APO Makes Final Plans Thursday for Annual 'Ugly Man' Contest

Final plans for Alpha Phi Omega’s annual contest have been detailed Thursday by the committee which was asked to formulate plans for the event last week. The contest was formed to celebrate the 66th birthday of the Student Union building.

The contest will run from April 16 through May 1 at 6 p.m., when the voting will cease. Each student must cast one vote, and one person per representative group must be chosen for the final contest. The voting will be done by the Step Committee, and the committee will then announce the contest plans.

The contest will be divided into four categories: posters, which will be used by the service organization committee; music, which will be performed by the Saubel Band; and the Student Union building.

The winner will be announced by the Student Union building committee, and the committee will then announce the contest plans.

5 Area Communities To See Southern Players Spring Tour

The Southern Players have been booking their fourth tour of the spring season beginning March 19 in Marion. Ray Fink, professor of speech and director of the Players, named 12 professional and student actors to make the tour, meeting 12 weeks of rehearsal and experience in comedy and drama. Companions for the tour are B. T. and Edith Endlund, the Halls, and the Logans.

The tour opened in Marion Monday night at the Marion Opera House with a program consisting of nine one-act plays. The tour will continue for a month, stopping in Charleston, Carbondale, and other small towns.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hinchliff will be directors of the tour, and the box office will be open at the door of the Various Theaters.

The tour will be open to the public and the tickets are on sale at the box office.
