Pam Gilbert Chosen Miss Southern Of 1962

Miss Pam Gilbert

Sigma Pi - Tekes Win Grand Prize For Midway Show

Pam Gilbert, a willowy brunet with dark brown eyes, is the 1962 Miss Southern. Miss Gilbert's selection highlighted the weekend of Spring festival activities that included the annual campus parade, a dance and Mom's Day picnic.

A junior in special education from Carbondale, she was picked for the title over four other finalists on the basis of personality, talent and beauty.

Miss Gilbert, who was sponsored by Phi Kappa Tau fraternity, is a representative Carbondale in the Miss Illinois contest later this year. The Carbondale Chamber of Commerce will be her sponsor.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Gilbert of Carbondale. Her father is an attorney and her grandfather was an SIU professor.

Miss Southern finalists were Linda Boals, junior speech major from Effingham, Ill.; Sandy Horning, sophomore physical education major from Peoria, Ill.; Virginia Milton, sophomore secretarial business major from Benton, Ill.; and Kay Wood, ruff, sophomore elementary education and Spanish major from Hillboro, Ill.

According to Elizabeth Mullins, co-ordinator of student tickets, 1,000 tickets were sold to the thousands of people who attended the friendly atmosphere. Friday and Saturday. Despite a near tornado Thursday night which greatly damaged the Phi Kappa Tau-Sigma Kappa entry, conditions were perfect in time for review by the judges.

Sigma Pi and Tau Kappa Epsilon received 468 out of a possible 500 points on their show "Adventures in Art" to win the midway grand champion trophy. Winners in the shows category were: Sigma Sigma Sigma-Theta Xi, first; "Fort Frolic." Delta Chi-Alpha Delta Gamma Delta, second; "New Orleans Blues," Sigma Kappa-Phi Kappa Tau, honorable mention, "Lollipop Lounge."

In the display competition: Saluki Flying Club, first; Oebelink (yearbook); second; University Center Student Programming Board, honorable mention. Winning booths were: Theta Xi, first, "Squatter" on the quarter; Pierce Hall-Alpha Sigma Sigma - Theta Xi, second, "Fort Frolic;" Delta Chi-Alpha Delta Gamma Delta, honorable mention, "Lollipop Lounge."

Two contests highlighted the Sunday festival activities near Lake-on-the-Campus. The beach, bully contest was won by John Allison, sponsored by Delta Zeta. Trudy Kulesa and Michael Kulesa, who thought they were the most likely by winning the limbo contest.

WASHINGTON -- Thailand has agreed to admit U.S. combat Marines from the 7th Fleet and will get further U.S. aid to shore up its anti-communist defenses, sources said today.

Information said Gen. Paul D. Harkins, U.S. military advisory commander in South Viet Nam, conferred with Thai authorities Sunday and was given consent for the Marine landings.

Pentagon sources said no decision has been made on if or when the Marine battalion landing team would go into Thailand.

It was indicated that about 1,000 Marines would be land-ed if the U.S. order was issued, and that these would be used to augment the 1,000 men of the 27th Army Infantry Regiment's battle group which is expected to move up to the Mekong River area in northeast Thailand shortly. Sources said the U.S. troops could be expected to "to take physical military action" to prevent Communist forces from penetrating Thailand, if the Thai's invoke the SEATO treaty or a bilateral agreement between the United States and Thailand.

WASHINGTON -- Senator Thomas Dodd, D-Conn., said Monday sex violence on television became worse instead of better during the period in which the industry planned a cleanup.

Dodd made the comments as his Senate subcommittee quizzed Frank Stanton, President of Columbia Broadcasting System.

ATHENS Greece -- Prince Souvignier of Greece announced that he and Princess of Spain's House of Bourbon, the newly married son of the present king, in a Catholic church, and the tall, brown-haired princess in a white dress, so it took two ceremonies to seal their union.

NLA -- A small in U.S. Philippine relations led President Diosado Macapagal to put off indefinitely a 12-day state visit to the United States next month. The issue was a rejection by the U.S. House of Representatives last Wednesday of a bill to appropriate $75 million for payment of claims lodged by 86,000 Filipinos for damages from U.S. operations in those islands in World War II.

Gene Wilkey, CBS TV Veep, Here Tonight

Gene Wilkey, vice-president of CBS television stations division, and general manager of KMOX-TV, St. Louis, will speak tonight at 7 p.m. in Browne Auditorium.

He has been general manager of KMOX-TV since March, 1958, and vice-president of the network television stations division since June, 1959.

Wilkey will appear on a "Jobs in Journalism" program sponsored by the Department of Journalism and Journalism Students Association.

In Music Under The Stars

Approximately 1,400 area musicians will present Southern Illinois University’s annual “Music Under the Stars” program Saturday, at 7:30 p.m. in McAndrew Stadium.

Guest artist, Jack Drummond, a musical comedy star, will be featured in the music festival. Drummond, a baritone, has performed in “South Pacific” and “Oklahoma,” and the London run of the musical, “Plain and Fancy.”

An element choir, a high school band, and an orchestra consisting of both area high school students and adults who have an interest in music will provide musical variety as each group performs separately. Later in the evening, all of the students will combine their talents into one spectacular accounting that evening. All of the students will be served in the ballroom of the University Center for the directors of the musical groups and for those extended as invitation.

The University Glee Club, under the direction of Kingsbury, will perform for this group immediately following the dinner.

The public is invited to attend “Music Under the Stars” Saturday evening May 19 at 7:30. Admission is $1.00 for adults and 50¢ for children under the age of 12.

Council To Seek Student Pay Raise

The Student Council will investigate the possibility of obtaining a minimum wage increase in student employees’ hourly wages.

At its regular meeting Thursday night, the Council voted to petition the Student Body President Dick Childers and President-Elect Bill Pennick to explore the possibilities of the hoped for increase in student wages.

There was also a discussion concerning the possibility of granting student workers a sick leave pay. However, Childers pointed out that, according to student policy, student employees are not eligible to receive sick pay allowances—established by the state Civil Service Merit Board. In addition, Childers suggested that the Council consider the benefit a raise in student wages would be. Appropriations for sick leave pay would entail so extensive a program of bookkeeping and accounting that it would be better to put the money into student salaries, he said.

In other Council action, it was approved that Rich Emde, International Affairs Commissioner, be directed to examine the possibility of having Japanese included in the foreign language curriculum. As reported to the Council, the cost for the additional language course would amount to $180, which would cover the cost of conducting four classes a week and a discussion period.

Jack Drummond

It was also announced that Spring Leadership Conference will be held on May 20. The theme of the conference will be the “Campus-Community Relations,” with the role SIU students will play in the future plans of Carbondale, will be emphasized.

Are Swiss Schools Really Better Than Ours?

Admiral Rickover Says So In New Book
But Reviewers Question His Thesis

Having just completed his perusal of the good Admiral's latest indictment of American education, this reviewer received a noted Swiss author, Frederick T. Brighouse, president of California Institute of Technology (and scarcely a dewy-eyed apostle for the education in this country) to the effect that "high schools are getting better, but captured by the superior group so that the colleges are having to adjust their programs to take account of the ability of their freshmen." Their advanced college work than their predecessors of five or ten years ago.

As the freshen have improved, we have been asking the same questions of our college courses in order to keep up. Our college courses in the 1960s were having to adjust to the abilities of our freshmen of today except, of course, those freshmen of ten years ago who had to go through the high school in the 1950s.

It would be difficult to imagine a point of view more consistently held by Admiral Rickover's than that of DuBridge. The thoughtful reader will conclude, in all probability, that the board of examiners, the faculty, and the students of our universities appear to be doing whatever they can to make sure that their students have the best education possible.

(3) A nation's schools, as an institution of society, are culturally conditioned; they will be what the supporting society wants them to be, or they will perish. Herein lies the paradox of American education. Rickover shows occasional glimmerings of this insight, but he never develops the idea that, holding himself mostly to obviousness (e.g., disregard of differences in cultural homogeneity), repetition of such statements as "Most of our universities appear to consider themselves public service stations where anything anybody wants must be taught and awarded a doctorate," (p. 81 and on, ad nauseam.)

(4) Although the book is generally well written and contains some references to the English literature, the reader will be surprised to find that the most casual secondary source can be relied upon; in fact, the most casual secondary source is not sufficient; the most casual reader, as the reader is defined by the board of examiners, lack of standards, and lack of quality control that the school system has

The Board of Education, which is responsible for the Educational System of the Swiss, has been in existence for Basic Education since 1949. It was established in order to make all educational opportunities available to all citizens, to improve the quality of education, and to ensure that the schools are operating under the rules and regulations established by the Federal Government.

The review is written by Arthur E. Leach. He is a noted author and journalist who has written extensively on education, history, and politics. He is known for his critical approach to issues and his ability to engage readers with his thoughtful analysis.

The book is recommended for anyone interested in education reform, the role of government in education, and the importance of cultural conditioning in shaping educational outcomes. It is a must-read for educators, policymakers, and anyone concerned about the future of education in the United States and around the world.
Saluki Trackmen Defeat Oklahoma

Led by record-breaking performances from Sam Silas, Jim Dupree, Bill Cornell, Brian Turner and the mile relay team, SIU easily defeated Oklahoma State, 79-57, Saturday night in McAndrew Stadium.

It was Southern's first win against major track competition in its athletic history and was sweet revenge for Lew Harmot, who just a year ago watched his team lose to Oklahoma State, 88-48.

Jim Dupree set new school and stadium records in the half-mile with his 1:48.8 clocking. His winning time is only three-tenths of a second off the time of last year when he won the National AAU half-mile championship.

Southern's two British runners—Bill Cornell and Brian T. Colle—have also posted school records too. Cornell lowered his own school and stadium records in the mile from 4:02.8 to 4:02.7.

Turner broke Joe Thomas' two-mile school record of 9:11.7 with a 9:10.4 time.

In the shot put Sam Silas broke his own school record for the second straight week.

SIU Leaving IIAC With Lion's Share Of Sports Titles

The Interstate Intercollegiate Athletic Conference was scheduled for its first shake-up in members June 30 when SIU and Eastern Michigan withdraw.

The seven member conference was founded in 1950 consisting of Northern Illinois, Eastern Illinois, Illinois State, Western Illinois, Central Michigan, SIU and Eastern Michigan.

SIU and Eastern Michigan are severing ties with the IIAC because of inapplicable philosophies.

SIU currently is engaging in active recruiting and is showing a big-time status in athletics. Eastern Michigan, however, says the IIAC is too small for its athletic director's philosophy.

During the past four years SIU has been the IIAC power winning all the sports trophies for the past three years.

Last year Southern won nine of the 16 possible sports titles. Tennis was the only title it failed to win.

Baseball Squad Wins 2 Games, Loses One To Western Illinois

Already possessing four straight Interstate Conference baseball titles, SIU moved closer in its bid for a fifth straight title by winning two of three games from Western Illinois.

Coach Glenn Martin's baseball team won the first two games of the series 9-1 and 7-2 to extend its winning streak to eight straight. However, Western snapped the winning streak in Saturday's highpact with a 7-4 win.

The Salukis are perched atop of the IIAC baseball race with a 2-2 record while Central Michigan is in second place at 9-2.

Central Michigan and SIU collide at Chautauqua baseball field Friday and Saturday for a three game series that will probably decide the conference championship.

Back-to-back home runs by Bob Hardcastle and Mel Patton highlighted Southern's 9-1 victory. Larry Tucker picked up the pitching victory.

Glen Bischof and Mike Pratte collected three hits each to give Harry Gurley the hitting support he needed to nail down the 7-2 win.

In the series final Western limited the Salukis to four hits winning 7-4.

Two injuries to key personnel, however, dampened the world of Martin. Leg injuries to pitcher Jim Woods and outfielder John Siebel have Martin worrying about their condition. Medicin doctors were not able to diagnose the boys' injuries.

Tennis Team Splits Matches In Indiana

SIU's tennis team won one of two matches at South Bend (Ind.) the past weekend. SIU handed Western Michigan a 7-2 setback and then lost to the Fighting Irish of Notre Dame, 8-3.

Southern won five of six singles matches and two of the three doubles matches for its 7-2 win over Western Michigan.

Coach Dick LeFevre's netmen against Notre Dame won only two of the six singles matches and one of three doubles matches for their 7-2 loss.

Pacho Castillo and John Geremich won both of their singles matches.

Castillo now has won 11 of his last 12 matches while Geremich has a 12 match winning streak going into this week's IIAC championships at Western Illinois.

SIU Alumni Plan Vacation Program

Southern alumni have been invited to participate in a family vacation camping program, sponsored by the SIU Alumni Association.

The three one-week periods will be held at Little Grassy Lake during the month of August. Dates for this year's camp will be Aug. 12-18, 19-25 and Aug. 26 to Sept. 1. Campers will be able to choose one of three programs. Under the first plan, campers come to Little Grassy for a completely planned program. All meals are included and campers use aluminum screened cabins. For those who want to bring their own gear, but wish to take their meals in the camp dining hall there is a special rate.

A third plan is available for those who wish to provide and cook their own food as well as bring their own equipment.

JACK HARTMAN, SIU's new basketball coach, will be on campus this week to confer with athletic department officials and to look for a house. He will move his family here from Champaign, Ill., early next month.

Planned activity for the campers will include swimming, hiking, boating, use of the rifle range, stables, archery range, study courses in nature and Indian lore, group singing, cookouts and handicrafts.

Alumni wishing further information may contact the alumni office.
