Three hundred students have been picked for membership in Sphinx Club, with twenty-six students in campus activities. Nine of them were picked at the annual membership assembly in McAndrew Stadium Thursday. They are Gary Finch, Ellen Gibbons, Pamela Newberry, Stanley Nicpon, Nick Pasqual, Ann Phelps, Mary Piot, Charles Rahe and Ken Boden.

Four others were notified Wednesday night. They are Terry Cook, David Davis, Robert Moore and David Treiblock.

In addition, honorary membership was given to William Marchbery, assistant professor of botany; Richard Uray, operations manager for Broadcasting Service; and Charles Zoellick, associate professor of theater.

Terry Hamilton, Sphinx Club president, also announced that Judy Carter and Bob Drinan were selected as outstanding freshmen. Connie Reichert and Warren Steinborn were named outstanding sophomores.

Charles Tenney, vice president for instruction, made the opening remarks at the assembly. He saluted the Spring Festival theme, "Wonderful World of Fiction."

"We are living in a time when the difference between the world of fiction and the world of truth can scarcely be detected," Tenney said. "I hope the Midway will help remind you of the difference."

"The science fiction "lead as a boy now looks like ancient history," Tenney said. "Predicting the future is as reliable as the weather."

Special Elections to Be Held This Spring

As a Result of Wednesday's Tally of Votes

Three more elections will have to be held this spring as a result of Wednesday's general election. More than 500 votes were cast by Thompson Point and dorm-in-town students which, under the Student Government constitution, entitles them to a second representative on the Student Council, according to Fred Rauch, elections commissioner.

Rauch said special elections would he held later to fill both of these posts. In addition, a third election will be necessary to determine a senator for married students. He explained that students voted for a fictitious name which was on the ballot for that purpose in Wednesday's election.

Some 2,600 students voted in Wednesday's election, a drop of nearly 300 compared to the 2,959 voting in last Spring's election.

Pat Micken, a junior majoring in speech, is SIU's new student body president.

Don Grant, Micken's running mate, is the new vice president for instruction.

Larry Leiber was chosen homecoming chairman for this year.

Those elected for the All-University Student Senate are: William Murphy, economics major from Carbondale; Leslie Bloom, history major from Chicago; Fran Langston, English major from Houston; and Pam Newberry, elementary education major from Decatur.

Other winners of the all-campus election and their offices are:

- Woody Hall, senator, Alta McClellan, business teacher education major from Florissant, Mo.;
- COMMUTER senator, David Simpson, forestry major from Alexis, Ill.;
- Thompson Point senator, Ric Cox, journalism major from Fairfield, Ill.;
- Group Housing senator, Trina Carter, home economics major from Franklin Park, III.
- Small Group Housing Men's senator, Donna Mulligan, psychology major from Tom's River, N. J.
- Off-Campus Women's Organizational senator, Judy Meyer, social studies minor from Perry, Ill.

“RAINTREE COUNTY”
-CINEMASCOPE AND COLOR-

A great flowing story set against the colorful background of both North and South before and after the Civil War. An idealistic young man ( Montgomery Clift) searching the local political offices, which will bring happiness and reveal the meaning of life, falls in love with a beautiful beauty who has come from her New Orleans home to his town in Indiana. After their marriage, he begins to find she is losing her mind because of the tortured memories of her childhood. When the War comes, he fights for the North, but she runs away to her home. Finally, he makes his way back to her in her South, and finds her deteriorated, in a mental institution. She escapes, running into the swamps in desperate search of the man she loves trying to get in,” he said. “So we decided we would try the new schedule to see if the number of visitors justifies the extra hours of staff time.”

Current exhibits in the Museum include spelunking (cave-exploration) equipment loaned by the Campus Spelunkers, a collection of antique musical instruments and a live alligator and a live snake (an extensive collection of live reptiles will soon be installed). Other displays are old cartographers’ tools, a permanent Hall of southern Illinois history, a section of natural history dioramas and other displays, a permanent hall of the history of man and a case of Kachina Indian dolls.

About June 1, Segedy said, an exhibition of exotic birds will be mounted, and a parish display from the Sports Parachute Club will be installed.

Johnson Pushes Drive To Abolish Poverty

ATHENS, Ohio—President Johnson said Thursday “our challenge—not tomorrow but today—is to accomplish objectives which have eluded mankind since the beginning of time.”

In a speech at Ohio University, Johnson said the nation must:

- “Bring equal justice to all our citizens.”
- “Abolish human poverty.”
- “Eradicate killing and crippling diseases, and lengthen the life span of man to 100 or 120 years.”
- “Eliminate illiteracy.”
- “End open bias and active bigotry.”

And, above all else, help to bring about a day “when nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.”

The visit to Athens was an inning in a trip through Appalachia, Johnson’s second such tour in 13 days, aimed principally at drumming backing for his war on poverty program.

The President flew first to Cumberland, Md., for a speech in which he depicted the anti-poverty program as a campaign of the American Revolution.

From here Johnson flies on to visit six states. The Ohio University address carried on that effort, tying it in with the other goal which Johnson set for Americans.

He said there is in front of young people today the promise of a greater and more hopeful future, and that “we cannot allow this promise to be frustrated by the crude devices of men who seek to bring about a day of darkness and despair.”

Three Strikes by Rail Firemen Called Off After a Few Hours

Locomotive firemen staged short-lived walkouts on three railroads Thursday as an arbitration award eliminating jobs went into effect.

The lines hit were the Pennsylvania Railroad and two small operations in central Illinois, the Toledo, Peoria & Western and the Peoria & Perkin Union Railroad.

The walkout was called off first at the two Illinois switching lines and later at the Pennsylvania’s huge Conway, Pa., yard.

R. J. Strand, Peoria district general chairman of the firemen’s union, acted to stop the strike after he had received a call from union chiefs in Washington.

Pickets appeared at the Conway yard of the Pennsylvania Railroad—the biggest in the country—25 miles northwest of Pittsburgh.

It was the day for the start of eliminating certain firemen under an arbitration award.

The Illinois Central Railroad, for instance, ended the jobs of about 250 firemen.

Campaign Debates Approved for TV

WASHINGTON -- The Senate-House conference approved Thursday a bill designed to clear the way for possible televised debates this year between the Democratic and Republican presidential nominees.

The measure would suspend certain provisions in the communications law which requires broadcasters to make equal time available for all candidates for the presidency before a bill is passed.

SAIGON, South Viet Nam--Premier Nguyen Khanh said Thursday U.S. aid is significant but he would welcome help of any kind from other nations for the war against the Communist guerrillas.

Airliner Crash In California Fatal to 44

CONCORD, Calif.—Forty-four persons died Thursday in the diving crash of a Pacific Airlines plane in rolling coast range foothills 40 miles east of San Francisco.

Witnesses said the Fairchild twin—engine airliner appeared to plunge straight down. The flight had received reports that a smoke plant from one of the plane’s engines was seen just before it crashed.

A Pacific Airlines spokesman said the plane carried 44 passengers, a crew of three, and a special Federal Aviation Agency observer.

Thirty-one passengers had boarded at Reno and nine others at Stockton, Calif., on Pacific’s daily flight 773 from Reno to San Francisco.

Pacific Airlines operates in California, Nevada, and Oregon.

The crash was Pacific Airlines third in 21 years of operations. Twenty-three lives were lost in a 1951 crash near Santa Barbara. A cockpit was killed in a takeoff crash at Santa Maria, Calif., in 1955.

Fullbright Criticizes Greeks and Turks

ANKARA, Turkey -- U.S. Sen. J.W. Fullbright criticized both Greece and Turkey Thursday for their actions in the Cyprus crisis, saying on the last leg of his Cyprus fact-finding mission, the chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee said:

“Congress, and I especially, feel a sense of frustration if our friends and allies are engaged in their own affairs and do not take into consideration the security of the Western world.”

Fullbright went to Ankara after a day in Athens, Greece, and a day in London. He goes to the Netherlands today.

Fullbright again said he did not bring any solution or proposal for Cyprus.

“I am here to learn,” he said, “to find out what is the attitude of the Turkish government.”

Apathy
by Larry MacDonald

Apathy is the lack of creative dynamic leaders to get things moving. Apathy is a direct result of the failure of campus leaders to raise their own standards above the norm. It is the result of too many campus leaders hesitating to stand away from the crowd, speak their minds, and escape the mundane. Too many people seem to think every problem in campus politics is based on communication failures. The problem is majorly that too many student leaders have done nothing to communicate. They talk in terms of beautiful abstractions, while re-creating to the lake for panel discussions and all night bull sessions.

The problem can be solved if the proper people work on it. Let's get those people, many of whom are in Student Government now, busy. Support them and train them when deserved, and we've begun to seriously attack the problem.

1. Good afternoon. Mr. Farkhour. How are you? What type of work are you interested in Tom? Well, I read books, like Shakespeare, and also I read playwrights (to make them feel better). Ah! 2. High! 3. Aaah... I'm... Well... 4. What do you want to be president of when you're through? 5. Good afternoon. Mr. Farkhour. What are you interested in Tom? 6. And I read plays (to make them feel better). Ah! 7. How much does the President's house sound over a year? 150,000 semi-annually. Then you'll take it? 8. Would you, please, 9. And I read playwrights (to make them feel better). Ah! 10. It's a ruin, really. (Remember how you made me laugh?)

New Violence Flares at Cairo
by L. E. J.

CAIRO—It has been reported by an unreliable source that a dangerous mob of two men and three women staged a protest march today in the Southern Illinois city. The protest was aimed at stopping what they termed the unlawful integration of the Ohio River by the St. Louis. The two rivers allegedly met at Cairo, Reporters from the St. Louis asked to see the scene of the allegation but were unable to determine which river was which. The segregation movement has been going on for several weeks and is spear-headed by a group called the Association for the Advancement of Anything. Many of the A.A.A., members are students at SIU. A spokesperson for the group, Windy O'Neal, is reported to have said in a monotonic voice, "We have no problem: we have no problem!" Several other members of the group have been Springfield trying to win the support of Oso Korney, sometimes Governor of Illinois. Governor Korney would not state his position on the matter until he has completed a trip to Chicago to study the problem. Chicago mayor, Ricky Dogy, stated at a news conference that this is an unusual procedure as Korney comes to Chicago often to preserve his health. The A.A.A.'s proposed solution is to build a dam at the confluence of the Mississippi and Ohio, thus keeping the two rivers separate but equal.

Dissonance
by Ken Blumenthal

I met a young music professor the other day, and he recognized me. He spoke up manically and said, "I've read your column to my class and they've ripped you apart—"

"I don't care, theoretically," I said, "goody, goody."

He noted, "Music needs to entertain."

"Oh?" I quipped dramatically.

He trumped his views for thirty bars or so. He looked around cautiously, then whispered metronomically, "My music appreciation classes need not enjoy what they are learning. Whether enjoyed or not, music is a listening experience." As he finished the remark, he looked out of time for he had released a secret of the Department: music need not be enjoyed!

I looked through his ears and lo! the footlighting poured through. He had been brain-washed. O, Wizard of Oz, whether you are—please give my friend a brain, a heart, and courage!

My Epitaph

What is there to say? Everyone runs his cord now, and I have mine. I laugh loudly. Ka is changing and I must move on. If you are starving but now I am tired; music need not be enjoyed.

To my friends I leave the admonition, "Nothing is that holy. To my enemies I leave their own confusion.

Spring Drill to End With Saturday Game

Opening day with bowling Green is a little more than four months away, but Southern Illinois football will be playing like it was only a week away, when it winds up spring drills Saturday.

The Salukis will have to travel to Murphy'sboro for their last intra-squad workout, however, because of poor playing conditions at their own practice field. Coach Don Shroyer could not use the Mounds Stadium because the field is being resodded.

The Salukis will use the old football field at Murphy'sboro High School. The game is scheduled to get underway at 2 p.m.

Although veterans will dominate the first team, several newcomers will occupy key roles tomorrow. Only surprise starter in Southern's backfield, will be back Monty Riffer, but rookies Issac Brigham and Mike McGinnes have taken over tackle and end positions on the right side of the Saluki line ahead of returning lettermen. The prominent roles being ascribed to McGinnes may be an indication of Shroyer's willingness to sacrifice size to gain more speed and aggressiveness.

Riffer, a 185-pound junior who lettered last season and was used almost exclusively as a half back, then impressed the former St. Louis Cardinal assistant during the first five weeks of spring drills.

The Salukis don't give us quite as much power running as exist in the backfield, according to Shroyer. "If we get the ball to Bill Fudila," Shroyer said. "But he's a tough child and depending on the job."

Brigham, who was recently discharged from service, played against the Salukis last year when SIU bowed to Ft. Warren. is at least 18 years of age and holds a current senior citizen's water safety instructor's card.

Along with those five players, Sovich, who coached Southern's freshman football team last year, named Larry Schaeke and Clarence Smith as two more prospects who should make the varsity next year.

Smith, a first baseman, could be the first Negro to play for a Saluki baseball team. But Sovich thinks that Smith might be a year away, "but he will make it."

The Salukis might count on Smith next year to fill the vacancy to be left by graduating Jim Lake.
