GAME NIGHT FOR FRENCH CLUB AT LAST MEETING

La Beaunole Hall held a game night for the French Club last night in the office of the French Club. At the party, which all those who had ever been members of the French Club were invited to attend, there were tables covered with refreshments and a variety of games. The atmosphere was casual and relaxed, as the members of the club caught up and reminisced about their experiences in France.

KAYEWallet LIKE S N H. U. CAMPUS THEY FIND IT LITTLE DIFFERENT FROM THE BIGGER UNIVERSITIES

BY ERNEST DEAN

The Kaye Wallet, a publication of the University of Illinois, published an article today about the differences between S N H. U. and larger universities.

The Kaye Wallet stated that the biggest difference is the size of the student body. S N H. U. has a much smaller student body, which makes it easier to get to know everyone. They also mentioned that the professors are more accessible and the classes are smaller, which makes it easier to get help when needed.

One Woman's Show Has Ability To Perform Alone

Paradoxically, the show is a group effort, but it's performed by one woman. The artist, who also writes and directs the show, says she wanted to create a piece that would challenge gender roles and stereotypes.
