WAR SHORTENING POINTS

BRING REPERCUSSION

President Roosevelt's Five Points for the coming war have brought about radical changes in the attitude of public opinion. The President's policy is being followed by every state, and even by some of the Dominion's provinces. Dark states are preparing to enter the war.

THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNIVERSITY

By Their Insigina

You Shall Know Them

NEW ORLEANS, La. - The coming election of the Louisiana president will be merely to confirm the freedom of the people's will, and will make the whole world sit up and take notice of one of the most im portant political decisions this country has ever witnessed.

There has always been a great debate about the qualifications of the candi dates for the office of president of the University, and in this election, it is expected that the candidates will not only be able to make a good case for themselves, but will be able to give a good account of themselves as well.

The election will take place on Friday and Saturday, and will be held in public places. The candidates will be as fol ows:

1. William B. Palmer, the present presi dent of the University.

2. John D. Doe, a retired judge.

3. James M. Smith, a journalist.

4. Charles E. Brown, a professor of law.

The election will be held at 10 a.m.
and 7 p.m. on each day.
