Tickets for the Southern Players’ production of “The Trojan Women” will go on sale Friday. Sheridan Abram, associate professor of theater and director of the production, announced.

The box office will be open from 10 to 12 a.m. and from 3 to 4 p.m. each weekday for the play which will be presented on April 19 through May 2, and May 4-8. Two special “late show” performances will be given at 10 p.m. on both Saturday nights, May 1 and May 8. The play has been adapted by Abrams from Edith Hamilton’s version of Euripides’ original text, to make it suitable for presentation in the modern theatre setting.

In “The Trojan Women,” Euripides had depicted a war that was not only a crime of cruelty and war and the pitiful suffering of human woe and pain.

A cast of 17 Southern Players has been chosen for the production. Tickets will be priced at $1.25 for all reserved seats. Abrams added that those who have season coupon books are requested to use the coupon for this play even though the date of performance does not coincide with the season.

The performance will be assisted by Karen Payne, settings; and Lain Harrison, costumes. Four films on Puerto Rico will be shown at 8 p.m. today and will continue the week and will be shown at 8 p.m. April 19 and at 8 p.m. Saturday. Other activities during the week will include motion picture presentations at Puerto Rico at 2 p.m. and at 8 p.m. Thursday in Shryock Auditorium.

The Pan-American Festival will continue with a discussion of “Puerto Rican Common Wealth” at 2 p.m. Thursday in Morris Library Auditorium. The Freshman-Convocation will be given in conjunction with the Festival theme, Mario B. Rodríguez, professor of Hispanic American Literature at the University of Puerto Rico, will discuss “Puerto Rico in the Modern World” at 10 a.m. and at 8 p.m. Thursday in Shryock Auditorium.

Other activities during the week will include motion picture presentations on Puerto Rico at 2 p.m. Friday and a one-and-a-half hour show, “Rosina: An Island and a Life,” at 8 p.m. Saturday.

Students whose names begin by S through Z will be chosen.

Carole Black Is Crowned Greek Goddess of 1965’

Carole Black, a sophomore from Galesburg, was chosen to be crowned the Greek Goddess of 1965 at the Greek Week Street Dance.

Miss Black, who represented Sigma Kappa sorority, was elected by the fraternity and sorority members from a slate of five candidates. She was crowned by Cassie S. Saffa, Alpha Gamma Delta; last year’s Greek Goddess.

Other nominees were: Lavana J. Shea, Delta Zeta; Carol R. Grigg, Sigma Sigma Sigma; Hillary J. Kusma, Alpha Gamma Delta; and Challis M. Waller, Alpha Kappa Alpha.

Southern’s 16th annual Greek Week began Saturday night with a coronation of Carole Black as crowned queen of the Kappa Karnival in the University Center Ballroom. Greek Week activities continue with a two-day cancer research fund drive, which began last night at 6:30 p.m., when 150 fraternity and sorority members canvassed the Carbondale area.

Tonight they will cover the Murphyboro area. The drive is in conjunction with the annual American Cancer Society drive.

Challis M. Waller, Alpha Kappa Alpha, was named Miss Greek Week Queen. Miss Waller, also a sophomore from Galesburg, was selected by the Greek Week committee.

Tickets will be sold at the box office until Saturday at 3 p.m. in Shryock Auditorium.

SIU Peace Group Takes Part
In White House Picket Line

To “help end the war in Vietnam,” 25 members of the Student Peace Union at SIU participated in a massive picket line in front of the White House in Washington, D.C., last weekend. The march, organized and led by members of the Students for a Democratic Society organization, was aimed at demonstrating and petitioning to President Johnson, asking for an end to U.S. participation in the Vietnam crisis.

The purpose of the SPU is “to sensitize people to the dangers of war in a nuclear age, by non-violent means,” said William Harris, president of the Union.

The march began at 9:30 Saturday morning, and grew to an estimated crowd of 15,000.

At 11 a.m. the marchers dispersed to hear speakers who participated in a massive Student Peace Union in Washington, D.C., last weekend. They seemed to have a serious purpose, a responsible intent that will not be ignored.”

Grad Students To Meet in Whom

Graduate students in the College of Education will meet at 3 p.m. today in the Faculty Lounge of the Wham Education Building.

The topic to be discussed is “Should graduate students in the College of Education be actively concerned with educational policies and programs in the College of Education?” All graduate students are invited.

The SIU Student Peace Office received $90,000 in federal funds to institute the program at SIU. This initial appropriation extends to June 30 of this year. A second appropriation has been applied for, and it will extend from July 1 to June 30, 1966.

French explained that the program has many benefits for students who work while attending the University, and who qualify for FWSP aid. The FWSP augment funds previously supplied exclusively by the State of Illinois and by SIU Auxiliary Enterprises. Under the program, 90 per cent of a student’s need is met. The rest of the wage will be paid by federal funds, and it is expected that the state will contribute up to one and one-fourth times the student’s eligibility under the FWSP funds, and that the fund will eventually replace state funds.

French noted that the program allows qualified students to drop out of school for any one semester with full time at their regular University jobs, and receive, ex-veto from FWSP funds, one and four-fifths times their regular wages. The student’s eligibility under the program has been established, a change in jobs will not affect it.

Qualification for the program is based upon income, for single and self-supporting students, and upon family income and number of dependents for married students. Financial questionnaires were sent to all workers, and the work office has asked that students return these by May 1.

What does all this mean to the student worker or to the potential worker? It means more jobs available, more money for the work program at SIU, and the possibility of an across-the-board wage increase for student workers.

French was asked whether the inclusion of the program has caused any “headaches” for the Student Work Office. He replied, “not at all.”

SIU’s Student Work Office Is a Beneficiary
Of President Johnson’s War on Poverty Bill

By James Rambo

The SIU Student Work Office has become one of many in President Johnson’s “war on poverty” through its participation in the Federal Work-Study Program. The program is one part of the recently legislated Economic Opportunity Act.

William T. French, a supervisor in the Student Work Office, said that as of March 24 there were 325 students working under the FWSP, and that the work office hoped to qualify 1,000 more by May 15.

More than 3,000 students presently work in University jobs, and according to French, almost Angeline director, July 1 through the FWSP will probably increase this figure greatly.

In January, the Student Work Office was granted $90,000 in federal funds to institute the program at SIU. This initial appropriation extends to June 30 of this year. A second appropriation has been applied for, and it will extend from July 1 to June 30, 1966.

April 21, 1965
Letter to the President

Dear President Morris,

I would like to raise a question of All-University status. A proposal was made to be voiced at the Journalism and Mass Communications conference that has come to my attention. It states that there is no problem in withdrawing from Viet Nam but that there is a problem in returning to Viet Nam. We would leave "our last remaining base" behind because Communist China is still in power. It has been taken by a form of Communism that is true democracy and their ability to see their people as equals. It must be noted that these people have been left out of their own development and must not be seen as a problem for all people. The reasonable viewpoint is that as many of them seem to have already done, the sensible viewpoint is that the Communist world is not one of a monolithic aggregation but rather a part to consume the world, and it is a diverse world of people working in the consumer industry to satisfy people similar to the "ideals".

More controversial politicians might respond to this expression with a condemnation of "lack of principles" and "lack of free and free enterprises." I think you will see an obvious conclusion about the values of our Western tradition that the East share also. Failure to recognize the validity and claims of the world's other values is shaming off as "dupes". For us to picket or form a group that will dramatize the depth of our concern.

Very sincerely,
Larry R. Caughran

Ode to the Radioactive Wind

adapted by Lawrence

Oh, wild atomic wind, from the furnace's immaturity, Thou, from whose unseen presence the spirits dead Are driven, like masses, from a persecutor fleeing. The name when it appeared in the West. With the benefit of this new insight, I now propose that the origins of this great land on a large scale, because the declaration of war on China (a difficult problem because seeing as how Red China is a monolith, but we could drop bombs on Pormosa) have already been free of Communists and free of Capitalists and free of all the communist appeasers at the UN. The case of an uncurl the kind of political and economic system we want, I'll be a lot easier without people.

Government Urged

The disease that envelops the entire planet. One of the symptoms is the disease of vision which makes large objects appear small and vice versa. Hallucinations frequently strike, distortion of the world. The K, and Shi is seen to represent the aspirations of the Chinese people. On the other hand, K, and Shi is the aspirations of the Congress.

The Western powers and their minions do not want China represented in the United Nations because the black - yellow - white - brown revolution's two light shines with a pulsating voice. The Western powers and their minions are in the process of inoching the deprivation of the southern half of the planet, as well as the northern half. A darker hue generally, unless they need to coercive to the West.

The Cambodian people and people of the West. With the world a poor and weak people, China is the harbinger of that change. A change must come which can never be formulated, but human, reaction to it. The change must use a policy of the new world that China represented in the United Nations. As a harbinger of that change must be a strongly centralized international government.

Republicans Seek New Redistricting Agency

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) - Republican members of a House-Senate conference committee on legislative redistricting called Tuesday for its dissolution and appointment of a new committee.

Sen. Robert Fitch, R-Chicago, said the five Republicans on the 10-member group would report to the legislature the committee was deadlocked. Democratic leaders, however, announced their members would continue to meet.

The committee split along party lines in voting 6-6 on the question of whether overlapping districts should be considered or ruled out in the reapportionment talks.

GOP leaders had said previously if a majority of the committee could not agree to eliminate overlapping, the committee would be disbanded.

Democrats have been demanding that some Chicago districts extend into the Cook County suburbs. Republican leaders this weekh said they would be in violation of an Illinois Supreme Court decision that districts must be contained within the three divisions of Cook County and downstate.

Rep. Cecil Partee, D-Chicago, told the committee members they would not attempt to draw a tentative map without an agreement against overlapping.

Democrats proposed that two sets of maps be drawn—one with districts overlapping and the other adhering to the three division principle.

Sen. Alf Dixon, D-Belleville, said such a plan could be contained in one bill and that Gov. Otto Kerner or a court could strike one of the maps.

Hatch told newsmen this would not be acceptable. "Why should we go for a bill like that when the Illinois Supreme Court already has ruled you must maintain the public impression be asked,"

Another idea offered by Dixon was rejected. He recommended that both sides agree that certain House and Senate districts be swung districts in which either party could capture a majority of a commission in an election, and other districts be set up to insure the dissolution and appointment of a new commission.

In the quad cities emergency disaster areas, making them eligible for aid. Hughes said spring floods have caused an estimated $15 million damage in the state—not counting the yet-to-come devastation of the Mississippi.

Mississippi Gov. Karl Rol­lins said he would not ask the federal government to add 11 more counties to the 6 already asked for. Hughes has asked for help for 19 Wisconsin counties hit by the floods and by a series of Palm Sunday tornadoes.

Civil Defense officials have estimated the combined losses in Wisconsin and Minnesota as high as $60 million.

Upstream at Winona, the river was creating at 20.75, slightly below the forecast, but it would recede only slowly through Thursday.

Mississippi has compiled a list of 10 dead and one missing so far. Wisconsin has two dead and a third missing.

Downstream, one of the two bridges linking Dubuque, Iowa, with Wisconsin was closed because of high water. Just below the Wisconsin-Illinois border, the south levee of the Illinois' Breves District in Quincy, Ill., continued to hold despite the extra pres­sure exerted on it since the north dike broke Saturday. Of­icials were able to divert water from the north levee Monday to set up a diversion and relieve some of the strain on the south dike, which protects about 5,000 acres of farmland.

Red China Renews Threats to Aid Viet Cong if U.S. Accelerates War

TOKYO (AP) — Red China threatened Tuesday to send volunteers to fight in Vietnam to support the “U.S. aggressors.”

Peking radio said the Standing Committee of the Vietnamese People’s Congress—Parliament—called on Chinese organizations and Red China’s millions to make full preparations to send their own people to fight together with the Vietnamese people to encircle the U.S. aggressors and firmly continue to escalate its war of aggression and the Vietnamese people need.

With these two exceptions for direct action, the Standing Committee then called on the people in the Communist camp to give unreserved support to the Vietnamese people now engaged in a patriotic, just struggle to resist the United States, said a committee resolution that was unanimously adopted.

“The Chinese government and the Chinese people have declared that aggression by U.S. imperialism against the Democratic Republic of Viet Nam means a struggle against China and that Chinese people will absolutely not sit by idly without lending a helping hand.

This was reminiscent of the fall of 1950, when the Communist North Korean army was in full flight before the U.S. and U.N. divisions in the Korean War.

At that time, Peking said it would not stand “idly by” and let North Korea be overrun.

In November, the Chinese Communists, entering North Korea as “volunteers,” launched an offensive that drove the U.S. forces back into South Korea.

“In accordance with the demands of the Vietnamese people and the requirements of the common struggle against U.S. imperialism and aggression,” the committee’s resolution said, “the Chinese people have done and will continue to do their utmost to assist the Vietnamese people to defeat the U.S. aggressors completely.”

Top U.S. Military Advisors Hold Conference in Honolulu

HONOLULU (AP) — Secretary of Defense McNamara and top U.S. military and civilian officials met behind closed doors Tuesday to discuss the United States’ next step in South Vietnam.

Among items on the agenda in a proposal for the South Vietnamese government to increase its forces by about 150,000 men over the next year.

McNamara said the United States had decided “as a matter of principle” to support the increase.

The second day of sessions got under way as Red China announced it was preparing to send Chinese troops into the Vietnamese war if the United States escalates the fighting and the Vietnamese people ask for assistance.

The officials declined to answer any questions as they arrived for the discussions in the Pacific Military Command war room overlooking Pearl Harbor.

In the talks with McNamara and General Maxwell D. Taylor, ambassador to Viet Nam; Gen. Earl G. Wheeler, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff; Gen. William C. Westmoreland, U.S. Commanding General in Viet Nam; and Adm. U.S. Grant Sharp Jr., Pacific military commander.

American Bombers Hit North Viet Highways

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Twenty tons of American bombs and heavy land-slides today on North Viet Nam highways. It was reported from Hanoi, about 140 miles south of Haiphong, a U.S. spokesman announced.

The one reported early revealed the effort to stall Communist Vietnamese traffic.

This is the second large landing operation. It was a spectacular landing of raids against highways north of the 17th Parallel.

A U.S. helicopter, only staged after the land-slide operation. It was a spectacular landing of raids against highways south of the 17th Parallel.

A U.S. helicopter, only staged after the land-slide operation. It was a spectacular landing of raids against highways south of the 17th Parallel.

The spokesman said the three smashed a truck convoy at one point in a half-mile stretch running along the highway and that the two others returned safely to the Hancock.

The two others returned safely to the Hancock. The third air force fighter-bombers hit at the My Duc bridge south of Dong Hot, itself 45 miles north of the border, and strafed convoys on Highways 1, 8 and 12. The spokesman said all planes came safely.

A Peking broadcast said North Vietnamese antiaircraft gunners shot down eight planes.

The bridge proved to be a sturdy target. It was reported still standing after the attack though bomb craters dotted its approaches.

South of the border a U.S. Army officer and three Vietnamese gunners were killed in a continuing fight between a Viet Cong band and helicopter-supported ground forces in Binh Dinh Province near Qui Nhon. The American was hit while helping in the withdrawal of Vietnamese wounded.

This was the operation in which nine U.S. Army helicopter crews were killed by Viet Cong gunners Monday. Reports from the field indicated 42 Viet Cong have been killed, most of them by fire from helicopters.

Concerning the criticism of the Greek system by non-affiliates, Miss Hill said, "I just wish that people who have never tried Greek life wouldn't criticize it."
Grad Student To Serve as Missionary

Eleanor Harper of East Alton, a graduate student at SIU, has been selected to serve as a member of the missionary journeyman program, it was announced by Charles E. Gray, director of the Baptist Student Union at SIU.

Miss Harper will be the first such appointee from Illinois.

This program, established by the Southern Baptist Convention, provides young people under 27 years of age the opportunity of serving as a teacher, librarian, student worker, technician, or other lay worker while working with the missionaries in the field. Gray said. Their term of appointment is two years, including an eight-week training period.

An active member of the Baptist Student Union, Miss Harper has served on the local executive council for five years and the State BSU Council for three years. She is employed as a student assistant in the Department of the Illinois State Baptist Convention.

Miss Harper will go overseas with other members around Sept. 1 after completing training sessions beginning June 19 in Richmond, Va.

Data Processing Divisions Moved

The Operations Section and the Research and Instructional Divisions of Data Processing have moved to a new building in the Wham Education Center.

This change included centralization of the 1401 and 1620 computers, tabulating and keypunch machines. Full scale operations are scheduled to be completed by the weekend, according to Arthur E. Olhoeft, assistant director of data processing.

President Morris, SIU Faculty Members To Participate in War Centennial Meet

Early on the morning of May 3, 1865, the train bearing the body of the assassinated President Abraham Lincoln arrived in Springfield after a 12-day journey from Washington. The next day, the body was buried.

One hundred years later, from April 30 to May 4, the United States Civil War Centennial Commission will hold its Eighth National Assembly in Springfield to commemorate this event.

SIU President Dobyte W. Moritz is expected to take part, along with a number of SIU faculty members, state and federal officials and Civil War scholars from around the nation.

Among the faculty members taking part in the program will be William A. Pitkin, associate professor of history and President of the Illinois State Historical Society; John Y. Simon, associate professor of history and Executive Director of the Ulysses S. Grant Association. The SIU Players will present a concert reading of the play, "The Last Days of Lincoln," by Mark Van Doren, on April 30.

"It would be hard to find a greater gathering of experts in Civil War history," Pitkin said. "Nevins, he said, is "in many ways, the most outstanding historian of American history.

Pitkin said the meeting is supposed to be the last of the Centennial Commission's assemblies, but he added, "once a thing gets going it is pretty hard to liquidate it."

"We are going to have a continuation of the Civil War theme. Only now are we beginning to find out what it means. Now that a century has passed, everyone North and South alike can view the Civil War objectively— of course more or less objectively," he said.

Pitkin said the Commission has given the five-year Civil War centennial "a certain unity, so it has been a national observance, both North and South."

"The idea was to bring the whole thing to the attention of the general public, to make the nation at large conscious of our heritage that we had a Civil War and that we came out of it pretty well."

There are eight big reasons why Southern's gymnastics team should be better next season. They are Fred Dennis, Paul Mayer, Dale Hardt, Ron Harstad, Skip Ray, Allan Alexander, Jack Hultz and Joe Polizzano, eight freshmen who will move up to the varsity squad.

Coach Bill Mead, who had predicted big things from all of them, wasn't disappointed at the United States Gymnastics Federation Open Meet in Nashville, Tenn., last weekend.

Dennis turned in the finest performance of the group by winning the rings and adding a third place in high bar and a seventh place on the side horse while competing in the Class A division.

Mayer and Hardt were two freshmen who competed against more experienced gymnasts in the elite group. Mayer won a fourth place finish in free exercise, a seventh place finish on the long horse and a 15th place finish on the side horse.

Hardt finished second to Rusty Mitchell, acting SIU Coach, in tumbling, but a slight misjudgment, which caused him to touch the edge of the springs on the trampoline, eliminated him from the event.

Harstad, who works one event, parallel bars, finished third. A bad dismount cost him a higher finish.

Ray, a trampolinist and a flyer, is expected to make the battle for the top three spots on the trampoline even more interesting with his ninth place finish. He also finished sixth in tumbling.

Alexander finished tenth in free exercise and eleventh in parallel bars. Hultz finished tenth on the rings and eleventh in free exercise and Polizzano finished twelfth on the rings. Meade believes that with a little more experience the latter three could be battling for positions on the team next year.

Two Car Strippers Are Fined, Suspended After Court Conviction

Gene R. Jepson of Streator and Terry A. Hughes of Chicago have been suspended through the summer quarter after their convictions in Joliet County Court on charges of criminal damage to property.

Jepson also was convicted of driving without a license and underage drinking.

A spokesman for the Student General Affairs Office, said Jepson drove a car without the owner's permission and had been drinking. He picked up Hughes, and the two of them reportedly stripped the car of some of its parts and then abandoned it. However, the owner did not press their charges.

Jepson was fined $225 plus $35.50 in costs, Hughes was fined $130 and $35.50 in costs. Both were put on one-year probation by the court and ordered to pay for damages to the car.
Two Top Cagers Sign For 1965-66 Season

The 1965-66 basketball season is far off, but you'd never know it from the way things have been hopping for two of SIU's basketball Coaches Jack Hartman and George Huffman.

After last week the two cage mentors may have been made firmly in the money, if you'll excuse the saying, "When it rains it pours."

Within a 48-hour period Thursday and Friday two of the top players on SIU's recruiting list signed to accept basketball scholarships to Southern for next year.

Hartman, the New Carlisle Centralia forward-guard, was the first to indicate his intentions on Thursday. Then Friday star forward Lynn Howerton of Carbondale confirmed the offer.

The announcement was made on an article appearing in Life Magazine which stated that two of the best prospects used were good, but that the tactics used in employing them were very rare. In reply, Hughes said the reporter talked to the wrong men and that he saw only one of approximately 35 maneuvers employed by the helicopter battalions.

"Bum tactics!" exclaimed Hughes. "Do you know who the first guy to use smoke in Viet Nam was? Me. Do you know who the first guy to use gas in Viet Nam was? Me."

U.S. Tactics in Viet Nam OK, Hughes Tells AFROTC Cadets

The Communists feel that our forces in Viet Nam are impatient and impulsive, Lt. Col. Howard Hughes of the 101st Airborne, commander of the 504th aviation battalion, said Tuesday.

Hughes, a former 101st Airborne commander, returned from Viet Nam last week, spoke at a gathering of advanced AFROTC cadets in the Newman Lecture Center of the Eagle Squadron. He said, "The Viet Cong think we're 100-yard men, not cross-country.

A well-trained man with the sound of experience in his voice and a world of tactical experience in the way he talked, commented on the job that the armed forces are doing in Viet Nam. "We can put our hands out there doing a job you can't find enough adjectives to describe," Hughes said.

Hughes commanded two of the helicopter battalions stationed in Viet Nam and emphasized the role that they played in the war. An expert on army helicopters, Hughes described the helicopter and a water buffalo to contrast two methods of warfare in Viet Nam. "The helicopter's going to win," Hughes said.

"We've had a better reception than we've ever had," Hartman said.

The SIU head coach attributes much of the recruiting success thus far to assistant coach hublet.

"He's done a better job that ever in seeing the kids," Hartman said.

Six stars from three states have planned visits to SIU this weekend.

Among them are Tom Goers, 6-3, of Dunelle; Ev Brown, 6-5, of San Antionio; and Lonid Martin, 6-3, of Memphis.

"We've had quite a few boys visit already and we're expecting quite a few more," Hartman said.

With that he went back to work on his recruiting chores. There's still plenty of work to be done. But with what he calls his "blue-chip boys" already signed, the recruiting picture looks bright.

The Intramural Softball season will start under way this afternoon with 10 teams seeing action on five fields.

In the five-day period that will begin the quest by more than 50 teams for the Intramural Softball championship, the team will battle for a play-off spot, the four best teams in each of seven divisions. Teams will play seven games during the regular season.

Last spring 1,050 men participated in the softball program.

Baseball Salukis Down Aces 19-4

The jinx is ended and Evansville has been conquered, after nine fine baseball games, two of which were described as a one point and a match, which was decided by a stroke, an SIU athetic team has beaten a team from Evansville.

The baseball team ended the string of losses Tuesday as they hammered out a 19-4 victory over the Aces.

Meanwhile the baseball team continued a record of 1-5 against the Aces. The Salukis haven't lost to an Evansville baseball team since 1957 and have now won nine straight games.

The game started out as if Evansville, now 1-5 for the time, still had the box on, but the Aces, scored for four runs in the third inning, of starting pitcher Wayne Sramek.

Sramek was hardly to blame, as he was the victim of shabby fielding on the part of his teammates.

Meanwhile the opening inning with a single to left.
Pitcher Bob Gray walked, Second baseman Mike Madriaga followed with a single to center which scored Gray.

Shortstop Rick Kingston grounded to third baseman Bob Bernstein, who in his haste promptly retired the batters in order.

Backstop Dennis Wallace
struck out, catcher Bill Merrill, Kingston went all the way to third on the series of errors.

Kington scored what proved to be the last Evansvi-Aces run a moment later, when third baseman Mike Madriaga singled him home.

In the third inning, Southern's bats were practically nonexistent in the first three innings' as the Aces were unable to advantage of Gray's wilderness which saw him walk four batters and hit another.

But the Salukis woke up in the fourth as seven Evansvillians men to the plate with twelve of them scoring.

Backstop Al Pelutil opened the inning with a walk.

After shortstop Dennis Wallace struck out, catcher Merrill collected his first of two hits,
a single to center.
