Dr. Noy McC. reeves Guggenheim Fellowship

Dr. Harry Noy Moore, literary critic, received the reeves Guggenheim Fellowship. The fellowship is awarded to writers who have distinguished themselves in the field of literature.

The fellowship will aid Dr. Moore to write his latest novel, "The Eclipse of the Moon," which is expected to be published in the fall.

Dr. Moore has written several acclaimed novels, including "The Eclipse of the Moon," which was awarded the National Book Award in 1957.

The reeves Guggenheim Fellowship is administered by the Foundation for the Arts, Inc., and is supported by contributions from foundations, corporations, and individuals.

The reeves Guggenheim Fellowship is awarded to writers, artists, and scholars who have shown exceptional promise and whose work has made significant contributions to the arts and humanities.

The reeves Guggenheim Fellowship is awarded annually to over 100 artists, writers, and scholars, who are selected by a committee of experts in their respective fields.

The fellowship is open to writers, artists, and scholars who have completed a significant body of work and who are ready to pursue a new project.

Applications are due on February 15, and the fellowship recipients will be announced in June.

ON THE GREEN

A more eloquent pièce aver appeared shortly thereafter.

The little sign with a straight to the heart message is lo-ated behind the President’s Office. It really proves the old adage that an ounce of prevention is worth a thousand words.

Southern is fast becoming one of the most beautiful colleges anywhere. And the campus statutes boast a vivid hue of this thing.

Much hard work has gone into the campus lawn. These efforts are in full evidence this spring.

Just one thing: the beauty of the campus—the well

tended shrubs and flowers through the green paths. This path is all right in their place but the campus green is not the place.

The campus was not laid out with a view to making a beautiful one from building to building.

Letter to Editor

Boy Borrows Bicycle

Editor:

I would like to share a personal problem with the rest of the campus, one of whose members is often associated with similar tales. On Friday night, March 7, between 5:30 and 6:30, someone attempted to bicycle me, taking it from a friend of mine.

This is an incident that I trust will not happen again.

In the long run it is up to the students to decide if the campus shall be a dwelling of beauty or a 4-p grosschild chanced in this means that need much more than the air we are waiting to trek to our class. You can not be too careful.

There have been a number of similar incidents involving bicycles on campus. Some have been attacked and others have been stolen. I hope that mine will not be the next. If you will, I will ask the President of the Student Union, whose main interest is the campus, to take action.

I am sure that a student is completing his junior year in the October class, he is entitled to a necessary decoration of his person and I hope that mine will not be the next. If you will, I will ask the

A student should come to school primarily for an education, not for a job or business. By doing so, you will be more interested in your school work, and you will learn more in less time. This is because education is not just about learning facts and figures, but it is about gaining knowledge and understanding. A student should come to school primarily for an education, not just to pass exams or get good grades. By doing so, you will be more interested in your school work, and you will learn more in less time.
