Our American Cousin' Players Climax Season With Period Melodrama

By Walter Taylor

The Spring Fling is coming to an end in May, and the girls and boys are gearing up for the 1987 film of "Our American Cousin". The play is narrated by Mrs. Krall, the mother of Mrs. Lincoln, who recalls her memories of the April 17, 1865, performance of "Our American Cousin" at Ford's Theatre in Washington, D.C.

The cast is led by the role of Mrs. Lincoln, played by Nancy White, and includes John Wilkes Booth, played by Richard H. Miller, and several other characters. The play is based on historical events and is a retelling of the story of the assassination of President Abraham Lincoln.

The play is set in the 1860s and takes place in Washington, D.C., depicting the social and political atmosphere of the time.
The cast includes actors from the Southern Illinois University Theatre Department, including Emily Brown, Angela Smith, and David Jackson.

The play will be performed in the University Theatre on May 20-21 and 27-28, with matinees on May 21 and 27.

Tickets are available at the box office or online.
