It is also the last day a student may apply under the reserve commissions Act of 1950. The reserve commissions Act provides a proposal to register all voters in advance of campus elections. This will eliminate the existing requirement that students have to show proof of payment of activity fees. However, because the details have not been worked out, the upcoming campus elections on May 6 will be run in the usual fashion, according to the Design Department.

Virus Research to Continue With Help of $22,525 Grant

A $22,525 grant to support a genetic study of vesicular stomatitis viruses in animals has been awarded to two SIU research groups by the National Institutes of Health.

The award, granted to Isaac L. Shroeder and David D. Pittman of the SIU Microbiology Department, is for continuation of a project which received NIH support last year. The supporting agency is part of the U.S. Public Health Service.

The research project includes work with mutants of the vesicular stomatitis virus, which is responsible for a disease in cattle and horses which is similar in appearance to hoof and mouth disease in pigs but is a relatively mild infection.

Reports related to the research are to be given at two upcoming scientific meetings. A paper dealing with the effect of the virus mutants on mice was given at the annual meeting of the American Association of Immunologists in Chicago Monday, and a paper dealing with methods of obtaining and classifying mutants will be presented before the American Society for Microbiologists in Washington, D.C., May 4.

Gains in Rail Talks Reported; But Some Issues Unresolved
WASHINGTON--The White House said Monday that federal mediators have reported to President Johnson "some definite gains" in emergency railroad bargaining talks aimed at averting a nationwide strike.

"However," said White House press secretary George Reedy, "there are some very difficult issues that still remain.

And whether Johnson was satisfied with a report made at about 10 p.m., Sunday, Reedy said, "Obviously the only thing that would be satisfactory is a settlement."

He said Johnson commended both sides "for the gains they have made, and urged them to re-double their efforts to settle the five-year long work rules dispute."

Johnson reportedly met with federal mediators and negotiators for both sides Sunday night for a report on the 10-day-old talks, which he hopes will avert a nationwide strike Saturday.

Reedy described the negotiators and mediators as "a group of very weary men."

They have been talking for 10 hours a day since Johnson has made voluntary strike postponement for 15 days, which expires at midnight Saturday.

U.S. Warns Cuba About Our Planes
WASHINGTON--The State Department warned Cuba Monday that any interference by the Castro government with U.S. reconnaissance flights over Cuba would "create a highly dangerous situation."

The warning came amid reports that remaining Soviet troops in Cuba are soon to turn over control of 24 antibiotic missile bases to Prime Minister Fidel Castro as one of their acts before returning to the Soviet Union.

Castro said in a speech broadcast Sunday from Havana that Cuba would not tolerate violations of its sovereignty by American airplanes, He implied the possible use of force to stop further flights.

Campus Elections

New Campaign Rules Listed; Poster Display Emphasized

Fred Rauch, student body elections commissioner, has announced a new set of campaigning rules for all campus elections, with emphasis on regularity.

According to the new regulations, no poster shall be displayed until the 15th day before the first day of the election.

Posters, unless they are stamped by the Activities Development Center, shall not be displayed in Thompson Woods, on or in the University Center, or on or in the University School (Pulliam Hall), on or in the Student Center, or on any windows other than those of living units. Tacked or stapled to a tree, attached to a post and secured in the ground, closer than 50 feet to the polling place.

The candidate may speak at a University-sponsored event without the permission of the chairman of the Election Commission.

All voters must have the proper identification — a plastic identification card and a valid fee statement and certification of registration (activity card).

These rules are the set procedure of the Election Commission. All violations of these rules will result in removal of the candidate, Rauch said. In the case of misplaced posters, the Commission will hold special hearings to determine whether the fault lies with the candidate or another party.

It is the responsibility of each candidate to see that all of his campaign workers are well informed of the Commission's campaign rules, Rauch added.

A Hat in the Ring

Perhaps we should trot out an aproposely sober lesson on the values of student government. It would be simpler, however, to stress that campus elections will be May 6. Only 10 days—April 21—remain to file petitions.

Consider seriously putting yourself in old Carleton's shoes. The quality of student government depends just as much on those who offer themselves for offices as upon a reasonable vote. Do you discover what it's all about?

Resident, it could be fun. Consider...

A campus campaign is a fine opportunity to do a little thinking on First Principles. Enforce Groucho's maxim, “I can't see how I'd rather let democracy go to waste.”

All the handshaking is good exercise, too. Rumor has it that one fast-talking campaigner last year persuaded the Department of Physical Education to accept all that hand-pumping as Personal Design credit. It's also a good way, we hear, to cure the various illancies stemming from too close association with the books.

The hazards of a campus campaign hardly match those in New Hampshire, for instance—no endless series of clam-bakes and barbecues, no national press or television, no babies to kiss. Up for grabs May 6 will be the student body presidency and vice presidency and the parchment seats on the All-University Student Council, petitions requiring 75 signatures.

Pettions are available at the University Information Desk and must be returned there by May 1.

Why not throw your hat in the ring?

I would like to ask: "How does this sound to you?

The fact that we can devote every possible defense.enrichment to this cause is a great measure because we did not appreciate them enough to want to preserve them.

Number one is war, or like to see a missile on campus reminding us that we have to go to work. But we have not had one better solution to preserve our democratic way of life.

Is Johnson Story a Campaign Smeer?

NP's statement at the end of Terry Meyers' letter (Objection Raised to Johnson Story," April 16) indicates that NP is as blind as the Associated Press writers.

Does NP really expect us to believe the story "report what they see," or rather, report what they want to see and hope that others will believe?

Heroes' Story in the Fight for Equality at Georgia U.

An Education in Georgia, by Carol Calvin Trillin, Viking Press, 1964, pp. 180, $3.95.

Historically, the integration of the University of Georgia was a significant achievement. The records show that over the years, the integration of the higher education segregation laws of the Deep South. But what was it like for the student heroes, Charlayne Hunter and Hamilton Holmes? Is this a question that Time magazine Trillin asked in his "An Education in Georgia,"

Trillin attended the court fight which ended Hunter's and Holmes' 18-month struggle for admission to this all-white university. He covered their first year, yet courage and met the University of this all-white World's Fair in 1963. But previous to this, they had chosen to live this path. Education in Georgia reveals, not the problems of desegregation, but the predicament of two intelligent young people facing the hostility of their peers and the world. When Holmes and Miss Hunter graduated in June, 1963, the University of their Georgia's records and transcripts, records which...

Attack on Defense Spending Called a Waste of Time

One day last week I was fortunate enough to find a copy of a mimeographed sheet entitled "How Does This Sound to You?" The only good thing about the world seemed to be the opportunity to give the students an avenue of expressing their feelings about the U. S. defense appropriations. I do not deny his right to express his sentiments, but the facts which he chose to point out to his audience in his letter "A War Protest," Mr. Meyers, I do not deny your right to express your views. But I do believe that the statements you make are based on half-truths and are not the facts which you have left to the University of Georgia.

As a member of the Society of Friends I am directly opposed to the kind of "thinking" represented by this imposing object. In my classes in English literature I try not to indoctrinate my students with my beliefs; consequently I greatly respect such indecision taking place a few steps from my classroom.

I would like to protest the placement of a B o m a r c h display called "A Strongman's Tactic." I believe that the display should be a place for free discussion of ideas. It seems obvious that such a device is needed to represent such discussion.

Bill Wolf Injured In Iowa City Meet

Bill Wolf suffered a big setback and at the same time forestalled the defense of the NCAA title next season to bolster SIU's defending championships at Iowa City, Iowa.

Wolf, on whom the Salukis are counting as the successor to Mitchell in their defense of the NCAA title next year, went into surgery last week with Doctor's Hospital Monday morning for a damaged knee and several tendons in his leg. Wolf did not suffer any broken bones, as was previously reported, and will probably leave the hospital in five or six days.

Wolf was injured in a dormant from a high bar.

It was believed that the California star, who just completed his final season of competition at Southern, would be lost to the Salukis for good.

There is strong possibility, however, that Wolf will be back in action next year to bolster SIU's defending championships.

Wolf was in good spirits Sunday night and was already exercising the leg. He himself did not know how he suffered the injury but he said his leg just gave way of its own accord after scoring a 98 to lead the field.

The medial tendon—located on the inside of the leg—was severed. The tendon is a major one and is the one which gives stability in movement from left to right.

At the same time as Wolf's injury, SIU's 2 Tryout Titles Fall To Larry Kristoff

Saluki wrestler Larry Kristoff moved closer to a berth on the 1964 U.S. Olympic wrestling team by winning two events at Saturday's Olympic tryouts at Waukegan.

Kristoff, a heavy heavyweight from Carbondale, defeated four of five major opponents to capture both the freestyle and Greco-Roman titles in the Men's 215-pound district meet.

The SIU marialist entered a number of other district tryouts before coming to the finals in the boy's division to be held Aug. 24-25 at the New York World's Fair.

Kristoff will get an added workout in preparation for the Olympic tryouts when he duplicated his victory here to capture the AAU heavyweight crown late in June.

Terry Finn, the other half of Southern's Olympic-minded wrestling duo, did not compete in Saturday's meet. The 115-pounder from Oak Lawn was not cleared to compete in the Waskegan tryouts because he was a part of the recent NCAA Wrestling championships.

Just Inches Short

Woods Dupree Take Seconds As Records Fall in Big Relay

George Woods turned in a fine performance at the Kansas Relays last weekend in Lawrence, finishing second in the shot put behind Texas A&M's record breaker, Danny Roberts.

Woods went over the 60 foot mark for the third time this year and shattered his own 60 1/2 inch but it wasn't enough to catch Roberts' record breaking toss of 60 feet 2 3/4 inches.

Woods was the only Saluki to qualify for Saturday's finals as the Salukis forfeited the defense of the distance medley event which they had held for two straight years.

Jim Dupree, who has used up his NCAA eligibility at Southern, competed in an open 1500 meter event and placed second in 3:50.5 to Nebraska's Ray Stevens who turned in a record breaking 3:47.5 performance.

Herb Walker set a new record of 53.1 in the 440-yard intermediate hurdles but did not qualify for the finals. SIU mile and two mile relay teams both failed to qualify. The Salukis will be entered in the Drake Relays next week-end at Des Moines, Iowa.

Saluki Golf Team Wins Again; Carello, Muehlemann Stand Out

Strengthened by the return of star senior Gene Carello, SIU's undefeated golf team swept an easy 14 1/2 to 3 1/2 victory over Washington University of St. Louis Friday at the Crab Orchard Golf course.

The triumph was the fourth without a loss for the Saluki golfers.

Carello, a West Frankfort veteran who missed last year's trip to Purdue match because of illness, has shot a 72 for his four dual match victories this season without a loss.

The stalwart senior was followed by Saluki team captain John Krueger, who fired a 73 for his third dual match victory of the year.

The big surprise for Southern was the impressive performance by sophomore Tom Muehlemann, a product of Alton, who replaced sophomore Phil Stammann who had been less than impressive in his last two outings.

SIU Nine Wins Doubleheader; Plays Cape Girardeau Today

Southern's baseball team won twice in seven games when the Salukis tangle with Southeast Missouri State this afternoon at Cape Girardeau.

The Salukis won their fifth and sixth games, 4-1 and 12-1, Saturday in a day-night doubleheader against Illinois State at Jonesboro.

It was almost the same lineup once again as pitchers Gene Vincent and Johnny Horst combined forces to throw, the mound to the Indians to just two runs on seven hits.

Both pitchers continue to turn in top-notch performances as the Salukis' only starters. Vincent went the first game and gave up just four base hits, but had to rely on the SIU Gets Grant in Space Study

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration has given a $7,712 grant to Julia Stroman, dean of the SIU School of Technology, for a three-year study of advanced structural and design concepts for space missions.

The grant, first given to SIU by NASA, will be used for structural and systems designs to be used in 1975.

"From this study we expect to see other areas of significance and will attempt to undertake these programs also," Lauchner said.

The experimental work will involve development of models to demonstrate the concepts, he said.

Three GS Courses Left Off Schedule

Three third-level courses in the General Studies area "G" have been omitted from the published schedule of classes for the coming year, Stroman said. Note the following additions:

1st Half Quarter---8:00-8:50---Monday, Tuesday, Main 102; Friday, Wham 202; Karnes 301.
2nd Half Quarter---8:00-8:50---Monday, Tuesday, Main 102; Friday, Life Science G16.
3rd Quarter---8:00-8:50---Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Wham 326.

"The Indians tied the score at 1-1 in the fifth and were stopped there. In the Saluki seventh, Bernstein tripled home a run that was sent home on a double by Prate to give SIU the 2-1 victory.

In the nightcap, Hoez held the opposition to just three hits and one run. Hoez had not yielded more than three hits in any one game this year.

Gib Snyder was the leading bunter for the day with 3 hits in 8 trips to the plate. Every Saluki got at least one hit except pitcher Vincent.

Kent Collins and Alf Polum-.dat went 2-7, Bernstein 2-8, Hoez 1-4, John Siebel, and Prate went 1-7, Jim Long 1-6, Terry Lynn 1-8 and Vincent 0-2.

Siebel gave indications of coming out of his slump last week, but might have slipped back into it. Long seems to be in the deepest slump on the squad and is hitting around .200.
