons were given their first workout of the year under the glare of the floodlights. The practice sessions were in the form of a hard scrimmage for the first four teams, A, B, C, and D. The A team consisted of Captains Canada at center, Robertson and Watson, guards; Stiny and Brown, tackles; Swafford and Stephena, ends; Martin and Willis, halfbacks; Lauter, quarter, and Capt. Patton at full, was pitted against the C team.

The boys were given a hour’s hard work with the A team pushing the ball across the goal line on three occasions. Martin again looks good, as do Patton, Willis and Lauter, but their backs are no means permanent, as Coach McAndrew has several performers in Davidson, McGowan, Holder, Wimberly and Luts who will be able to step right in if they are needed. Pat Patterson of Harrisburg, and on C team has been working hard and showing Friday night improved Coaches McAndrew and Lingle very much at Red McGowan, beginning to show some of his old dash of high school days and Wimberly and Luts who give promise of staying in where they left off in high school.

The B team in an hour’s scrimmage against D team scored a couple of times while holding the D team scoreless. Davidson, McGowan, Holbb, and Wimberly in one instance, McGowan joining in the call, and if those boys were larger and had their present speed, in a combination they would make. Coach McAndrew was well satisfied with the first scrimmage, and although some weak spots will have to be worked out, the Maroons will be ready for the kickoff on Friday night.

John Chapman

John Chapman, a senior, has been appointed athletic manager of S. I. N. U. for the college year. This position comes following active work in athletic work during last year's brilliant season. In 1930 Chapman held the position of manager for track and football, and assistant manager for basketball. This year he will hold the managerial role in all major sports.

CHAPMAN

Chapman is very deserving of the responsibility which is his for the year. In his past work he has shown characteristics which command him well for the job.

Few realize how replete with duties such a position is. Details of the various teams and individuals must be attended to by the manager. He must see to publicity, take charge of uniform cleaning and cover tickets at sales. Beyond these things he has minor duties which, with those just mentioned, require a major portion of the student manager's time.

MAROONS AND SCOTT FIELD AVIATORS TO MEET FRIDAY ON COLLEGE FIELD

Coach McAndrew offers probable lineup for Friday

The football curtain will be raised on Friday night when the Southern Teachers tackle the Scott Field Aviators on College Field at 7:30 p.m. Last year the Maroons roughshod over the Aviators, defeating them 32-0, but hope to get outside the middle of the season, and the victory was won by the greatest Maroon team ever to represent S. I. N. U. on the gridiron.

Not much is known about the Aviators as yet, but the Flyes are usually formidable and are counted on to give a good account of themselves. Mac will probably get B, C, and D on hand for this last season.

This game was scheduled as one of the original openers with East Carrollton, Coach McAndrew looks to the Scott Field Aviators to present brilliant if not organized line-up. Last individuality marked a "Maroons" performance. In a stretch of Aviators had one of the best field runners seen on the college gridiron.
