'Where Are Cowboys And Indians? I Had Heard So Much About Them'

Foreign prison officials studying crimes and corrections at SIU are quick to agree that United States prison techniques are very impressive.

But they are disappointed nevertheless—they have not seen any cowboys or Indians yet.

"Prior to coming to the U.S., I thought I would see many cowboys and Indians," said Captain Ahmou Jema Elmi, commandant of Central Prison in Mandera, "I had heard so much about them."

On a more serious side, Elmi continued: "We had heard much about racial dis-..."

President To Ask $99 Billion Budget

WASHINGTON --

President Kennedy sends to Congress today (Thursday) his new budget which is expected to call for an unprecedented $99 billion in spending.

Tied to his plan for tax cuts aimed at spurring the nation's economy, the budget is expected to recommend outlays exceeding federal income by more than $10 billion during the fiscal year starting next July 1.

The tax program, which Kennedy unveiled in his State of the Union message Monday, is expected to slice about $6 billion off tax receipts in the next fiscal year.

Kennedy said the new budget will allow for needed rises in defense, space and fixed interest charges. But he said it will hold total expenditures for all other purposes below this year's level.

This is likely to mean that both the budget and the administration's three-year tax cutting program will run into trouble from members of Congress who insist that the budget ought to be balanced or nearly so.

When It Comes To Foreign Jobs

Howard P. French, a visiting lecturer in foreign languages at SIU this year, has a statewide teaching assignment for the first time in three years.

French, a native of Mount Carmel, Ill., came to the SIU campus as a week's expert from Moscow for the first time.

During his term of residence, this summer, at the Russian Institute of Literature and Art, he has been working on research in Russian and German and has been studying Russian literature.

The course, which is open to all students, is scheduled for the summer of 1963, at which time French will be back in Russia.

This summer French will serve as conversation-advisory-program position instructor of SIU's summer institute for teachers of German, sponsored by the U.S. Office of Education.

French was an assistant professor of German at the University of Idaho and the University of Oklahoma prior to the overseas assignments headed the Department of German at Davidson (N.C.) College.

ASSOCIATED PRESS ROUNDP:

President Kennedy asked Congress Wednesday to provide more than $1.4 billion for water projects to be built by Army engineers and the Reclamation Service in the fiscal year starting July 1.

This was nearly $100 million above the total which Congress gave the agencies for fiscal 1962. It would finance a major expansion of the Reclamation Service and preparedness. It is expected to slice about $6 billion off tax receipts in the next fiscal year.

The Employee Government Needs revision. Inadequacies of the present Constitution concern the function and responsibilities of committees has caused repeated disagreement between the Student Council and the President. The President of the Student Body feels that it is the job of a committee to gather the facts before voting a bill to the floor. The committees are then a judgment is an executive responsibility.

The result has been a failure of the part of the committee to play their rightful part in the Legislative process.

The Constitution is not explicit on this subject and should be changed so that there is no doubt about what a committee is supposed to do. A Student Government committee should also include a means of enforcing its provisions.

As one step toward a solution to the problem of inactive committees, committees could be required to submit a written report, including aspects of the bill that were considered, the committee's vote on the bill and their recommendation, when reporting a bill out to the floor.

An additional matter might be suggested the hiring of a full-time Student Government employee. His function would be to general liaison between the executive and legislative branches. He could call committee meetings and serve as an ex-officio member on each committee.

The most important objective of the liaison man would be to assure that the Student Council play the important deliberative role it was intended to play so that they should have in a legislative body.

To a majority of the council members, a position on the Student Council is simply a status symbol. The council prefers to devote its time to social activities, functioning only on Thursday night.

One way of eliminating the social aspect of Student Council would be to establish a student government committee.

Carmen Piccone, SIU football head coach, is extremely happy with the free substitution rule just passed by the NCAA Board.

"The free substitution rule will allow us to use our best boys in all football situations," Piccone says. "While it will help us, it will also help our opponents."

"The rule change should make us stronger for next season," Piccone said. "Our schedule's tough but the change in rules will help eliminate some of the problems we would have encountered without it."

IM Bowling Could Use More Teams

There are a few team openings still available for the SIU intramural bowling league, according to Henry Villani, manager of the University Center bowling lanes.

The circuit is divided into leagues on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at 6 p.m.; Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at 9 p.m.; and Saturday at 1:30 and 8 p.m.

A coed league will roll games Sundays at 2 p.m.

The league will use the four-point system in which a point is awarded for each game won in a series plus a point for high individual.

All matches will consist of three games on a round robin basis and are operating on a 90 per cent handicap.

Winners of each division will meet in a single elimination tournament to determine an overall champion with trophies for the winners at stake.

Trophies are also awarded for the overall high individual three games; high individual game and high average.

Piccone has decided to point this recruiting this season toward the junior college and armed services teams.

"We must recruit boys who will be available immediately for competition," Piccone for operations," Piccone says. "With our schedule we need the experienced and more mature boy, who will be able to help us right away."

"Even though we are recruiting the service and junior college teams," Piccone said, "we are still looking for the good high school boys who can help us in the future."

"We hope to get six or seven good junior college boys and the rest will come from the high school ranks," Piccone said.

The NCAA passed the free substitution rule but added a few restrictions at the same time.

The new NCAA rule allows a coach to substitute any time the clock is stopped from first through third downs. On fourth down and when the ball changes hands a team may substitute two men—whether the clock is stopped or not.

In connection with the new change the number of time outs during a half was reduced from five per team to three.

Other action at the three-day NCAA Rules Committee conference included a rule allowing the T-formation quarterback to receive a pass after he had handed the ball.

Next fall SIU will play five major college opponents—Bowling Green, North Texas State, Louisville, Tulsa and Toledo.

Hartzog Lines Up Tough Schedule For Trackmen

SIU placed fourth last year in the NCAA track championship but Lew Harrington had lined up a top-flight indoor and outdoor schedule which he hopes will prepare the Salukis for a higher finish this spring.

With three All-American performers in Jim Dupree, Bill Cornwell, and Brian Turner bolstering its squad, Southern Illinois will launch its season Feb. 9 after opening the season Feb. 5. Harrington forecasts a successful meet.

The University chaper of Future Farmers of America will hold a meeting on Tuesdays, Jan. 22 at 7:30 p.m. in the Agriculture Building Seminar Room.

The program will feature reports on experiences in student teaching.

Larry Tucker, former SIU standout pitcher, has been named to a position on the United States 18-man squad which will compete in the Pan-American Games at Sao Paulo, Brazil.

Tucker, most valuable player at SIU and the Intercollegiate Athletic Conference last spring, won 27 of 36 games during his collegiate career, including 20 of 22 decisions in league play while spearheading Coach Glenn Martin's Salukis to four straight conference championships.

Coaching the U.S., delegations will be Archie Allen, veteran baseball coach and associate professor of physical education at Springfield (Ill.) College, Allen has appointed Art Riechle, head coach at California and West Lawrence of the U.S. Air Force Academy, as his assistant.

 Allen is expected to assemble this country's top amateur stars at Tigerton, Fla. (near Bradenton) for a week of intensive training April 12-19.

A few days later they will leave by plane for Sao Paulo where they are due to arrive on the 22nd and start competition on the following day.

As a freshman Tucker established a new SIU record for pitchers when he posted a 9-0 record and had a .760 earned run average.

Last season, although enjoying another fine season on the mound with a 7-3 mark, Tucker's only record was at the plate where he set another school record with three two-base hits in a single game.

Tucker performed for the East All-Stars in the 1960 amateur world series and gained two wins while playing under Martin who coached the victorious East team.

Linder appears to be the best sixth man on any past SIU squad. Once the game starts Linder comes off the bench to turn in brilliant performances. But if he starts he doesn't do as well. "I can't explain the ability to do better in reserve roles than starting," Linder said. "I just go out every time and try to do my best."

"Basketball is my whole life," Linder commented, while relaxing before the SIU-Southeast Missouri game. "I have played the game since I was a little kid and love the game!"

Coach Jim Wilkinson is already looking forward to next year's wrestling season with great optimism because this year's freshman wrestling squad boasts of ten all-stars.

Wilkinson has a right to be high on his game because the combined won-loss record of the entire team of 10 wrestlers is 19-12-1 which was compiled in their senior year.

The all-stars include a 120-pounder, Billy Hoyt from Naperville who Wilkinson terms as a "first class college prospect." Hoyt placed third in the state last year and had a 28-1 slate.

Roger Bloodworth, Granite City, was all-state in the 120-pound class last year. Bloodworth compiled a fine 30-1-1 record, Jim Giambarbera placed second in the state last year behind Bloodworth in the 120-pound weight class. The Oak Grove standout man posted a 30-1 record last year.

In the 130-pound class, Wilkinson lists two strong candidates in Don Schnieder and Dennis Giorlando, both in their senior years. Schnieder, who is from Provost East took third 130-pound state title while piling up a 22-2-2 record. Wilkinson terms Schnieder as the "beast college prospect in the country." The 130-pounder has already proved out Wilkinson's statement by defeating Paul Unrich, Kansas State All-American, in the Great Plains AAU at Lincoln, Neb., earlier this year. The 130-pounder is probably make the Salukis one third last year in the state sectional and win," Wilkinson said.
