70 Selected For ‘Showboat’ Cast, Additional Singers Needed

Jerome Kern Musical Will Be Presented Aug. 3, 4, 5

Some 70 actors, singers and dancers have been selected for the summer production of Jerome Kern’s musical "Showboat.

However, there are still openings in the cast for several major roles, according to William Taylor and Paul Hibs, who are directing the production.

Still not cast is the part of Joe, Negro bass, who sings the theme song “Old Man River,” made famous by Paul Robeson, and William Warfield in the moving picture version of the musical. Also open in the role Queenie, Negro mezzo-soprano, who sings all-time favorite “Can’t Help Lovin’ That Mans”.

The two top female leads in the show are Katherine Kimmel, who will play Magnolia, and Jane Cru...
Cassidy Named ‘Great Teacher’

Thomas E. Cassidy, lecturer in the Department of English, received this year’s “Great Teacher” award.

The award was presented by the University Alumni Association at the annual Alumni Day program. It is presented annually as a tribute to an outstanding faculty member.

Earlier in the year Cassidy was picked as the “Most Popular Professor” by the student body during the annual all-campus elections.

A native of Kings Park, Long Island, N.Y., Cassidy has been on the SIU faculty since the fall of 1958. He received his bachelor and master’s degrees from the University of Notre Dame and has done further work at Harvard and Columbia. Before coming to Southern he was associated with the faculty of St. John’s in Minnesota, Notre Dame, Wisconsin State College and the University of Illinois during World War II. He enlisted in the Army and was discharged in 1945.

Announcement of Cassidy’s selection came at a banquet conceeding Alumni Association activities. Other programs of the day included an alumni association legislative meeting, a meeting of the board of directors and alumni representatives.

Alumni Association officers for the coming year are Glenn Storme of Carbondale, president; William Bracy of Herrin, first vice president; Dr. Charles Bundy, of Carbondale, second vice president; Mrs. John Lambert of Alton, secretary; and William D. Brines, of Carbondale, treasurer. Mrs. Barbara Bailey of Alton was named to the board of directors. Guy Lambert of St. Louis was named to the board of the Associated Alumni. Cassidy served as faculty adviser to the Student Council from 1959 until 1961, as a resident hall adviser during the 1961-62 school year.

Past presidents of the Alumni Association and two seniors were named to the board, with gavel engraved with their names and the years they held office. The new board were made from wood from the school, oldest campus building. Candidates for president of the graduating classes were students of the industrial education department.

U.S. Women Influence Community Betterment

A charming smiling, flexibility of time, sensitivity, and humanity are the effective success ingredient for improving the nation’s community betterment.

As men sometimes do, women seem to have a special way of dealing with a more humane touch.

The money factor is not as important as the people’s well-being.

To illustrate women’s social concern, the two social women’s clubs in Willsboro, New York, saw the need for public facilities for 90,000 Navaho Indians.

After promising the interest of resident groups in town, a hospitality center was started. The women of the center visited the center in 1961.

If a group of women see the need for something to be done, they go ahead and see that it gets done.

Is it a woman’s world?

Students Needed For Summer Talent Nights

Can you sing, dance, mime, juggle or manage those with... Talent is needed for the talent show scheduled later in the summer session, and for the weekly Friday-Saturday night "parties" scheduled at various locations on the campus.

The activities development center of the office of student affairs has issued a call for all talent to attend SIU this summer to try-out Thursday and Friday of this week in the University School studio theater at 7 p.m.

Applications are available at the information desk in the University Center or they may be filled out at the try-outs. Those persons interested in the trip to see "Dolly Darling" should talk to the activities office in the University Center.

George R. Glenn, assistant professor of applied science in the School of Technology and Education, was announced as guest speaker at the 11th Clay-Mineral Conference, Ottawa, Canada in August.

The paper is entitled "Alteration of Clay Minerals by Lime."

Glenn is on leave of absence for the 1961-62 academic year completing his Ph.D. degree studies at Iowa State University under a Ford Foundation grant and will return to Southern this fall.

Two SIU faculty members, Frances K. Phillips, assistant professor of home economics, and Dr. Clee D. Carter, supervisor of off-campus elementary student teaching, are co-authors of a book, "Activities That Teach Health," to be published by the F. A. Owen Co., of Danville, Ill. The book has been included as part of the firm's series of college level texts in political science.

Before coming to SIU in 1957, Jacobson taught at the Universities of Michigan and Alabama. He holds bachelors and masters degrees from Hays (Kan.) State College and a doctorate from the University of Kansas.

Sixteen students have been selected as student leaders for freshmen and new student activities scheduled this week at SIU.

They will help guide the approximately 600 new students who have enrolled through the summer through the first few days of activities.

The student leaders are: John Rush, Marjorie Eicher, Linda Schmid, Roberta Scoville, Crickette Fray, Marian Dean, Fred Rauch, Helen Spencer, Kent Rauch, Mary Ann Andolsek, Linda Lehman, Bonnie Gareau, Robert Gray, Loraine Brennan, Kent Rush, Marijane Eicher, and Julia Brilc.

Wanted: Girls To Be Usheresses
At Summer Shows

The SIU Playhouse needs 25 to 30 pretty young ladies this summer to break into show business, but it takes a lot of luck. The girls are needed as ushers for the five summer productions to be offered at the Playhouse plus the summer musical Showboat.

Interested girls should visit the Playhouse boxoffice from 10 to 11 a.m. or from 3 to 5 p.m. any day and leave their name, phone number and address.

No pay is offered for the usher jobs, but girls selected will have an opportunity to see the Playhouse Theater productions free.

The summer theater season opens with "Pursuit of Happiness" Wednesday, June 27.

NURSE'S DUTY

Dr. Harper Returns From Your In England

Dr. Robert A. Harper, geography professor, will return to SIU June 29 from his position as a member of the SIU geography department. He will work during this summer, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday mornings from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. and Monday from 1 to 5 p.m.

At 4 p.m., the same day, the first St. Louis Municipal Opera trip bus will leave from the University Center and any persons interested in the trip to see "Dolly Darling" should talk to the activities office in the University Center.

W.G. Botje
Picked By Composers

Will Gay Botje, assistant professor of instrumental composition, has been elected to membership in the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers, a major organization of music composers in the U.S.

Botje, who specializes in wind and brass ensembles, choirs and jazz, said his solo instruments have been widely published and performed in recent years. BOTJE is a member of SIU's music faculty since 1957. He holds the first Doctor of Musical Arts degree ever awarded by the Eastman School of Music and studied under Nadis Boulangier while in Europe on a Fulbright Scholarship. He is the recipient of a sabbatical leave by SIU for the next school year to study electronic music techniques in the U.S. and Europe.

Botje is a native of Grafton, Ill. He received an undergraduate degree in music from Julliard School of Music in 1957. He has received the Alpha Zeta award in Agronomy, the first Doctor of Musical Arts degree ever awarded by Southern Illinois University's Department of Technology, and membership in the American Composers Alliance. In cooperation with the School of Home Economics and the School Lunch Division, Office of State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Davis Page, president of the American School Food Service Association, will discuss the week's activities, the lecture which is sponsored by Southern Illinois University's Department of Technology, and Food Service Manager of the SIU University Center.

Mornings will be devoted to supervised instruction in the home economics laboratory. Workshops will prepare, plan, and serve meals throughout the week. Group discussions and study sessions are also included in the program schedule.

Workshop leaders are Alice Powers, director of the lunchroom department, Springfield public schools, and Doris Gormley, school lunchroom supervisor, Alton.

Summer Activities Committee To Meet

Counselors selected were: Faye Duvall, Osaka; Jennifer Mccmillen, Cindy Mil­ ligan, Cheri McElroy, Darla Haviland, Jan Keller, Adella Marlow, Enter Haya, Jean Ann Meyers, Kay Vancil, Michael Cowles, Connie Dunn, Nancy Weisz, Jacqueline Ratcliffe, Pat Seiler, and Sharon Jones.
CONSTRUCTION AT SOUTHERN—Progress photos show construction underway on five separate projects at Southern Illinois University, Carbondale campus. Left (No. 1) shows excavation work for new $4,200,000 Physical Education-Military Training building, a multipurpose structure seating a gymnasium that will seat 10,200 spectators. Center photo (No. 2) shows forms in place for the $3,100,000 College of Education building. University School, SU's practice teaching laboratory, is in background. Both of these buildings are paid for from Southern's Universities Bond Issue. Photos at the right show construction of additional student housing. Top (No. 3) shows one of five residence halls for single students being added to the Thompson Point area (cost $2,900,000). Center (No. 4) shows one of six new units added to the small group housing area, for organized students (cost $1,600,000). Lower right (No. 5) shows nine apartment units under construction at Southern Hills area, to provide additional housing for married students (cost $1,500,000). All of the housing is financed by self-liquidating loans, repayable from student rentals.

Psychology Students Study At Anna Hospital

SIU graduate work at Anna State Hospital shows promise of giving better insight into an understanding of mental illness, school and hospital officials feel.

Under the program, jointly sponsored by SIU, the Anna State Hospital, and the Illinois Psychiatric Training Authority, ten graduate students from SIU are enrolled in a two month summer residence course at Anna State Hospital.

The course is titled Psychology 551, Advanced Psychopathology At Anna the students attend formal lectures, hospital diagnostic staff meeting, and orientation sessions concerned with the hospital's departmental activities and services such as nursing and dietetics.

In addition they experience informal contacts with patients on hospital grounds and wards, observe group psychotherapy, and receive training in psychodiagnostic methods. Each student receives a minimum of 200 hours of supervision during the course by assistants and Dr. Forrest Tyler, SIU psychology professor, who meets weekly with the students to evaluate the past week's experiences and to plan the following week's activities. According to Tyler the course "provides a sufficient knowledge about psychopathology and hospitalized patients and their treatment at the intern level so that these students can do research in this area and understand many problems. The summer helps them decide if they would like this type of work for a career and prepares them for clinical internship."

Tyler, who considers the Anna program "very successful," has written a description of it called "Integrating Scientific and Professional Training at the Graduate Level" which is currently being published in the "Journal of Clinical Psychology."

"Something with which a person is not in daily contact seems a mystery to him; he attaches a stigma to it," said Tyler. "Similarly, any facet of human behavior that he doesn't regularly encounter, he regards with suspicion and fear. The best way to improve a person's attitude toward mental illness is through education."

The knowledge learned at the Anna hospital and at other similar institutions is applied at SIU by the psychology department in an attempt to help students understand the concept of mental illness. "Psychology courses here have this as one of their important goals," said Tyler. To this end, SIU's counseling and testing center and the cooperative clinical services centers serve the student and also provide professional help for his psychological problems.

These programs, however, are usually not effective unless they exist in an intellectually stimulating climate. "It is essential to create on campus an atmosphere in which students can learn to understand the problem," said Tyler.
SUMMER SESSION BEGINS

The first step toward a full-length summer term for all SIU students is ineffec...
The defending champion but was edged to score only 27 3/7 points. Oregon won the team title with 85 points followed by Villa nova with 40 3/7.

It was the first time in the history of SIU athletics that an SIU athlete managed to score in the NCAA track meet. Jim Dupree won the 880-yard dash with a 1:48.2 timing for Southern's only first place honor. Dupree was seventh after the 440 but came home strong to outdistance the field. Cornwall finished second in the mile behind Orlofsky, a former miler Dyrol Burleson. Cornwall set a new school record with a 4:00.3 clocking. Burleson turned the course in 3:58.3 and beat Cornnell by 10 yards.

Cornnell passed Burleson with 300 yards to go but the Oregon miler, famed for his kick coming home, caught Cornwall in the stretch to win the race.

Southern's second foreign distance man Brian Turner completed his second finish in the three mile race Friday night. Turner finished behind the University of Houston's Pat Guelacey.

Colessey ran the distance in 13:31.6 and Turner trailed by five yards at the finish for his 13:53.9 timing.

SIU track coach Lew Hartzog said of the performances of his three man team. He has been around track meets for many years but none matched the excitement that was experienced in the finishing of his boys.

"This is the greatest clutch performance I've ever seen by a three-man team in a major meet," Hartzog said referring to the effort that Brian Turner, Bill Cornell and Jim Dupree displayed.

"It would be great for one to come out and have a good race," he said. "Then the other two men run the best races of their lives like Dupree, Cornwall and Turner did, it would be a cak­ zcontinued.

He said there was never any question that Dupree would win the 880. "Jim was so strong that there was no question about who was going to win the race," Hartzog concluded.

SIU has one more track meet this week when the SIU trio will return again for the National AAU track and field championships at Walnut, Cal.

THE POWER of SIU's track team was displayed by (left to right) Jim Dupree, Bill Cornell and Brian Turner at the NCAA track and field championships. The three men chalked up 26 points to take fourth place in the meet which attracted the finest track and field men in the nation.

Dupree was the SIU standout, taking first place in the 880-yard dash. Cornell was nosed out of his first place in the mile run by Dyrol Burleson of Oregon.

52 SIU Athletes Receive Letters
For Participation In Spring Sports

Fifty-two SIU athletes have received varsity letters for participation in spring sports. The Salukis, who won inter­state Conference championships in baseball, track and tennis and placed third in golf, lost only 11 seniors by graduation. Twelve of 18 base­ball lettermen are due to return as are 15 of 18 track lettermen. Five of six golfers and five of six tennis players.

Varsity letters were given in the following sports: Baseball: Keith Bicker, Freeport; Glenn Bishop, East St. Louis; Harry Gurley, Overland, Mo.; Bob Hardcastle, St. Louis; John Hout, Webster Groves, Mo.; Dave Leonard, Alton, Ill.; Mo.; Jerry Qualls, Gorham; Art Riner, Columbia; Ken Schielke, Rochester; John Sie­bel, St. Louis; Gilbert Snyder, Murphysboro, Ind.; Larry Tucker, St. Louis; *Larry Turner, Alton, Ill.; Mo.; Jim Woods, New Athens.

Fred Orlofsky
Wins Birth
On U.S. Gymnastic Team

Fred Orlofsky, SIU's gymnastic star and a veteran of Olympic competition, won a berth on the seven-man United States team which will compete this summer in Prague, Czechoslovakia.

Bruno Klus, also a junior at SIU, tried out for the team which will compete in the World Games but didn't make it.

They tried out for the third and final time last weekend at the Merchant Marine Academy.

Orlofsky, who finished 44th in the 1960 Olympics, is in sixth place standing among U. S. college gymnasts. Klaus is in eight place.

Both Orlofsky and Klaus won individual national championships in NCAA competition a year ago and led Southern to its second straight runner-up finish in this year's NCAA meet in Albuquerque, N.M.

At the NCAA national meet Orlofsky finished second for the second straight year in the all-around event in 1961 and was second on the side horse in this year's competi­tion. He finished 10th on the parallel bars and tied for seventh in the high bar event.

Infrastructural

Infrastructural football tournaments open to students and faculty will be held this summer, according to Glen Martin, director of Intramural Athletics.

Martin said approximately 20 teams are expected to be fielded by July. He urged team managers to turn in team rosters to the intramural office in the men's gym by Friday, June 29. The play will start Monday, July 2.

Loretta Ott's Door Is Always Open To Coeds With A Problem To Solve

"Mrs. Ott, speaking. (Pause) Certainly, I have time. Can you stop by about two this afternoon?"

This is a typical telephone response almost any caller with a problem goes from Mrs. Loretta Ott, whose official title is assistant dean of students, but who is more commonly known as dean of women.

"If you have a problem or are just passing through, stop in," says Mrs. Ott. "Any points are unnecessary."

And an amazing number of students take up her invitation.

Fall and spring terms seem to find Mrs. Ott the busiest.

"For obvious reasons," she adds, "I never know what each day will bring."

Her office routine usually does not work on an appointment basis and she never knows but what she may be greeted at 8 a.m. by the security officer.

"It's not the 8 a.m. greetings she receives that she dislikes, it's the late evening, or as she puts it, "the midnight calls" that she would prefer not to receive."

She is commented that she thinks of the ideal student as one who does not think of staying overnight at college, but to be green-eyed monster with sharp horns holding a large mother-to-be by putting her into the sink. Another problem is that hot water and tapioca down the Cincinnati komiss; and James Tarr. Tuition and supply fees are $20 per term.

Ron Kelly, acting head residence, says the maintenance men of the work crew often remove the casing from a shovel it but to no avail.

The children always keep things hopping at the Hills. One little boy found himself locked in a boiler room for about 45 minutes until the crew came to his rescue. Another boy made a quick trip to the hospital with the work crew after sampling a bug.

Welding Course Begins Tonight

A special adult short course in inert arc welding will be given at the Vocational Technical Institute campus tonight with Clarence Christensen VTJ welding instructor, a teacher.

The course has been set especially for selected employees of the Olin Mathison Co. Research and Development Division at Alton by the SIU Division of Technical and Adult Education. Its purpose is to prepare the men to pass a federal inspection test demanded of the company in manufacturing a product one of its customers.

The class will meet from 5:30 to 10:30 Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday for six weeks in the VTJ welding laboratory at Carbondale Community High School.
