Cyclist Almost Stopped At Sign, Must Work To Pay $10 Fine

An SIU student was fined $10 this week for running a stop sign.

On the scene, he’s unhappy.

He told the ‘Office of Student Affairs to stop, but that $10 is too much of a fine. Besides, he couldn’t spare the 10. So he’ll have to work the fine.

But, again, he’s unhappy. To work for 10 bucks, a man must put in eight hours a day for two days.

SIU General Studies Revisions Sought Through Petition Drive

Two SIU student senators are trying to gather student support for some major revisions in the General Studies program.

Bill Carel and Mark Hockenyon, the two General Studies representatives on the Student Council, said they are circulating petitions in favor of three changes in General Studies.

1. A decrease in the number of credit hours from the present 96 to “40 or 50.”

2. Allowing students to start taking courses in their major fields during the sophomore year.

3. Reversing the alleged trend toward “more work but less credit.”

Johnson, Top Aides Hold Defense Talks

WASHINGTON -- President Johnson met with top diplomatic and military advisers Friday to discuss the defense budget and problems facing the Atlantic Alliance.

Sallinger said Johnson emphasized a determination to maintain the military strength of the nation, and, at the same time, get a dollar's value for a dollar spent in the military field. The President also expanded on a military-foreign policy philosophy he outlined Thursday—that the United States must be strong and must be "just, temperate and patient." Meeting with Johnson were Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara; Secretary of State Dean Rusk; and Secretary of Defense William Bundy, Walt W. Rostow, director of the State Department's policy planning staff, and McGeorge Bundy, presidential assistant for national security affairs.

Pierre Sallinger, White House press secretary, said the conference discussed defense planning and NATO matters, interrelated arms-defense budget problems, and current negotiations in Paris on President John F. Kennedy's proposal for a multinational fleet of surface vessels armed with nuclear-tipped Polaris missiles.

The NATO discussion was prompted by the fact that the NATO Council will meet in Paris on Dec. 16.

CIGNELAND--Rep. Robert Taft Jr., R-Ohio, became a candidate Friday for the U.S. Senate, where his late father gained national and international renown.

50-year-old Cincinnatian announced at a news conference his candidacy to run for the Senate seat now held by Democratic Sen. Stephen M. Young, Young has not declared his intentions for 1964, but is expected to seek re-election.

Jobless Rolls Show Increase

WASHINGTON -- Unemployment rose from $90,000,000 to a total of 3.9 million last month, the Labor Department reported Friday.

A spokesman said the increase was larger than seasonal but that other measures of the economy indicated no special significance in the rise.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics said the increase boosted the rate of joblessness from 3.5 to 5.9 percent of the work force which held steady at 76 million over the month.

Profumo's Playgirl Gets 9 Month Term

LONDON--Christine Keeler, the 21-year-old prostitute who almost brought down a British government, threw herself upon the mercy of the court Friday and got it--a nine-month term in prison.

With her housekeeper and a girl friend, she pleaded guilty to charges of perjury and conspiracy to frame a discarded Negro lover. She could have gone to prison for seven years or more.

The story compours of the reheaded girl friend of ex-Prime Minister Profumo and other men in high places broke momentarily as she held her seat, her eyes wide, her hands clasped in front of her. The Washington Evening Star both published stories Friday of evidence linking Richard S. Nixon to the incident at Walker's home, and The Daily Mirror said new evidence is included in the FBI report on the assassination of Kennedy.

Jackie Vacates White House To Write 'End' to JFK Era

WASHINGTON--Mrs. John F. Kennedy and her two children left the White House shortly after lunch Friday for short two weeks, almost to the hour, after President Kennedy was slain in Dallas.

Mrs. Kennedy moved out of the White House only a few minutes after reaching the dining room where the First Family was sitting at the lunch table. The First Lady had a shot fired through the screen and a bullet missed her.

THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANIES

SALUTE: JOHN M. CORUTHERS

A challenging job dealing with people and figures—that was John M. Coruthers' career goal when he left college seven years ago with an electrical engineering degree.

And John found the job, responsibilities and long-range career opportunities he wanted with the Illinois Bell Telephone Company.

His first assignment was supervising telephone installation and repair crews. Recognizing his leadership abilities, John's company promoted him to District Installation Superintendent. And in only a short time, he was advanced to his present position of District Plant Manager—an even more responsible job.

But does the job deal with people? Well, thousands of businesses and residences in the heart of Chicago depend on John, and the more than 200 people he supervises, for the smooth flow of communications.

John M. Coruthers, like many engineers, is impatient to make things happen for his company and himself. There are few places where such restlessness is more welcomed or rewarded than in the fast-growing telephone business.

Venezuelan Voters Make Democracy A Habit

Compiled From Associated Press

CARACAS, Venezuela—Despite a campaign of terrorism by the pro-Castro underground, a record number of Venezuelans voted Sunday and elected a president and congresses in the second set of free elections in the nation's history.

Thus for the first time a democratically elected government will be able to make way for another democratically elected government in Venezuela.

The massive outpouring of citizens defying police and threats was regarded as a smashing reverse for the Cuban policy of exported revolution and sabotage.

The terrorism belatedly released by the terrorists was rung up by police and caused one death near downtown Caracas.

In Caracas, police found and dis-took the mission to investigate "in Venezuela as well as in Cuba, facilitating to the latter an opportunity to defend itself."

The OAS policy has been one of isolating Cuba from the American republics. Brazil, Mexico, Chile, Uruguay and Bolivia are the only Latin American nations that still have diplomatic relations with the Havan regime.

The commission decided Thursday to ask Congress for more subpoenas and records before going to Dallas. Congress is expected to vote the power quickly. This raised the possibility that the commission headed by Chief Justice Earl Warren may hold hearings, public or closed, to pour over every scrap of information available. How-never, no decision has been reached on whether to hold hearings.

The FBI's report on the case, outlining findings of half a dozen other federal agencies, is not yet completed.

President Johnson is expected to forward the report to Warren as soon as it reaches the White House.

In Texas, Gov. John Connally said Thursday the state court of inquiry into President Kennedy's assassination "can and perhaps will shed great light on many details now unknown to the public."

- 30 Years After

NEW YORK—Prohibition—the "noble experiment"—came to an end on a high-spirited note just 30 years ago.

A gavel slammed in Salt Lake City, signifying that Utah had become the 36th state to ratify the 21st Amendment.

It was 5:31 p.m., New York time, By 5:33 p.m., legal drinks began to flow,這是 the Free-swinging era of gangster Al Capone and what the speakeasies; lesser law that before prohibition.

It said the per capita consumption was 1.65 gallons in the prohibition years, compared with an average of 1.25 gallons over the last 15 years, and 1.37 gallons last year.

The industry placed the pre-prohibition figure at 1.61 gallons.

Prohibition, the 18th Amendment to the Constitution, lasted for 13 years, 10 months, 18 days.

President Herbert Hoover had said of it: "A great social and economic experiment, noble in moti-tive and far-reaching in purpose." But however noble the motives of the drys, the west still wanted their drinks.

To meet the demand, the underworld built up a multimillion-dollar illicit business.

Politics Assessed

WASHINGTON—Republican Sen. Barry Goldwater said Thursday he is undertaking a "major reassesment" of his potential prospects in the tangled political puzzle left by the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

"I don't think my support has changed from what it was," said the Arizona conservative who ranked No. 1 among potential Republican nominees in public opinion polls taken before Kennedy's death.

As Goldwater sized up his prostspects in what he called "a new ball game with a new team," there were rumblings of an organized effort to put former Vice President Richard M. Nixon—who lost to Kendey in 1960—into the race for the 1964 nomination.

In New York, a spokesman for Nixon said: "We're not commenting on anything right now."".

The Washington Star reported plans are alive to enter as Nixon's pledged delegates in the New Hampshire presidential primary next March 10.
Southern’s Swimming Squad Opens its Eight-Meet Schedule Today

SOUTHERN'S SWIMMING SQUAD opens its eight-meet schedule today with the SIU Open at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. in the SIU Aquatic Center.

Jack Schiltz -- pronounced Schiltz-- doesn't mind when his name is misspelled or mispronounced.

"I sometimes misspell it myself," says Schiltz, the returning standout of SIU’s swimming team.

The 21-year-old senior majoring in physical education competes in four events for Ralph Casey's swimming team. He holds the team record for the 200-yard butterfly, 500-yard freestyle, and 200-yard breaststroke.

Besides the misspelling of his name, Schiltz is plagued with forgetfulness.

"Up to last year I would lose my wallet two or three times a year," he says. He regularly loses his bicycle and more than once he has fractured a bone while watching a movie, he realized that he had forgotten to pick up his dates.

His forgetfulness must be similar to that of the absent-minded professor, because he has made the honor roll at SIU four times.

Schiltz came to Southern quite by accident. He first went to Indiana where the school’s swimming coach failed to meet him at the train station.

Schiltz went to the athletic department of the school and found no one there. He got back on the train and returned home, he then decided on Southern after the Indiana experience.
