Ticket Mail Orders To Be Filled Friday For "Would-Be Gentleman"

Mail orders for tickets to the Southern Player's production of "Would-Be Gentleman" will be filled starting Friday.

A theater spokesman said season tickets, which are non-cancellable, must be returned in their request for tickets as soon as possible to insure reservations on the night they wish to attend the play. Regular ordering will begin at the Southern Playhouse ticket office window on Nov. 15. Ticket office hours are from 10 to 11 a.m. and 2 to 4 p.m., daily.

The play opens Nov. 22 and will be performed through Nov. 24. Admission is 35 cents for members of the SIU theater group and $1 for general admission.

Special children's performances will be given Dec. 2 and 3. The second on-campus performance by the Southern Players this term, "Teahouse of the August Moon" opened last week.

A touring theater group from the Southern Players is now presenting the Molive play throughout southern Illinois. The play will have been performed in six communities in the region before the tour ends Nov. 15.

Darwin Payne, instructor in drama, is directing the play.

Action Halted On New Grad Programs

Morris Lauds Cooperation By SIU Faculty

President Delyte W. Morris of Southern Illinois University told the State Board of Higher Education Monday night that faculty cooperation has been the key to the institution's achievements in educational excellence.

Although the current knowledge "explosion" has created a demand for further research specialization, President Morris observed that the increasing complexity of the social order has also forced the need for educational programs that demand more advanced general education for social order and unity to be preserved.

Pointing to projects made possible at Southern only because specialists in various fields were able to work across academic boundaries and work together, President Morris cited:

1. General Studies, concerned with the broad scope of intellectual growth, which unite men rather than divide them.

2. The Experimental Freshman Year, a study to determine why some better students do not succeed academically.

3. A Curriculum, featuring weekly seminars for exceptional students with many faculty members participating.

4. The graduate program, in which graduate faculty members and graduate students work together on standards, programs, approval of graduate students, and planning of specialties in broad areas, making possible the greater concentration of university resources for study in those areas.

Graduate School Announces 16 Woodrow Wilson Nominees

Sixteen nominees for the Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Program were announced by David Kenney, assistant dean of the SIU Graduate School. The nominations were made by individual faculty members.

Nominated for the fellowships are Robert Allibone, a senior majoring in philosophy; David Barr, a senior majoring in sociology; Robert Bess, a senior majoring in history; Donald Caldwell, a senior majoring in English; John Crocker, a senior majoring in English; Charles Darvick, a senior majoring in government; Neil Hackett, a senior majoring in mathematics; Cary Klugherz, a senior majoring in English; John Helm, a senior majoring in mathematics; Gary Kline, a senior majoring in chemistry; Jerry Moye, a senior majoring in English; Margaret Schulte, a senior majoring in government; Nancy Warshauer, a senior majoring in English and Joan Yale, a senior majoring in English. Woodrow Wilson National Fellowships are awarded each year to 1,000 prospective first-year graduate students, both men and women. Joseph Fugate and Frank Fiorina are the only SIU graduates who received the fellowships.

Training, Research, Service:

Counselors, Educators Attend Juvenile Problems Conference

"Training, research, and service are the basic facets of SIU's Delinquency Study Project," Robert Russo told counselors, educators, and law enforcement officers who took part in the first day of a regional conference on juvenile problems opening yesterday in the University Center Ballroom. Russo is with the Delinquency Study Project on the Edwardsville campus.

"The project at Edwardsville was made possible by a grant from the President's Commission on Juvenile Delinquency," Russo said. "The President's Commission is composed of five men who are under the jurisdiction of the Department of Justice, Labor, Health and Welfare."

Nineteen members of the various planning committees include:

Tod D. Cornell, delegations; Charles Durr, coordination and accommodations; and Joseph Shramovich Jr., physical arrangements.

The meeting is at SIU in the board's second stop on a tour of state schools. The group's next meeting is Dec. 2-3 in Chicago.

The board's two-day agenda includes another Monday evening with some members of the board of trustees serving as hosts and guided tours of the campus and university facilities.

Adult Education Conference Features State School Chief

An address by Ray Page, superintendent of public instruction, is scheduled for today's opening of the Southern Illinois Adult Education Conference.

Sessions are planned for both morning and afternoon in Morris Auditorium.

A cross-section of interested citizens from counties in southern Illinois is expected to attend today's conference that continues until 5 p.m.

Discussion of the following roles in adult education is included in the program: junior colleges, school boards, community development, publishers, libraries, the arts, women's clubs, business, industry, labor, and agriculture.

Higher Education Board Awaits State-Wide Survey

The Illinois Board of Higher Education, when meeting at SIU this week, voted to suspend action on requests by state universities for approval of new graduate degree programs.

According to Russo, the action does not bar schools' requests for approval of new graduate degree programs.

Model UN Meeting Scheduled Feb. 7, 8

Colleges throughout the Midwest are receiving invitations to the Sixth Annual Model United Nations conference at SIU. It will be held Feb. 7 and 8.

An SIU steering committee is working on plans for the event, according to Norma L. Brown, chief editor of the International Affairs Committee of the Student Council. She is chairman of the planning conference for Jerome M. Miles, coordinating committee chairman.

Chairmen of the various planning committees include:

Tod D. Cornell, delegations; Charles Durr, coordination and accommodations; and Joseph Shramovich Jr., physical arrangements.

Fugate and Fuleas Laid tickets at the house ticket office window Friday for the production of Delinquency Study Project. It is composed of the Departments of Justice, Labor, Health and Welfare.

The Metropolitan Opera Company's 1980 Season is direct from New York City. The group's next meeting is Dec. 2-3 in Chicago.

175 Receive On-Job Training
In Fall Quarter Students Teaching

SIU has 175 student school teachers receiving on-the-job training this term at grade and high schools in Illinois. Work as a student teacher is a regular classroom situation and is a requirement for the bachelor's degree in education.

Charles D. Neal, director of teacher training for Southern Illinois University, says eight students are working with regular teachers in Mather, Schurz and Bogen high schools and Berkeley Elementary School, all in Chicago. All others have been assigned to schools in downstate Illinois.

The student teachers for the fall term come from 87 communities in Illinois, and from six other states. The list includes, Jane S. Sutter, Charles Edwin Young, Nancy Muriel Hooks, Martha Jean Ligon, Barbara Jean Walton, Jerold Ray Williams, Wanda Nell Delatore, John E. Wachtel and Sandra Sue Marshall, Marliouise Carney, Ruth A. Moore, Muriel Hubbs, Manha Jean tel and Sandra Sue Marshall.

Russians Halt French Joining U.S. Convoy

BERLIN

Russian troops briefly halted a French military convoy Tuesday on its way toward a U.S. Army convoy bottled up by Soviet armored cars at Marienborn checkpoint near West Germany. After the French convoy started up again on the 110-mile trip over the autobahn through East Germany, a Western source in Berlin said the French were under orders not to go through the Marienborn checkpoint to West Germany unless the U.S. convoy blocked there is allowed to pass.

The 10-vehicle French convoy carried 50 men. Forty-four men were in the 12-vehicle American convoy held at Marienborn by three Soviet armored personnel carriers blocking its forward movement toward West Berlin, two other Soviet armored cars behind the convoy in from the rear.

After the French, a British convoy started down the highway from West Berlin, carrying 41 men and 2 officers in eight vehicles.

In Washington, Secretary of State Dean Rusk described the Russian blockade as "a very serious matter." President Kennedy was keeping in close touch with the situation.

The U.S. Army began assembling a supply line for the blockaded American convoy.

WASHINGTON

The "hot line" between Washington and Moscow has not been used in connection with the present Berlin crisis, it was learned Tuesday. Under a policy of not talking about the "hot line," neither the White House nor the Pentagon would say whether the emergency communication channel had been called into service. It was learned authoritatively, however, that it has not been used in connection with the blockade by Soviet troops of a U.S. Army convoy en route to Berlin.

WASHINGTON

Security Officer Otto F. Olkona, 46, was dismissed Tuesday on charges of conduct "unbecoming an officer of the State Department.

He was accused of giving confidential information to the Senate Internal Security subcommittee. He had been under suspension since Sept. 23.

A letter from John Ordway, chief of the department's personnel division, notified Oelka of his dismissal Tuesday.

American Woman Gets Nobel Prize

STOCKHOLM

An American scientist became the first woman to win a Nobel Prize in physics in 60 years. Mrs. Maria Goepert-Mayer, the University of California will share the prize with a second U.S. scientist, Eugene Wigner of Princeton University, and West German J. Hans D. Jensen of Heidelberg.

Mrs. Goepert-Mayer, Wigner and Jensen will receive the $51,158 prize for their work in determining the nature of the shell of the atom's nucleus. The Nobel Prize in Chemistry will be shared by Germany and Prot, Giulio Natta of Italy for their work with molecules that has helped to speed the development of new plastics.

The formal award ceremony will be held Dec. 12 in Stockholm.

CHICAGO

Erwin B. Arvey, 46, son of a power in the Democratic party, was ordered held to the U.S. District Court Tuesday for removal to St. Louis. He'll appear before a Justice to seek his release last week on an indictment charging him with transporting fraudulent securities with a face value of $200,000 from New York to St. Louis.

Arvey, son of Jacob Arvey, Democratic National committeeman from Illinois and a leader of the Chicago Democratic organization, also is charged with taking worthless bonds from Chicago to Los Angeles and using them as collateral for a loan.

Political Strength Of Kerner Reportedly Worries Kennedy

Jack Bell, top political writer for the Associated Press, said in his analysis of the column Tuesday that the Kennedy administration is worried about the strength of Illinois Gov. Otto Kerner in his bid for re-election.

Bell said the White House denied Monday any connection with a Chicago Daily News poll which indicated Kernwas could lose to either of two Republicans, Secretary of State Charles Carpenter or Charles Percy, an industrialist. The AP writer said that Sargent Shriver, President Kennedy's brother-in-law who heads the Peace Corps, has been mentioned as a possible substitute for Kerner.

The Chicago Democratic organization, led by Mayor Richard J. Daley, will pick the nominee after consultation with the White House, according to Bell.

The administration has some reservations, however, about dipping into Chicago for the sake of the in-laws, Bell said, because this would give the GOP additional ammunition on the "dynasty" issue.

Daley told a news conference yesterday the "Democratic party will support Gov. Ker­ner" because he is a strong and energetic leader, and we are be­ hind him on his record."

Daley said private polls show Kerner is "stronger than ever and will be reelected,"

Dinh Brother Under Arrest. For Tyranny

SAIGON, South Viet Nam

U.S. officials turned over to the military government of President Thieu of the Ngo Dinh family—Ngo Dinh Nhu, brother of President Nhu, to charge the official with a bloody tyran. It was not learned if Can was aware he was being brought from Saigon to the U.S. officials.

Some foreigners expressed belief the military government would put Can on trial or perhaps sentence him to death or a long prison term, but U.S. officials understood to have received assurances from revolutionary authorities that Can would not be lynched and would receive due process of law.

Diei's brother Nhu died after they were captured and put his sentence him. The government said both men committed suicide, but an in-­ formed source reported they were slain by army men after being arbitrarily detained by members of a Roman Catholic church.

Unconfirmed reports circulated at Hué, capital of central Viet Nam, that 180 bodies had been found there and that a grave at Can's mansion there. Re-­ ponsible authorities notified Can's family after finding bodies of two in a Roman Catholic church.

Dr. Robert F. Sargent, President Kennedy's special assistant for science and technology, rejoined the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Shades Of William Jennings Bryan

The Student Council's proposal for an insert in the Daily Egyptian is a disappointment, one full of generalities. The statement Council labels "facts" and "principles" are, at best, dubious candidates for either category—as a glance at the bill shows.

The Council's presentation, in fact, seems to be an extension of Mr. Bryan's remark likening William Jennings Bryan's speech-making to the Platte River in his native Nebraska—five miles wide and a foot deep.

The charges leveled at the Daily Egyptian are too far-fetched to be credible. The bill implies ours is the responsibility for low election returns.

Hard To Visualize Horde Of Drinking Students

The Daily Egyptian of Oct. 25 gave front page billing to an article written by the Office of Student Affairs which has vowed to cooperate with the sheriff of Williamson County in clearing up underage drinking on campus.

Letter To The Editor

Bureaucratic Procedures Painful To Students

Although the change in Health Service hours is an improvement, it seems as though one important thing was not changed—that of holding public meetings.

To emphasize, let's examine a specific instance. Shortly after 3 p.m. Thursday a student playing intramural football was injured and taken to one of the Carbondale hospitals. Knowing that no doctor was on duty, he was told he could not call Health Service.

When the student arrived at the hospital, the nurse on duty called Health Service to find out if the school insurance would cover the charges. The person in charge at Health Service explained there was a doctor on duty, and to bring the student there. He was taken to Health Service where there was no doctor on duty—thus, the time, 5:30 p.m.

At 6:15 p.m., 15 minutes after he was scheduled to be seen, the doctor began to examine the patient. Finding he needed X-rays, Health Service called the hospital again and arrangements were made.

The University police were called to transport him back to the hospital where he had been taken an hour and a half previously. The police, I might add, took about 20 minutes to get to Health Service.

Thus, for nearly two hours an SIU student sat around with the pain of a broken arm. When the doctor at Health Service was asked what would happen if a person were bleeding—"the question"—as evaded. Need I say more?

Student Council Plan To 'Improve' Egyptian

The Student Council has marked it as a solution to the problems of campus. One of the major issues they have identified is the need for better communication between the student body and the school administration.

The plan includes several measures to address these concerns. They aim to increase the representation of students in administration decision-making processes. Additionally, they propose to create a new position of "student advisor" to work alongside faculty members.

The Council also plans to hold regular town hall meetings to discuss important issues with the student body. They believe this will help bridge the gap between the university and its students.

Where there is an effort to improve things, and strive for positive change, there's a place in the Student Council for everyone. They value diversity, and are open to feedback from all corners of the campus.

The Council encourages all students to participate in their meetings and discussions. They are committed to making the Daily Egyptian a more student-friendly newspaper. They invite everyone to join them in making the Daily Egyptian a better source of information and entertainment for all.
Defeats Evansville 35-6:
Southern’s Freshman Football Team
Climaxes A Perfect Grid Season

SIU’s high-flying freshman football team made it four wins in a row her Monday afternoon as it came away from their 1963 season by defeating Evansville College, 35-6.

A drizzling rain had dampened the turf, but it had been so puffed before that the footing wasn’t as slippery as it might have been in an average game. Southern’s players didn’t think so, anyway, as they weren’t a bit handicapped in employing a passing attack.

SIU passed 33 times and connected 13 times for 146 yards. The Saluki ground attack picked up an additional 136 yards.

As in the previous freshman games this season, it was quarterback Jerry Jones who made Southern’s offensive alignments move. Jones threw safely on his 10th of 20 actual attempts, gaining 130 yards.

Jones fired touchdown passes of 23 yards and eight yards, and scored on a 41-yard run in the second quarter. He also was on the receiving end of an 18-yard pass from Jones.

SIU fullback Gary Olson first put the Salukis on the scoreboard with a 35-yard touchdown run with 9:58 remaining in the opening quarter. At Chemeliski, added the conversion kick.

Jones hit right end Frank Caccaro with a 23-yarder exactly six minutes later and the first quarter ended with the Salukis holding a 13-0 lead.

Three minutes after the second quarter opened, Jones struck again, this time hitting halfback Norm Johnson an eight-yard pass. Chemeliski got the extra point and it was 20-0, SIU.

Evansville rallied to push across a lone touchdown of their own during the play on an 8-yard run that capped a long ground drive.

Jones returned to the center of attention after Southern’s “engineer” didn’t waste time in getting his team to pay dirt once again before the intermission. He pulled the big completion, giving on the option play for a 41-yard touchdown.

Being a quarterback John Lukefelt ran for a two-point conversion and Southern left the field at halftime with a 28-6 lead.

The third period was scoreless, and the fourth might also have been, but for a pass interception by SIU’s Bill Barr, defensive halfback. Barr shot through the surprised Evansville eleven for 62 yards as Chemeliski notched the final point.

Miss Virginia Harrison, director of Southern’s Tape Recorders, said that the forest lodge will have the graduation address for the practical nursing class of the Vocational

There will be a reorganization at 7:30 p.m., today in the Home Economics Building.

The graduation will climax a one-year course practical of nursing for the 15 graduates. Because of the short period of practice, the practical nursing certificate requires that the graduates always work under the supervision of a registered nurse.

Record: To open the home season, Southern will be against Illinois State Tuesday for Calvin R. Pollard, a junior who was the senior who suffered from a back injury.

Pollard was taken to Doctors Hospital by SIU security police at approximately 10:45 p.m. Dennis L. Knight, junior forward, accompanied Pollard to the hospital where the cause of the difficulty was not determined.

Pollard was released and taken to his home in Cambria.

SIU’s corps of walking wounded hope to get back on the winning side of the Ledger Saturday, when the Salukis play an aggressive squad from Nebraska State University in their home finale this season.

This will be the third annual Shrine game, as well as a highlight of the annual Parent’s Day schedule. Parents of SIU students will be honored at the game, which will get underway at 8 p.m. The parents will occupy a special section in the stands of McAndrew Stadium.

According to freshman coach Frank Sovich, who has several men in his starting eleven, this season’s game is even tougher than the last against the Nebraska State Salukis.

“On the other hand, it’s built around four men—Pflipsen, Bernie Ness, Jerry Jones and Frank Hentges as is the case for the Dakota State Salukis. Pflipsen, who is the third leading ground gainer in the conference, is the Saluki quarterback and he’s the third leading passer. None of the Southern’s nine passers makes it an easy day against him.

The Bisons are a young club, as is Southern, and apparently have the same problems that have bothered so many of Nebraska’s opponents this season. North Dakota State is a very aggressive team and the career avenger teams I’ve seen this season are aggressive teams. Pheasant Hunting Positions Open On State Land

Although weekend quacks have been filled on all of the state-operated public hunting areas, the areas have not been filled on any of the Des Plaines area.

William T. Lodge, director of the Illinois Department of Conservation, announced that each of the six state-operated pheasant hunting areas are open to the week-day hunter, the Des Plaines area is filled except for the week of Dec. 2 through Dec. 6. The Chain-O-Lakes area, north of Lake, is one of the sections that still is accepting applications for hunting during the week.

Sportsmen who desire to hunt on a public area should apply for a permit at the Conservation Office. The application should include the hunter’s name and address, the name of the desired area, the preferred date and a second choice date in case the time period is filled, and represent the name of a hunting partner.

Two duck hunting areas are also in operation this year. They are the Anderson Lake Area, south of Havana on the west side of the Illinois River, and the Sangansois Area, north of Beardstown on the west side of the Illinois River.

Frank Beye, director of the Illinois Department of Agriculture and Rural Development, announced there are two duck hunting areas open, one in the Union County area, near Lake, and the Horseshoe Lake Area, near Olive Branch.

Committee Studies Off-Campus Houses

A study of criteria of accepted living standards for off-campus housing is underway by the Trouble Shooting Committee at SIU.

This committee gives those affected by off-campus regulations a chance to voice their opinions to the University concerning what rules are in effect, and what rules they feel are needed.

“Composed of off-campus students, householders and representatives from the Housing Office, this committee is very important, acting as liaison among the three groups,” said Mrs. Anita Koe, supervisor of Off-Campus Housing.

Novice Debaters Win Honors; Teams To Compete In Indiana

A four-member SIU novice debate team placed third in a field of 29 or an intercollegiate meet at Northern Illinois University last weekend.
