Today's Egyptian

Published for the first time at the SIU Printing Service on an offset press, came with a whisker of not being published at all.

For years neither rain, snow, depression, war or sickness prevented our regular appearance. But Wednesday a typographer's strike at the Southern Illinoisan, which bound by a contract has printed the Egyptian for the past four decades, necessitated finding another publisher of champion.

Phone Calls Fail
The types and about a dozen phone calls to area newspapers failed to solve the problem. Efforts to find a substitute Printing Service, managed by Howard Pepple, agreed to run out this tabloid-type paper. Until the strike by Local 527 of the International Typographical Union is ended, we hope they will continue to do so.

Problems Ahead
Several transition problems were involved in going from an eight to a four-column, full-sized to tabloid size page. Even the method of printing was vastly different.

In the past, the Egyptian has been printed by letter press—also called relief-printing. That is, the letters printed on raised type which pick up ink and print directly on paper. Offset Method
The offset method used for this inking uses a metal plate and is based on the principle that grease and water do not mix. The plate is receptive to greasy ink wherever it is supposed to print and receptive only to water where it is supposed not to print. With the impression of the metal plate, artists with offset paste plates and water turn the impression to a water proof plate on the paper, which is why it is called offset printing.

It's still anyone's guess as to how long the Egyptian will maintain its new format.

William Dougherty, general manager of the Southern Illinoisan, commented yesterday that if he knew "when the strike would end I'd get a job of predicting."

When Gene Segin got his B.S. in Business Administration at the University of Illinois, he was in touch with 8 prospective employers.

Gene joined Illinois Bell Telephone Company because: "The people I talked to here made it very clear that I would not be shuffled into some narrow specialized job. I thought this job offered the greatest opportunity for broad experience."

On his first assignment Gene was sent to Springfield where he conducted courses in human relations for management people.

His next move was to a traffic operations job in Rock Island. On this assignment he was in charge of all personnel who are directly responsible for handling telephone calls in this heavily populated area. Here Gene earned a reputation for sound judgment and skill in working with people. He was promoted to Traffic Supervisor.

Today, Gene's chief responsibilities are in management training and development, and company-union relations. The latter includes contract bargaining and helping settle labor disputes.

How does Gene feel about his job? "It's a real challenge. I'm in some of the most vital and interesting work in the country. And about the future—'Well there aren’t any pushover jobs around here. It’s tough. But if a man has what it takes I don’t think there’s any end to the opportunity in this business.”

If you’re looking for a job with no ceiling on it—a job where you’re limited only by how much responsibility you can take and how well you can handle it—then you’ll want to visit your Placement Office for literature and additional information on the Bell Companies.

Salukis Meet Panthers Tonight; Rally Edges Broncos, 84-80

Eastern Illinois' Panthers host league-leading Southern tonight in Lantie Gymnasium in Charleston. The Salukis, who are ranked No. 3 in this week's Associated Press small college poll, aim 6-4 in the IAC conference race and 18-3 for the season. Southern will be meeting the second-place Panthers for the second time this year. Earlier this month in Carbondale, Coach Bill Bordaro's Salukis unleashed a 60-point second half to bury Eastern's quintet, 96-71.

A lineup change may be used to-night by Gallatin after Monday night's 84-80 win over Western Michigan's Broncos at Kalamazoo. In that barnburner, Saluki reserve forward Ivan Jefferies tailed 18 points.

Bardo Leading Scorer
Regular guard Harold "Sonny" Bordaro strengthened his hold on a starting berth with another fine defensive job. What was equally needed, he scored an individual high of 19 points on offense, which led all SIU scorers.

Eastern's Coach Bob Casey will probably go with the same lineup that lost to the Salukis Jan. 5. The only two returning men, senior Gary Friedrich and Garry Gary Fahl, will start at the forward positions, 6-3 Lloyd Eggers will man the center post, and Dick Carmichael and Larry Will be out for the season.

Rematch Fresh Squads
The Southern-California-Southern Illinois-Bardos' football game tonight will be a rematch between Southern's SETTINGS

Salukis track and football hopes were bolstered last week when Southern's athletic force acquired 6-4, 105-pound Ronnie Shelton. Shelton, who just completed eight years in the U.S. Air Force, is from Columbus, Ga. Ronnie runs the 440-yard dash in 47.1 seconds. He was a member of the All-Air Force World-Wide football team for two years.

Cinder accomplishments, by Bonnie, are firsts in the quarter mile dash in the 1958 and 1959 Air Force World-Wide Track Championships at Redland, Calif. and Denver, Colo., respectively. On both occasions Shelton edged Saluki thilad Jim Dupree, who was also in service at the time. Ronnie has received offers from the Baltimore Colts of the National Football League.

Shelton started working out with Coach Lew Hartzog's Saluki track team this week and is expected to get the nod from SIU grid coach Carmen Piccone next fall. Shelton, who moves well and has good hands, will probably play end for the Salukis.

Arizona State's relay team features another twin combo, the Spence twins, Mel and Mal from Jamaica.

The Styrone, who will enroll at Southern in the spring, will race against the American later in the year at the Drake Relays.

Individual entries are Dave in the 60-yard dash, brother Don in the 60-yard high hurdles and Dupree in the 600-yard dash.

World Record Holder Featured
The 60-yard dash features such foot-tasted stars as Oregon's Reeve Cook, who tied the world record in the 60-yard and 100-yard dash. He Bates and Doug Smith. The 60-yard high hurdles presents such standouts as Eastern Michigan's Harry Jones, K.C. Yang and Willie May. Yang and Yang are Olympians. Formose Yang, who attends UCLA, finished second to teammate Harry Johnson in the Olympic decathlon. May is one of the nation's promising young tracksters.

Southern's Dupree is among fast company in the 600-yard dash as the race draws the top half and quarter milers in the country.

Survey Says

New clothes, like a new man on campus, will always catch the eye of a college girl, but a recent survey by a home economics professor indicates that only about 50 percent of the wardrobe Southern freshmen collect bring to campus is new apparel.

About 70 percent of the average freshman wardrobe is made up of "carry-over" items from high school days, it is revealed by the two-year sampling carried out by Dr. Adeline M. Hoffman, professor and chairman of the clothing and textiles department in the School of Home Economics.

Dr. Hoffman obtained clothing expenditure records from 75 freshmen in the fall of 1957, then obtained further records from 59 of these same students who returned the following year as sophomore. The other 25 either dropped out of school or married and were eliminated from the study.

Yet clothing, she said, "is an important center of interest in the lives of people and taken on its greatest importance in adolescence and early adulthood. Clothing is not only a major category of expenditure but also an important area of personal satisfaction and a means of social identification."
