Students Comment on Space Flight

SIU Watches History In The Making

An Unfathomable Chasm?

It has been a trying year: Senate walk-outs, senate probes, charges of libel, resignations.

On February 2, 1962, an editorial in The Egyptian, a student newspaper at the University of Illinois, addressed the issue of the "mathematics education mess." The editorial argued that mathematics education was not making adequate progress and that changes were needed. The author, who was identified as T. H. Sarkas, wrote:

"The mathematics education mess is the most important of all the education messes. We wouldn't have it any other way. Neither would the student leaders, any student leaders. This again indicates his ignorance."

The editorial went on to discuss the need for more mathematics education courses and resources, and the importance of mathematics as a language of science. The author argued that mathematics is the "language of the educated" and that it is important for students to devote their full time to mathematics.

Letters To The Editor

Poverty Not Barrier To Education In Britain

Editor:

There appear to be some misunderstandings about the British education system. I would like to set the record straight with the help of an article I read in the student newspaper at the University of Illinois.

I am a senior at the University of Illinois and I have been involved in the student government for the past three years. I have worked hard to improve the quality of life for students and to ensure that they have access to the resources they need to succeed.

One of the most important things that happened during my time in student government was the establishment of the Student Information Center. This center provides students with a variety of services, including academic advising, career counseling, and financial assistance. It has made a significant difference in the lives of many students.

I would like to encourage other universities to establish similar centers. It is important to provide students with the resources they need to succeed, and this center has been very successful in doing just that.

I would also like to address the issue of poverty in the student community. It is a problem that affects many students, and it is important to find solutions.

The Student Information Center provides information about financial aid and alternative sources of income for students. It is important that all students have access to these resources.

Finally, I would like to commend the student government for its efforts to improve the quality of life for students. It is an honor to be a part of such a dedicated group of individuals.

Sincerely,

[Name]

John M. White

[Concerning the writing of this letter, it is interesting to note that what we term the "tremendous success of the check cashing service at the Burn's Office," the student government, in its statement to the Student Council, had stated: "Between May and January, the Burn's Office has paid out over $30,000 to students."

This is an example of the "tremendous success" of the check cashing service at the Burn's Office.]

SIU's Loathsome Creatures Vie For Coveted (?) Ugly Man Crown

A new look has been given to the traditional beauty contest. Some of the ugliest forms in existence are at Southern this quarter trying to capture the coveted title, Ugly Man on Campus. This unique contest is sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity.

Voting for this (beauty?) contest for ugliest is also different because the voters will be required to donate a nominal fee of one cent before they cast their vote. Failing to do so will cause a voter last as long as the voter's money holds out. The proceeds will be given to the winner's favorite charity.

Pictures of the contestants are at the polling places which are open from 8 to 5 p.m., on week days and 8 until noon on Saturday at the University Center, Kent Hall and Southern Acres Union. Voting began this week and will continue until Wednesday March 7.

Contestants and their sponsors are as follows: Ray Pavlov, Springfield Hall; B.M. Ginn, Brown Hall third floor; Ed Spill, Woody Hall; Larry Brackman, Brown Hall second floor; Pete Von, Sigma Kappa; John Alexander, Alpha Gamma Delta; Barry Kaufman, Beverly Hall and Jim Minton, Phi Kappa Tau.

The most revolting entry will receive as a compensation for his facial distortions a number of gifts donated by the merchants of Carbondale. In addition, he will receive an Ugly Man Key. The winner's sponsoring organization will be given a plaque and a revolting trophy.

The ugliest man of all will be announced at the Ugly Man Dance on Friday, March 9 in the Roman Rooms at the University Center. Admission to the dance is free and the music will be provided by the Down Beasts.

"AIDA" The Splendor of Ancient Egypt Provides the Colorful Setting for Of a Slave Girl and a Soldier

The opera was commissioned by the Egyptian ruler and scheduled to be completed in time for the opening of the Suez Canal in 1869. The canal opened on time but not the opera. However, when it finally was presented for the first time — at the Cairo Opera House on December 24, 1871 — critics agreed that it had been worth waiting for. Few had disagreed since.

All the glory that was ancient Memphis and Thebes in the time of the Pharaohs will come to life again this weekend in the Southern Illinois University Opera Workshop production of "Aida." Giuseppe Verdi's majestic tragic romance of Rhadames, an Egyptian hero who spurned the hand of a princess for the love of a slave girl, "Aida," and then died at her side in a tomb, will be presented Saturday at 8 p.m. and Sunday at 2 p.m. in Shryock Auditorium. The opera was commissioned by the Egyptian ruler and scheduled to be completed in time for the opening of the Suez Canal in 1869. The canal opened on time but not the opera. However, when it finally was presented for the first time — at the Cairo Opera House on December 24, 1871 — critics agreed that it had been worth waiting for. Few had disagreed since.

Air Force Rifle Team Wins First In Annual Hearst ROTC Tourney

The SIU Air Force rifle team walked off with the 1st place trophy this year from the 41st annual William Randolph Hearst ROTC Rifle Tournament, held on Jan. 24.

Sponsored by the Hearst Newspaper chain, the tournament consisted of 100 teams entered from schools located in all parts of the United States. After winning the Air Force division, the team competed against the Army and Navy winners last Saturday. Although the results of this match will not be known for a few weeks, Staff Sgt. Robert R. Bumpardner stated that the team fired an excellent score. SIU participants included P.K.I. Richards, Stewart McNames, Charles Green, James Clemens, and Robert Taylor.

After placing 3rd in the Hearst Tournament last year, and 2nd in the area, SIU has come back strong with its four teams. The number 2 team has improved from 863 to 806, and the 4th team is presently shooting 866.

SIU also shot an excellent score last Saturday in the Secretary of the Air Force match. This meet was also of national caliber. SIU fired two teams.

Looking ahead, SIU will fire ten men on Feb. 14, in the National Intercollegiate Individual match. Finishing 1st nationally last year, SIU will utilize two greatly improved freshman teams.

When asked what he thought of this year's results, Sgt. Bumpardner stated: "We expect to fill the trophy case this year."

Drill Team Returns

Just returning from a base visitation in Texas, the SIU AFROTC drill team is coming back with only one taste of competition this year. Falling to Kansas State, SIU came in second at Washington University in St. Louis.

The 30-man team must will enter competition at the University of Illinois Invitational Tournament. Also on the future schedule is a national meet in May. If the SIU team wins these two meets, it is probable that they will receive an invitation to the annual Cherry Blossom Meet in Washington, D.C.

Saluki Baseball Team Starts "Spring" Practice

Despite having just two key members, Wally Wood and Gerry Stating, of the 1961 club which posted a 1-4 mark in league play and an 18-7 overall record, Pratte may have trouble in repeating this year. The veteran SIU baseball mentor said, "Mike had never hit for that kind of an average before in his life and during the summer months dropped more than 100 percentage points to around .300."

The position doesn't figure to be troublesome, however, for Pratte, a junior from Deere, Mo., shows good all-around ability and actually is regarded by Martin as a better handler of pitchers than Pratte. "Regardless of which one is in the lineup," Martin said, "we should be strong behind the plate."

Gurley, a senior left-hander, who last year played in every game, will be at second base, Dave Leonard, a comparative newcomer, at shortstop and Dan Sutton in centerfield.

Martin was likewise cautious in reminding that even a baseball could take a crazy bounce. "Last year we didn't look much on paper prior to the start of the season and wound up great," Martin said, "whereas this year we look good on paper right now, but you never know."

Local Keglers Finish Fourth

Dave Imber led a Southern Kegler team to a fourth place finishing in the regional face-to-face bowling tournament Feb. 16 at Ball State Teachers College, Muncie, Indiana.

Three States Compete

The regional six competition included teams from colleges in Illinois, Indiana, and Wisconsin, according to William Blyer of the Office of Student Affairs.

The Southern team was composed of Dave Imber, Jerry Drennan, Gale Zelinka, Charles Townsend, and Ron Stahl. The team was a result of the Tournament Week activities sponsored by the recreation committee of which Lynne Cinn is chairman.

Nite Canines Each

Each man in the tournament bowled only the games which three were for singles, three for doubles and three for team scores. Imber placed number 11 in over 100 entries, not as a team player but as an individual. Imber bowled three series in the competition of 320 for singles, 521 for doubles, and 396 for team score.

The competition took the Southern team eight hours to complete because of the crowded lane bowling alley of Ball State.

The Southern team placed fourth out of 22 teams, but the team was only 50 pins behind the first place team and 18 pins behind the third place.

The winners of the various classes were, in order—singles, Northern, DePauw, and DePauw doubles, University of Illinois, Eastern, and Indiana; teams—Northern, Indiana U. and U. of Wisconsin" tie for second, Wisconsin State, and Southern.

Five top bowlers were selected from the regional six competition to attend the national competition in Des Moines, Iowa, in March.

The tournament was sponsored by the Association of Collegiate Unions.
