Thanksgiving—Lombard, Bradley and Charleston Contenders for Conference Honors

Owing to the battered and crippled condition of the S. I. N. U. team Coach Mac canceled the game to have been played last Friday with the St. Louis University freshmen on the Normal field. The St. Louis freshmen not being in the conference along with great strength of mind.

It was due to Miss Gubleman's efforts that the first Pep Club was organized here. Loyalty to the school went into battle a week ago Friday when the U. S. went into the World War. Miss Gubleman, who is intensely patriotic, gave up her position to go into the Y. W. C. A. camp work. At the close of the war she accepted a position in the Valley City, N. D. State Teachers' College of which David Allen is president. Miss Gubleman is away from her present duty this year to do some post graduate work at the University of Chicago.

Last Monday evening Misses King and Jones entertained for Miss Gubleman, having as guests those members of the faculty who were here when she was an instructor in the S. I. N. U.

During Miss Baldwin's illness, Miss Gubleman will have charge of the work of the Latin Department.

Lombard and Bradley Colleges are still racing neck and neck for the Illinois Inter collegiate conference honors. Both teams won their games fast Sunday and the outlook is that each will finish the season with a perfect record. Lombard showed their mettle when they held the strong Detroit U to a scoreless tie. Bradley thoroughly demonstrated their championship ability when they defeated the Lake Forest eleven 26-6. Bradley has up to date scored six victories, tied one game and hasn't lost a one. The Peoria eleven has scored a total of 194 points to their opponents 21.

Y. W. C. A.

On Tuesday evening at the regular hour the Y. W. C. A. held their annual Recognition Service for new members. The service was proceeded by a vocal solo by Miss Wanda Johnson which was much appreciated by the audience.

A short play, "The Spirit of Candle Light" was given by the cabinet which presented the example of the "Abbesa of the Glowing Light" one worthy to be followed by all seekers and supported by God at the third, distinguishing our order as a band of seekers after that true completeness of life which should be the aim of everyone.

THE EGYPTIAN

TO INTRODUCE YOU TO AUNT MIN

Everyone, in reading the Chicago Tribune, St. Louis Globe, or any other well known newspaper have noticed a section or part of the issue given over to certain people who help solve problems for the readers. Doctor Evan answers questions about different diseases, health protection, etc. Questions and answers as to the age and whereabouts, etc., of movie actors are to be found. Any difficulty of proper etiquette—any important questions as to how to handle, or investigate a developing romance are answered in these columns. Without doubt many and many a weary hour of worry is done away with by the wise advice given. Ask your self this question.

Whose paper is the Egyptian? It is yours—it is every subscriber's. There is always a time when you need advice along one line or another. Your paper—the Egyptian has a way of giving you the best possible advice, in anything from good etiquette down to what is the proper thing to do for a carbuncle or a fingernail. This authority specializes on love problems in its various forms. If you do not care to make your inquiries publicly connected with your name, you may avoid this by giving initials, or even a fictitious name. Write your question plainly on a piece of paper, and mail or see that it is delivered to the Egyptian office. In care of Aunt Min. Don't slight her, maybe she may win you boys a wife, you girls a husband, or still better, may advise you to do things which may cause your name to be entered on the list of famous men and women—Don't forget Aunt Min.

THE AGORA INITIATES

Last week the Agora held its regular initiation services. After the candidates received the Sixth Degree, it is a well-known fact that they feel more than ever to be first class Agorans and will undoubtedly do better work for the advancement of the order. The new members of the society are as follows:

Seniors—Robert Turner.
Juniors—Carl Smith, Clifton Bowes, John Heidman, Norman Beasley.
Sophomores—Cary Dewis, George Cherry.

The old members are:

Senior College—John Hunnaker.

Juniors—Frank Watson, Ellis Crandell, Ivan Dexter, Killy Loy, Chas. Neely, Clyde Wileoughby, Glenn Fishe.
Sophomores—Frank Hight.

The following attended the High School Conference at Urbana last week and: Mr. Muckelroy, Mr. Feats, Mr. Wham, Miss Boywer and Miss Herron.

ART APPRECIATION CLUB

The regular meeting of the Art Appreciation Club was held last Thursday evening. An interesting program was given as follows:

Music by Wanda Sneemore.
Colonial Painting, by Thelma Deck.

At the regular meeting of this club on November 9th, they were favored with two excellent numbers, a violin solo, by Frances Smith, and a talk by Miss Jones.

Miss Jones related the details of her observation of Art during her tour of Europe last summer. Her talk was both entertaining and instructive, and was highly appreciated by all.

HAND IT IN

If you have an idea, a suggestion, you would like to have the student body know, a very good way perhaps the best, is to write an article about it for your school paper, the Egyptian. Many S. I. N. U. students think the articles in every week are for someone else to write. The staff would more than appreciate your cooperation. Just imagine if every subscriber would hand in just one article during the year, think of the fine paper we would have. Make a resolve to keep your eyes and ears open for some good idea for your article for the Egyptian.

Don't let the year go by without a little help to make our weekly paper the best put out by any college in the state.

Egyptian Editor.
S. I. N. U.
Dear Sir:

Have been wanting news from the good old school for some time. If the Egyptian is as good as it used to be, and I know it is, then I will soon have the news. I am sending a check, amounting to one dollar, for the fall and winter copies. Will you send me with you during the spring term.

Wishing you the best of success with the paper, I remain,
A writer for the Normal.
CHARLES GABERT, JR.

LET US BE THANKFUL

That there are only two more weeks of it— That our forfathers were Puritans and we are not— That there is a Friday afternoon for every Monday morning— That our teachers aren't all cross on the same day— That we have Tuesdays off— That the Stumble Inn is only four seconds from the campus— That there is always somebody else who hasn't gotten around to studying— That we haven't had to use the new fire-escapes yet— That Good English week has come and gone—

That we all don't have cancers— That Thackeray didn't keep on writing books for us to read in Eng III— That we all don't have to wear black rimmed glasses— That we don't have to gild our toenails to be in style.

THE OBELISK, '23

The attitude of the school toward the 1923 Obelisk is thus far highly commendable. Please continue to keep in mind that The book depends largely upon the cooperation of the entire school with the staff. One of the ways in which you can cooperate with us is by complying with the announcements to have pictures made. Please attend to this promptly. It is necessary that we get the work in to the engraver as soon as possible.

ALVIN FELTS, Editor.

JOKES AND PICTURES

We were glad to see so many kodaks in evidence during Home-Coming and we are anxiously waiting to see your pictures. Did you know that we are planning to devote a whole page in the Obelisk to Home-Coming snapshots? To make this and the rest of the page a success we must have your help. You will find the Obelisk box near the candy counter all ready to receive your pictures. Of course you know that it's just Home-Coming pictures we want, either. We are sure that you have some good pictures tucked away, hand them over to us and we'll make good use of them. We will also print a list of the donors of the best snapshots in the Egyptian.

Another thing, we want you to be on the lookout for good jokes. When you hear one, don't just laugh and forget it, write it down and put it in the Obelisk box.

"We admit that the 1923 Obelisk is going to be the best yet." If you help us you can feel a proprietary interest in it.

O'non folks! Let's all get busy.

EDUCATIONAL VALUE OF THE CARTOON

That a few strokes of the cartoonist's pencil may have more education and influence in them than volumes of books is a well-known fact. Our politicians use this knowledge to the limit.

If one were to take the time to read the history of famous cartoons the work of Nash during the Civil war period would stand out conspicuously. What the wisdom of Lincoln and the war strategy of Grant could not accomplish the brush of Nash had no trouble to accomplish.

Looking back only about thirty years we find Mark Hanna the dictator of American politics. He was freely charged that it was Nuttery and that the other influential men and money to gain his political ends.

No one knew the mighty Davenport and portrayed the genial Mark as a well-fed man, whose clothes had the dollar mark all over them. One had to be blind indeed not to catch the full meaning of this cartoon at once. The great Hanna was a man of gold and he fleeced all the professionals of his money. He did not get angry about his flagellation in public prints. He had no need to be, for he won in the end.

Just now there are a series of cartoons appearing in the Chicago Tribune (this is no paid ad). A certain Andy is featured as an office seeker. His fortunes seem to rise and fall from day to day. If one may judge from the conversations heard at table, "I bet you a dollar Andy will go to congress," is frequently heard. These cartoons keep the interest of many people alive in the question of congressional elections. So far, so good. It is not much; but ought we not to be thankful for even this morsel of information for the general public? It may not teach us what "Newbery-ism" and such other newspaper slang as from time to time may bob up, but it relieves us for the time being for enact, and that is something. Long may the cartoonist live!

The aim of the staff is not only to make the Obelisk the biggest and best ever published by the S. I. U., but to make it a true pamphlet of the student body. This aim cannot be reached thru the efforts of the staff alone, therefore we are asking for your loyal support and cooperation.

With a class of one hundred sixty-five Normal Seniors and almost as many high school Seniors, it is impossible to know each of you personally. If you have appropriate verses you would like to have beside the pictures of you and your friends, please write them out and drop them in the Obelisk box on the first floor of the main building or hand them to me. Any other suitable material will be greatly appreciated. Also if you are president of any of the various organizations it is very necessary that you give us your name together with the name of the organization you represent.

CORMEY WALLACE,
Literary Editor.

No great enterprise can be launched unless it is backed by finance. Now we are planning, in fact we are not only planning, but we are really working, to make this one of the best Obelisks that has ever been put out. How can we do it? This is the way.

The student body and faculty get behind us and be boosters instead of knocking, be ready to help instead of hindering. Be ready to act when we give suggestions. For I assure you everything will be managed in a "square deal" way.

I am sure you all agree that it is going to take a lot of money and you are right. It is. But we are making it just as cheap as we possibly can, in order to put out the book we have determined to put out. The price of the Obelisk this year will be only one price, $2.50, same as last. At this price, fully 90 per cent of the student body should take a book and if you don't, you'll always wish you had. Now, we're ready to take your subscription. Now show your color by subscribing.

Norvin Julian,
Business Manager.

GETTING OUT A PAPER

Getting out a paper is no pleasan
If we print jokes, folks say we are silly.
If we don't, they say we are too serious.
If we publish original matter, they say we lack variety.
If we publish things from other papers, we are too lazy to write.
If we stay on the job, we ought to be out rustling news.
If we are rustling news, we are not attending to the business in our own department.
If we don't print contributions, we don't show proper appreciation.
If we do print them, the paper is filled with junk.
Like as not some fellow will say we swiped this from an exchange.
We did.

Hark! all ye students: if you want to hear
All about the want of the staff this year.
The Obelisk we are asked to make
As good or better than recent date.
So help us along as best you can,
By sending us something, ya, every man.

Now can't you devote an hour or two
To helping us make this book for you?
Or will you and humor, of snaps and such
We need new material, oh! so much.
If all will help and boost and give
We'll have an Obelisk that long will live
In the hearts of all the students here
And honor the school we hold most dear.

ALINE NEFFZIEER.
Art Editor.

ATTENDING TO DETAILS
In a first year meeting the Freshmen were planning a winer roast.
Kollie straightened up and informed them to pay as much attention to him as to any other of their teachers for he had an important question to vote upon, "How many here want mustard on your sandwiches?"

POSSUMS!
M-m-m-m-b-b-oy! "Hand me another dog, Russell." "Gus, have you all the marshmallows?" These expressions and others issued from a group of young people gathered around a campfire. Massac had invited Pope and other friends to the annual possum hunt and weiner roast. The party had started from the front gate at 6:45 p.m., November 23, and after walking enough to sharpen the appetite, had built a campfire to enjoy the "possum." It was a live bunch and they had a live time. Everybody had lots to eat and plenty of appetite. Mr. Hotten and Miss Rue were the chaperons. There were about six counties represented, which goes to show the hospitality of Massac and Pope. After the feed the chaperons had to talk and also President August Meyers of Massac, and President Sue Ellen Lay of Pope. Then the Sunny Smile Singers gave several selections with the help of the whole crowd. Mr. Hotten's solos were enjoyed most of all. If any of you ever want to hear something good give Mr. Hotten a square meal of "hot dog" and there it is.

We visitors certainly enjoyed the "hunts," and we hope that some day we may return the invitation. The county organization is really worth while. Now, all together, let's boost our county same as Pope and Massac do. "Let's go."
