HEROES WITHOUT MEDALS

The headlines tell a flattering story of how our Air Forces are ripping the Axis apart. There is another more significant part of the war story, about the civilians who are helping on the home front. But these are not the headlines. These are the real heroes of the war.

In this war, civilians are serving on the home front. They are the real heroes of the war. They are the ones who are helping to win the war. They are the ones who are making a difference.
