Fifteen To Compete For Miss Southern In Contest Today

Fifteen girls will compete today in the annual Miss Southern contest, which is being held as a feature of Spring Festival. The contest will be held this afternoon at 3 p.m. in Shryock auditorium. Afternoon classes will be shortened so that all classes will be dismissed in time for the contest, according to an announcement sent out by the President's office.

In the contest, the entries will be judged in two categories: bathing suits and formal gowns. Judges will select five finalists from the fifteen contestants and will notify them shortly after the contest. The finalists will be presented at the Vaudville show tonight.

The girl receiving the Miss Southern title will be announced at the Spring Festival dance tomorrow night and will see her picture presented in the Carbondale Commercial.

The names of students who will receive scholarships and special awards at the program will be announced in advance.

Miss Southern Contest Opens Activities Today

Miss Southern Festival opens activities today at Southern Illinois University. It's Spring Festival time at Southern Illinois University, and to students, faculty, and administrators alike that phrase means celebration of the largest variety. Advance notices, barring ill feeling from the weather man, point to the largest galaxy of events in Festival history.

Wooody Herman, internationally known radio personality, will hold the orchestra and the real highlight of the gala affair. Herman and his Herd will present a concert in Shryock auditorium at 8 p.m. Saturday, followed by the annual dance in the Men's gym at 9:30 p.m.

Wooody Herman will be the star of the Spring Festival concert and dance. Herman and his Herd, who have just played an extended engagement at the Edgewater Beach Hotel in Chicago, will perform both at the concert and dance. The Old Woodshopper is featuring Do.~y Houston, a beautiful vocalist currently starring with his newly-organized orchestra.

The Agriculture Club will present its second annual livestock Judging Contest Saturday at 8 a.m. Some 35 high schools will be represented in the contest, held for the purpose of acquainting FFA members with the rules of judging livestock. Livestock will be supplied by the SIU Experimental Farm, in conjunction with the Agriculture club on campus.

The Spring Festival parade will start at 11 a.m. tomorrow from the Carbondale Community High School. Organizations entering floats should line up there at 10 a.m., according to the parade co-chairman, Jane Hindman and Gene Johns.

World Student Service Fund Drive
To Begin Monday with Assembly

Southern's World Student Service Fund drive will begin Monday, April 30 with a kick-off assembly in Shryock auditorium at 10 a.m. Correspondence, as revealed by the Secretary of the WSSF organization will speak at the all-school assembly.

Jan Mayer, chairman of the fund drive, has announced that Pat Randle will auction off a collection of talent and steak dinners from the auditorium stage. All the proceeds will go to the Southern WSSF drive.

In addition to the six steak dinners, donated by President D.W. Morris, faculty and people will have an opportunity to bid for the services of the following Phi Mu Alpha Quartz faculty quartet, June Hall, (a Crystal reading), Miss Carbonado Georgia Greenwood, four waitresses; Dolores Hamp, Audrey Mayer, Mary Jo Zimer, and Virginia Stringer pianist Chuck White and organist Vergie Fuch.

The WSSF collections will be started off with a share of the proceeds of the Spring Carnival Midway. Throughout the week of April 30 to May 4, various student organizations will hold carnivals and make collections at the main entrance to the campus.

MONDAY, the collections will be made by representatives of the S.A., Tuesday, the Interfraternity council will present acts, and Wednesday, Gamma Phi Alpha and Alpha Omega will be on duty. The Student Christian foundation, Newman club, and Baptist foundation will be present on Thursday with Anthony Hall and the Pennsylvania Council Sunday for Friday, Carbondale Christian center, an assembly, is expected to arrive in Carbondale Saturday evening and be at a coffee hour: the Student Christian foundation at 9 a.m. Monday, and will speak at the 12:30 S.I. noon chapel services.

At 2 p.m., he will talk to Jack McGinley's Race and Minority Group, and at 5 p.m. be interviewed by B.C. Rotch radio class.

Second Annual Photo Fair to be Held Sunday

Planes have been completed for Southern's second annual Photo Fair. This Sunday, April 29, will charge to C. William Morrel instructor in journalism.

An exhibt of 72 prize-winning photos from the 1950-51 high school photographic contest will feature the Fair, to be held in the auditorium of the Auditorium and Route St. and adjoining buildings.

The fair, held especially for the amateur photographer who shoots pictures and sends the films to the local dealer, to develop will also include demonstrations on improving snapshots, a transfer of printing and simple development and printing along with a slide projection of W.S. Unti's work in the field of photojournalism.

There will be a continuous showing of motion pictures on photography.

Students will join Mr. Rotch in the demonstrations and other work of the week involved in processing film. Photo Fair include: Phyllis Austin, Walker Craig, Dave Anderson, Bill Nohlen, Carl Haag, Olga Weidemann and Bob McManus.

Rotch suggested that everyone planning to attend the Fair bring cans filled with film.

Sussex Exposure
WSSF Makes Three Attempt at Drive
By Harry Reisert

Everyone is probably already planning to attend Spring Festival, so it doesn't have to be too much a reason for not planning to join the sevenshirt, should. Also, if some student happens to be a relative of the weatherman, he might try to get a guarantee of good weather.

The World Student Service Fund drive is about to get started on campus. This makes the third start in three years—but before, the drive never got past the committee stage. We hope that this year we shall see some concrete results. There is not the least doubt of the beneficial service of this fund—a little Coke money will do a great many things for the brothers-in-the-spirit in foreign universities.

We mentioned a couple weeks ago that the faculty show last term was really finished and as entertainment and as a public relations aid. As many students already know, many students must go to the Auditorium to get past to get faculty members to put on such shows for student general viewing, with no success. Recently, we found out why.

One faculty member, who appeared in the show, said the faculty didn't mind doing such a show, but they were a little afraid of the students' attitude. In classes, the prof, said, if the instructor cracks a joke good, but those greater part of the class usually sits or smiles rather than laughs. Think about it for a moment, one sees immediately that this is, unfortunately, true.

It seems that perhaps the instructors sometimes seem informal because students won't let them be otherwise. We hope and believe that the recent show helped break down some of the barriers, and the faculty's fear of it.

The library is now open from 2 to 5 every Sunday, which is fine, but perhaps we are in a position wanting to take a reserve book for the weekend? It has to be back by 5 p.m. Sunday.

Notable visitors in spring sports were—men.

Festival Frolics

Vaudeville Show Will Be Staged Tonight
By Jim Kahlman

It isn't vaudeville, and it isn't slapstick—but not at all of it. It's just a happy, zesty, downhome packed comglorification of the 1951 Spring Festival vaudeville show, entitled "Southern Scandals." The Scandals will take Krohn, Joe Harding, Helen Austin, and Dorothy Paarson.

No, it isn't vaudeville, and it isn't slapstick, but sure enough Jim Trigg. "In fact," he added, "I've never had so much fun in all my life."

Baptist Union To Hold Meeting at Giant City
Rev. W. J. Purdy, pastor of the WSB Baptist Church at East St. Louis, will be the keynote speaker at the state Baptist Student's spring conference to be held at Giant City state park April 27-28.

At each of the three sessions in the theme of the meeting, "New Light on Old Issues," beginning with the surrender evening to be served by Chief Bill Hodge and his staff from the Illinois on Friday, the retreat will continue through the evening meal Saturday.

Students attending will be required to take their own cover and sheets.

No cover of meals and help with other expenses will be a registration fee of $2.50.

Judging from the record last year, more than 100 students are expected to attend the sessions.

Agriculture Club To Hold Judging Contest

Final arrangements have been completed for the second annual Agriculture Club judging contest, to be held in connection with Spring Festival tomorrow.

Over 30 high schools in Southern Illinois are expected to send a team of four boys to judge the livestock.

The contest will get underway tomorrow morning at 8:30 a.m. with registration of entering teams. The judging will begin promptly at 9 a.m. on the old football field. At 2:30 p.m., the awards will be presented from the judging stand located on the south end of the old football field.

The grand prize is a gold cup, donated by Southern Farm Bureau Creameries of Carbondale. This cup will be presented to the team having the highest number of points for judging eight rings of livestock.

National Music Group Installs Chapter Here

Iota chapter of Phi Sigma Mu, national honorary music fraternity, was recently installed here. Kate McEl, assistant professor of music, was installed as the sponsor.

Other members initiated were Margaret Cary and Phillip Olson, southern music instructors; Mary Swindell, vocal instructor of Carbondale city schools; and the following Southern students: Beth McClure, Alna Deane Smith, Beverly Busman, Barbara Aber, Pat Burke, and Betty Gibbion.

This chapter of Phi Sigma Mu, located at Eastern State Teachers College, and Delta chapter of Louisville, Ky., installed the new chapter here. National president of the national honorary music organization, Mrs. Margaret K. Merkam, was also present for the installation.

Girls May Apply Now For New Scholarship

Beta Sigma Phi, a local sorority in Carbondale, is offering a scholarship to any unmarried woman student attending SIU who has at least 40 semester hours credits at the time of receiving benefit from the scholarship and who has at least a four point average.

Title of the scholarship is the June Vick Memorial scholarship. Students meeting the qualifications for the scholarship may apply for it at the Dean of Women's office any time in the very near future.

If enough applications have been received to warrant a fair selection of a recipient of the scholarship, a selection committee in time, the scholarship will be presented at the Honors Day assembly to be held May 27.

Freshmen who have completed at least 48 quarter hours credits at the end of this term and who meet the other requirements are eligible for consideration. During the spring semester juniors and seniors meeting the requirements will also apply.

The scholarship will cover payment of tuition and fees.
