Paying Survey Shows
Plenty Of Spaces

A five-day survey was held on the Delphi Campus this week and has been completed by Delta Chi fraternity, according to campus security supervisor of the fraternity, Alan R. Johnson.

The survey was run to find out how extensively parking is used at the Delphi Campus. The survey showed that Delphi students were using a sizable amount of parking spaces on the Delphi Campus.

There are only a few parking lots available on the Delphi Campus, and some of the lots are full all the time. However, the Delphi survey shows that there are plenty of spaces available.

Delta Chi fraternity has just purchased 150 spaces on the parking facilities on the SU campus. There are approximately 300 spaces available at the Delphi Campus.

ISA Has Theme
For Workday

The first day of the new semester for the Delta Chi fraternity is set to begin on Monday, and the fraternity has already planned a workday for its members.

The workday will begin at 9 a.m. in the Student Union, and the fraternity will auction off the items they have purchased during the semester. All proceeds from the auction will go to the SU Foundation.

The workday will end at 4 p.m., and the fraternity will have a party at the Student Union.

Kappa Alpha Psi Delegates
Meet Here This Week

Approximately 75 delegates from Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity are expected to arrive here this week. The delegates will stay in town all week and will participate in activities throughout the week. The delegates are attending the Kappa Alpha Psi convention.

Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity is planning to have a week-long convention in town. The convention will include various activities such as meetings, panel discussions, and social events.

First Marriage Ceremony
Begins Here Tomorrow

All areas are filled with happy faces, and the entire campus is abuzz with excitement. One of the organizers of the wedding is Mr. Smith, Blackburn College's Director of Wedding Services.

Mr. Smith is also the Director of Student Activities, and he is in charge of overseeing all aspects of the wedding.

The wedding will begin at 10 a.m. in the main chapel of the Blackburn College campus. The ceremony will be followed by a reception in the Student Union.

Aqueducts Will Make
Splash At Festival

The festival will be held on Saturday, April 29, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Student Union.

The festival will feature various activities such as aqueducts, water games, and a splash pool. There will also be food vendors, live music, and entertainment throughout the day.

All students, faculty, and staff are welcome to attend the festival.

Baptist Foundation Begins
Ministry Week Monday

The Baptist Foundation will begin its Ministry Week on Monday, April 24, at 9 a.m.

The Ministry Week will include various events such as a service of prayer, a chapel service, and a keynote address by Dr. John R. Rice.

The events will take place in the Student Union, and all are welcome to attend.

The Ministry Week is sponsored by the Baptist Foundation, and it aims to bring together students, faculty, and staff to celebrate the ministry of the church.

Students Elected To Phi Beta Kappa

Two students have been elected to Phi Beta Kappa, the national honor society for the first time in the history of the campus.

The students, who both have a strong academic background, were elected to Phi Beta Kappa during the spring semester.

The campus is planning to hold a ceremony to honor the students.

Debaters Tie
At U.O.I.

The debate team will be competing against the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign this weekend.

The debate team will be defending its national championship, and it will be facing off against a tough opponent.

The debate team is currently ranked number one in the country, and it is looking to add another victory to its record.

IFC Makes Plans For Open
Houses During Freshman Week

Plans for an all-day open house will be held on the campus on Saturday, April 29.

The open houses will be held in various locations across the campus, and there will be food, games, and activities for students.

The open houses are a great opportunity for incoming students to explore the campus and get to know their new classmates.

The campus is planning to have a variety of activities such as tours, workshops, and games.

The open houses are free and open to all students, faculty, and staff.

"Students who are interested in learning more about the campus are encouraged to attend the open houses," said Dr. Johnson. "The open houses are a great opportunity to meet new people and explore the campus."
