Dawn Sequoia Comes to Sidney
By Kitty Minter
Old tree varieties never die; they just come to Southern Illinois.

As the sun rose on Wednesday, Dawn Sequoia has done. It is now dining in the East Dining Hall, nestled in the tree shadings of the Missouri Botanical Garden.

This tree, which was once a part of the Missouri Botanical Garden, is now a part of the University of Illinois. It was a gift from Dr. Fred Meidinger, President of the University of Illinois.

"When the tree was planted in 1945," Mr. Meidinger said, "it tallied a remarkable growth." "
