A Look At ROTC

A role in which companionship and leadership are fundamentals. ROTC is a program that is designed to prepare cadets to be ready to serve their country in the event of war. The program is open to any student who meets the requitions. The program includes leadership training, military training, and academic requirements. Students who join ROTC will receive a certification upon completion of the program. ROTC is a voluntary program. Traditionally, ROTC students are from the military and are interested in pursuing a career in the armed forces.

At present three land-grant universities in the United States—Indiana University Aliquippa, Illinois State—out of 6 land-grant universities in the United States, Ohio State, Wisconsin, Washington States—offer ROTC programs. The number of ROTC students is increasing each year.

Eliminating the Army and Military programs and concentrating on the Air Force does not mean that the cadets will not be prepared. It means that the cadets will be prepared for any role in the military.

The Air Force ROTC program is designed to prepare the cadets for any role in the military. The program includes leadership training, military
training, and academic requirements. Students who join the Air Force ROTC will receive a certification upon completion of the program.

Mondrell, master printer; T. A. and Mrs. J. M. Zinns, hostesses; the Alpha Gamma chapter dinner was held Sunday evening. With Sigma Phi Pi induction of the newly elected officers, the evening was highlighted. The names of the new officers were Alpha Gamma Delta and Mary Fratmann. "Fraternity is fun, so take part and be part of the fun!" were the words carried out by the Sigma Phi Pi representatives for the Sigma Phi Pi initiation. Other members present for this initiation were the jewels of the chapter and the new officers for the year.

The election for next year's officers will be held at Chapter Night coming up.

KLEVNER IN "IN THE WORKSHOP"

"To Smokey Joe's Cafe" was the question at the recent Center Education Workshop in our College Activities Center. The film, a 70-minute, black-and-white feature produced by the National Board of Review, New York, focuses on the plight of the black man in America. The film is directed by William W. Donner and produced by Robert A. O'Connell.

The film was shown to the group because of the many advantages it might have in providing a search for understanding the problems of the Negro and the problems of American society. The film was shown to the students because of the many advantages it might have in providing a search for understanding the problems of the Negro and the problems of American society.

The Sadlier Iliini, Minnesota Gymnasts Meet Salukis Here Tonight

Bill Mandel and his Sadlier Iliini boys broke out the scissors tonight to run through the toughest assignments of the season tonight as they host the Ohio State University and the University of Illinois. The meet will begin at 7:30 p.m.

We'll have Sadliers from two local basketball contests in the gymnasium tonight with the Sadliers meeting the Ohio State team tonight, and then two local basketball contests in the gymnasium tomorrow with the Sadliers meeting the University of Illinois team.

Purdue, who brings his Illini to Purdue tonight for a double dual with the Sadliers and Minnesota, is still among Southeast Conference leaders with a 1-0 record so far this season.

The Sadliers will be bringing a 4-2 record to the meet.

Iliini's Gymnastics bring up an 8-1 record to the meet. Purdue has won over 20 individual state championships this season, but they are also up to a 5-1 dual record.

Purdue coach D. J. Heath says his team will have to face the Sadliers tonight. Purdue is a 5-1 team, and Minnesota is 5-2 Mississippi Valley State.

Two of the Illini have won the individual state championships in the meet, one who is a butterfly and 100 yards freestyle winner Paul Vail, and a breaststroke winner, a four year varsity swimmer, a two-year varsity swimmer.

Sadliers have two dual meets and one trip to Purdue this season. Vail is a five year varsity swimmer, a two-time state champion at 200 yards freestyle.

1.00 individual races on both teams.

The Sadliers will be bringing up an 8-1 record to the meet.
