FACULTY MEMBERS ARE ENTERTAINED AT ANNUAL PARTY

Entertainment provided by members of the College of Arts and Sciences will lighted the annual faculty dinner Saturday night at the Southern Illinois University. The program was sponsored by the faculty club of the College of Arts and Sciences and was attended by faculty members from all departments.

The theme of the evening was "Contemporary Dance," and performances included a ballet by the dancers of the College of Arts and Sciences, a modern dance by the students of the College of Education, and a jazz dance by the students of the College of Business Administration.

UNIVERSITY LIBRARY FACULTY MEMBERS ATTEND MEETING

The annual meeting of the University Library Faculty was held on Thursday, January 29, at the University Library. The meeting was attended by faculty members from all departments of the university.

The meeting was called to order by the chairman, Dr. Charles E. Landis, who welcomed the faculty members to the meeting. He then introduced the first speaker, Dr. David M. Bacon, who presented a report on the progress of the library program during the past year.

The report covered the growth of the library collection, the expansion of the library facilities, and the improvement of library services. Dr. Bacon also discussed the future plans for the library program, including the establishment of a new library building.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:00 p.m.

FORTY ATTEND ART MEET HERE

Artists from all over the country and from several foreign countries were present at the first annual art exhibition held here. The exhibition was sponsored by the students of the College of Arts and Sciences and was attended by members of the faculty and staff of the university.

The exhibition featured works of art in a variety of media, including paintings, sculpture, photography, and mixed media. The artists were invited to submit their work, and the selection process was based on the quality and originality of the work.

The exhibition was held in the main auditorium of the university, and it was open to the public. The exhibition was a great success, and it was attended by hundreds of people.

SOUTHERN'S KINESIOLOGY SKELETON

Southern's Kinesthesiology Department introduced its newest addition, a life-size skeleton of a human being, to the faculty and students.

The skeleton is a replica of a human being and is used for educational purposes. It is designed to help students learn about the anatomy of the human body and the functions of its various parts.

The skeleton is on display in the main auditorium of the university, and it is open to the public. The faculty and students are encouraged to visit the exhibition and learn more about the anatomy of the human body.

The Southern Illinois University Maroons maintained their first place standing in the Illinois intercollegiate Athletic Conference Saturday night by overpowering the Western Illinois Leathernecks 75 to 68. It was the third consecutive win for the Leathernecks without a defeat and it also was their thirteenth victory of the season with only two losses.

The game started slowly with both teams apparently "feeling each other out." Ollie Stouffer put Southern ahead 2 to 0 with a charity shot in the first minute of play, but a book kept Southern's leading center, Mike Kinninconnected on two free throws at the ten minute mark to give Coach Daniel a 4 to 2 lead. Southern's charges a margin that they maintained throughout the game. With Stouffer and the center being scored, the Maroons compiled a ten point advantage at the fifteen minute mark and increased it to 12 points with half time advantage.

The second period found both teams surging for the win with Stouffer and the center scoring 10 points to put Southern ahead 56 to 48 at half time. The Leathernecks, who concentrated an hour later, were outscored at the three point mark, but regained the lead at the eight point mark.

The game was interrupted by an abundance of whistles being blown after 11 minutes of play. Two players from Southern left the floor via the front door.

The Leathernecks scored 28 points with 23 points followed by Stouffer with 16.
